19 Coaching Staff

41 The Gamecocks

South Carolina returns 36 letterwinners from last season's 11-win squad, including a dozen starters. Six starters return on offense, while five are back on defense and one on special teams. In addition, the Gamecocks welcome their ninth-straight Top-25 recruiting class to Columbia this fall.

77 2012 in Review

South Carolina posted an 11-2 record in 2012, it's second-straight 11-win season. The Gamecocks had won 10 games just once previously in school history. The 2012 edition staked its claim as the best team in school history, as it finished the year ranked seventh by the Coaches and eighth in the final Associated Press poll, the loftiest final rankings in history.

CREDITS: The 2013 South Carolina Football Media Guide was published by the University of South Carolina Athletics Media Relations Department. The media guide was written, designed and edited by Steve Fink, Assistant Athletics Director/Media Relations, with assistance provided by the media relations staff and the student assistants, with special mention to Bernice Woodard and Katie Jordan. Covers designed by Old Hat Creative. The front cover features Bruce Ellington, Connor Shaw, Head Coach Steve Spurrier and Jadeveon Clowney. The back cover features Chaz Sutton, Dylan Thompson and Kelcy Quarles. Photography provided by Travis Bell, Mary Ann Chastain, James Quantz, Allen Sharpe and Kim Truett. The media guide was printed by Professional Printers of West Columbia, S.C.

The University of South Carolina does not discriminate in educational or employment opportunities or decisions for qualified persons on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, sexual orientation or veteran status.

The South Carolina Football Media Guide has regularly been recognized as one of the top Division I football media guides in the country. The 2009 guide was named "Best in the Nation", while the 2010 guide was "Fourth in the Nation" and the 2011 guide was "Third in the Nation" according to CoSIDA.

105 Records

Led by the incomparable George Rogers, the Gamecock record book is dotted with great individual performances. Last season, Marcus Lattimore and Jadeveon Clowney added their names to an impressive list of players who proudly donned the Garnet & Black.

121 History

Head coach Steve Spurrier became the winningest coach in Carolina history during the 2012 season, breaking Rex Enright's mark of 64 wins with a 27-17 win at Clemson. Coach Spurrier added a win over Michigan in the Outback Bowl, giving him 66 victories in his eight-year tenure in Columbia.

163 Bowl Games

South Carolina has played in 18 bowl games, including nine since the turn of the century. The Gamecocks are enjoying a streak in which they have been bowl-eligible for nine straight years, the longest stretch of its kind in school history. Carolina has won back-to-back bowl games, defeating traditional powers Nebraska (Capital One Bowl) and Michigan (Outback Bowl) in the last two years.

183 Information

South Carolina has a tremendous following, both in the stands and in the press box. Assistant Athletics Director/Media Relations Steve Fink and his staff are ready and able to assist you in your coverage of Gamecock Football.

THE HISTORY: 2013 marks the 120th season of inter-collegiate football at the University of South Carolina, dating back to 1892. It is the 107th-consecutive year in which South Carolina has competed on the gridiron. The University did not field a team in either 1893 or 1906. Carolina owns an all-time record of 565-545-44.

SEC HISTORY: The 2013 season marks South Carolina's 22nd year in the Southeastern Conference. South Carolina and Arkansas joined the 10-team league prior to the 1992 campaign. The SEC became a 14-team conference last year when Missouri and Texas A&M joined. The Gamecocks earned their first SEC Eastern Division title in the 2010 season.

MAKING HISTORY: The Gamecocks have put together back-to-back 11-win seasons, the first back-to-back, double-digit win seasons in school history. They have logged two of their three 10-or more win seasons in the last two years. The only previous 10-win campaign came in 1984. The Gamecocks have won 22 games over the past two seasons, 31 over the past three seasons, and 38 over the past four seasons, all school records.

THE RANKINGS: The Gamecocks finished eighth in the final 2012 Associated Press poll and seventh in the final USA Today/Coaches poll. It was the highest finish on record for Carolina, one spot better in both polls than in 2011.

TOP-10 PROGRAM: The Gamecocks have put together back-to-back Top 10 finishes for the first time in school history, finishing ninth in 2011 and eighth in 2012 according to the Associated Press. They finished one spot higher in the Coaches' poll both years. The Gamecocks have finished among the nation's Top 25 for three-straight seasons, another "first" in school history. Here are South Carolina's final AP Top-25 rankings:

YEAR (FINAL AP): 1958 (13); 1984 (11); 1987 (15); 2000 (19); 2001 (13); 2010 (22); 2011 (9); 2012 (8).

IN THE POLLS: The Gamecocks have been ranked in the Associated Press Top-25 for 47 consecutive polls, starting with the second week of the 2010 season. That is the longest consecutive streak in school history. According to research compiled by "The Blitz," South Carolina was ranked in the A.P. poll 148 times from 1936-2011, 14 times as a member of the ACC (1936-1970), 57 times as a Independent (1971-1991) and 77 times since joining the SEC prior to the 2012 season.

YES THEY CALL IT A STREAK: The Gamecocks are tied for the fifth-longest current streak of being ranked in the Associated Press's Top 25. Carolina and Stanford have been ranked for 47 consecutive weeks, trailing only Alabama, LSU, Oregon and Oklahoma.

RK	Team	Weeks
1.	Alabama	81
2.	LSU	65
3.	Oregon	61
4.	Oklahoma	49
5.	South Carolina	47
	Stanford	47

THE TOP 10: The Gamecocks were ranked in the Top 10 for a school-record 10-consecutive Associated Press polls, the final two of the 2011 season and the first eight of the 2012 campaign, before falling out after successive losses at LSU and Florida. The Gamecocks have been ranked in the AP Top 10 31 times in school history, 17 under head coach Steve Spurrier including 14 times in the last two seasons. Here are the dates that Carolina has been ranked in the AP Top 10:

				FINAL 2012	8

STARTING ON A ROLL: The Gamecocks won their final five games of the 2012 season, with consecutive victories over Tennessee, Arkansas, Wofford, Clemson and Michigan. It's the first time in school history that Carolina enters the offseason on a five-game winning streak. The previous best was four, set in 1958 and matched in 2011. The 1912 unit went 4-0-1 in its last five games and the 1947 squad went 5-0-1 in its last six contests. The Gamecocks will enter the 2013 season tied with Rice for the nation's eighth-longest winning streak behind Ohio State (12), Arkansas State (8), Stanford (8), Utah State (7), Vanderbilt (7), San Jose State (7) and Texas A&M (6).

THEY'RE BACK: The Gamecocks welcome 36 returning letterwinners to begin the 2013 campaign. The 36 lettermen consist of 19 offensive players, 16 defensive players and one special teams player. The Gamecocks lost 24 lettermen, including 10 on offense, 11 on defense and three from special teams. A complete list of the returning and lost lettermen can be found on page 12.

SQUAD BREAKDOWN: The 107-man squad consists of five seniors, 25 juniors, 31 sophomores, and 46 freshmen.

FOR STARTERS: The Gamecocks list 12 returning starters from the 2012 squad (six on offense, five on defense and one specialist). The returning offensive starters are OG A.J. Cann, WR Bruce Ellington, OG Ronald Patrick, OT Corey Robinson, QB Connor Shaw and OT Brandon Shell. The returning defensive starters include DE Jadeveon Clowney, CB Victor Hampton, CB Jimmy Legree, DT Kelcy Quarles, SS Brisson Williams. The lone returning specialist is P Tyler Hull.

GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN: The Gamecocks said goodbye to 26 lettermen from last year's bowl roster including 12 starters. The departing starters include TE Justice Cunningham, OC T.J. Johnson, TB Marcus Lattimore, WR D.L. Moore and WR Ace Sanders on the offensive side of the ball and LB Reginald Bowens, SPR DeVonte Holloman, DT Byron Jerideau, FS D.J. Swearingin, DE Devin Taylor and LB Shaq Wilson on the defensive side of the ball, along with PK Adam Yates. A complete list of the departed letterwinners can be found on page 12.

EVERY TIME OUT: The Gamecocks had nine players start all 13 games a year ago. Of the nine, WR Bruce Ellington and OG Ronald Patrick will return for the 2013 campaign.

THE HEAD BALL COACH: Steve Spurrier begins his ninth season directing the Gamecock football program. He has logged a 66-37 mark (.641) in Columbia. The Head Ball Coach is Carolina's winningest coach with 66 victories and is second in games coached with 103, behind Rex Enright (140). Spurrier owns a 208-77-2 mark (.729) in 23 seasons as a collegiate head coach, with previous stops at Duke and Florida.

AT THE TOP OF THE LEADER BOARD: Head coach Steve Spurrier recorded his 65th victory at South Carolina in his 102nd career game as the Gamecocks' head coach in the regular-season finale at Clemson and added No. 66 in the Outback Bowl against Michigan. He surpassed Rex Enright (64) for the most coaching wins in school history. He is already the winningest coach at Florida with 122 victories. The legendary Bear Bryant (60 at Kentucky and 232 at Alabama) is the only other coach to own the most wins at two SEC schools.

TOPS IN HIS FIELD: Steve Spurrier became the 71st head college football coach (all divisions) and the 22nd in Division I history to record 200 wins when he accomplished that feat against UAB in 2012. He ranks third among active Division I coaches with 208 wins. In addition, the HBC has 47 wins as a head coach at the professional level, giving him 255 career coaching wins.

UNCHARTED TERRITORY: The 2013 Outback Bowl marked the seventh time Coach Spurrier has taken Carolina to a bowl game. They have been bowl-eligible in each of his eight campaigns. No other coach in Carolina history has taken the Gamecocks to more than three bowl games (Jim Carlen and Joe Morrison). Coach Spurrier is 3-4 in bowl games at South Carolina, including back-to-back bowl wins over Nebraska (Capital One Bowl) and Michigan (Outback Bowl). He is the only Gamecock coach to post three bowl victories.

ENROLLING EARLY: The Gamecocks welcomed three scholarship players to the roster in January. The threesome included junior college cornerback Ronnie Martin and a pair of high schoolers who graduated a semester early, quarterback Connor Mitch and offensive lineman D.J. Park.

IN THE CLASSROOM: The Gamecocks placed 29 players on the 2012 SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll while posting a team GPA of 2.918, highest in school history. Among those who made the SEC Honor Roll include returnees Landon Ard, K.J. Brent, Damiere Byrd, A.J. Cann, Shon Carson, Gerald Dixon Jr., Phillip Dukes, Bruce Ellington, Deon Green, Mason Harris, Tyler Hull, Kadetrax Marcus, Drew Owens, Ronald Patrick, Kelvin Rainey, Corey Robinson, Brandon Shell, Brock Stadnik, Clayton Stadnik and Dylan Thompson.

THEY PAY TO SEE THE GAMECOCKS PLAY: The Gamecocks ranked 18th in the nation in average home attendance in 2012, averaging 80,001 at Williams-Brice Stadium. That includes a school record 85,199 who were on hand to watch the Gamecocks thump Georgia, 35-7.

TWO-SPORT STARS: Head coach Steve Spurrier is not adverse to having his players participate in other sports at Carolina. Wide receiver Bruce Ellington has been the starting point guard for the basketball team for the past three seasons, while tailback Shon Carson and cornerback Ahmad Christian spent the spring with the Gamecock baseball team. In addition, wide receiver Damiere Byrd was a sprinter during the indoor track & field season.

IT'S A NUMBERS GAME: The Gamecocks return 42 percent of their rushing yards, 96 percent of their passing yards and 54 percent of their receiving yards from a year ago. In addition, six of the squad's top 13 tacklers, return for the 2013 campaign.

GOOD HOME COOKIN': The Gamecocks have won their last 11 games at Williams-Brice Stadium. Carolina is 27-3 in its last 30 home games. The only home losses in the last four years came to top-ranked Florida in 2009, to 17th-ranked Arkansas in 2010 and to defending national champion Auburn in 2011.

PERFECT AT HOME: The Gamecocks went 7-0 at home in 2012. It marked the first time they ran the table at home since joining the SEC. The last time they went undefeated at home was in 1987. They have been undefeated and untied at home 10 times.

TOP HOME STREAKS: The Gamecocks have won 11-straight home games, their longest stretch since joining the SEC and the third-longest streak in school history. Here are the top home winning streaks:

YEARS	WINS
1978-1980	15
1986-1988	13
2011-2012 (current)	11

AN SEC SIX-PACK: With a 6-2 SEC mark in 2012, the Gamecocks reached six SEC victories for the second year in a row. They had never had six SEC wins in a season prior to 2011. They finished the 2000, 2001, 2005 and 2010 seasons with 5-3 SEC marks. Carolina finished 2012 with at least a .500 SEC mark for the 10th time in 21 seasons and have put together three-straight .500-or-better SEC records for the first time in school history.

GAMECOCKS IN THE SEC: The Gamecocks wrapped up their 21st season of league play in the SEC in 2012. They have played 168 SEC regular-season contests since joining the league. Here's a breakdown of the Gamecocks in three-year segments in conference regular season action:

Years	Record	.500 or Better	Pct.
1992-1994	9-15-0	1994	.375
1995-1997	9-14-1	1996	.396
1998-2000	5-19-0	2000	.208
2001-2003	10-14-0	2001	.417
2004-2006	12-12-0	2004, 2005	.500
2007-2009	10-14-0	2008	.417
2010-2012	17-7-0	2010, 2011, 2012	.708
Totals	72-95-1	Ten Times	.432

OUT OF THEIR LEAGUE: The Gamecocks went 5-0 in non-conference action in both 2011 and 2012, and have been undefeated in regular season non-conference play for three consecutive years. They are 31-7 in non-conference games under head coach Steve Spurrier, including wins in 29 of their last 34 non-SEC tilts. The year-by-year breakdown: 2005 (2-2); 2006 (5-0); 2007 (3-1); 2008 (3-2); 2009 (4-1); 2010 (4-1); 2011 (5-0); 2012 (5-0). They have a regular season winning streak over non-conference opponents of 16 games. South Carolina's last regular season non-conference loss came at Clemson in 2008.

KEEPING THE FANS HAPPY: The Gamecocks have taken care of business against their top rivals in recent seasons. Over the past three years, they are an impressive 11-1 against SEC Eastern Division rivals Georgia (3-0), Florida (2-1) and Tennessee (3-0) and against in-state rival Clemson (3-0). In fact, Carolina has won the Palmetto State Championship four years in a row, the longest winning streak over the Tigers since 1951-54.

AS GOOD AS IT GETS: The 2013 Gamecocks will feature one of the game's top players in junior defensive end Jadeveon Clowney. Clowney, who is regarded by most as the top defensive player in the country and a likely top pick in the 2014 NFL Draft, was just the second Gamecock to earn unanimous All-America honors in 2012, joining George Rogers from his Heisman Trophy season in 1980. Clowney was named the Hendricks Award winner as the nation's top defensive end, and the All-America Player of the Year, presented by AT&T as selected by the fans on ESPN.com. He finished sixth in the Heisman race and was a finalist for the Nagurski Trophy, Rotary Lombardi Award and the Bednarik Award after being named the SEC Defensive Player of the Year by the league's coaches.

THE LEGACY CONTINUES: The Gamecocks roster features four players whose fathers also donned the Garnet & Black: junior defensive tackle Kelcy Quarles and his father, Buddy (1984-87); sophomore defensive linemen Gerald Dixon and Gerald Dixon Jr. and their father, Gerald (1990-91); and redshirt freshman Jordan Diggs and his father, Shed (1984-87).

RECRUITING SUCCESS: The Gamecocks had another successful February signing day. Carolina has put together nine-straight classes that rank among the nation's top-25, according to Rivals. Here are the recent recruiting class rankings according to Rivals and Scout:

2002: 11th/18th	2008: 22nd/34th
2003: 8th/15th	2009: 12th/13th
2004: 35th/28th	2010: 24th/34th
2005: 23rd/20th	2011: 18th/11th
2006: 24th/33rd	2012: 19th/13th
2007: 6th/7th	2013: 16th/23rd

WORKING OVERTIME: The Gamecocks have played just two overtime games in their history, both at Tennessee. They dropped a 23-20 decision in Knoxville on Sept. 27, 2003, then fell by a 27-24 score on Oct. 27, 2007, at Neyland Stadium.

ATTENTION BOOSTERS:

The University of South Carolina Office of Compliance Services is committed to a comprehensive compliance program that educates everyone about the importance of adhering to NCAA, SEC, and institutional rules. We strive to create a "compliance conscience" within the University and throughout the community.

The commitment to compliance ensures institutional control over the department of athletics and furthers the mission of the University of South Carolina. The existence of a successful compliance program depends on the willingness of coaches, administrators, staff, student-athletes and boosters to be cognizant of NCAA, SEC, and institutional rules.

WHAT IS COMPLIANCE?

At South Carolina, the Office of Compliance Services works within the department of athletics and the University to ensure South Carolina's compliance with all applicable rules. In doing so, the compliance staff is charged with the following tasks:

- Educating administrators, coaches, staff, prospects, student-athletes and boosters about NCAA, SEC, and institutional rules;
- Developing monitoring systems to ensure compliance with these rules. These systems are designed to monitor rules pertaining to recruiting, academic eligibility, financial aid, awards, extra benefits, ethical conduct, amateurism, agents, employment, occasional meals, and the playing and practice seasons for each sport; and
- Investigating and reporting violations of NCAA, SEC, and institutional rules to the appropriate governing authority.

ARE YOU A BOOSTER?

You are a booster if you are or ever have:

- Been a member of a booster organization that supports University of South Carolina athletics;
- Made any financial contributions to any area the University of South Carolina;
- Made any annual or lifetime membership commitment to a booster organization;
- Been involved with the recruitment of a prospect;
- Provided benefits to an enrolled student-athlete or his/her relatives or friends;
- Been involved in promoting South Carolina's athletic program;
- Provided or helped to arrange employment for student-athletes;
- Been a season ticket holder.

PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETES

A prospective student-athlete (prospect) is a student who has:

- Started classes for the ninth grade, or
- Ever received any financial assistance or other benefit prospective students do not generally receive.

An individual remains a prospect until one of the following occurs (whichever is earlier):

- The individual officially registers and enrolls in a minimum full-time program of studies and attends classes in any term (including summer) of a four-year collegiate institution's regular academic year.
- The individual participates in a regular squad practice or competition at a four-year collegiate institution that occurs before the beginning of any term.

Remember a prospect remains a prospect even after signing a National Letter of Intent with the University of South Carolina.

EXTRA BENEFITS

A recruiting inducement or extra benefit is any special arrangement by a University of South Carolina employee or booster to provide a prospect, a student-athlete, or their relatives or friends a benefit not expressly authorized by the NCAA. Examples of impermissible extra benefits include, but are not limited to:

- Free or reduced cost services, rentals, or purchases of any type (e.g., meals, drinks, clothing, laundry, haircuts, legal fees, tattoos, car repairs, free upgrades on products or services, etc.)
- Gifts of any kind, including special occasions (birthdays, holidays, graduation, etc.)
- VIP access to bars, clubs, events, etc.
- Free or reduced cost housing for any length of time
- Loans (including co-signing)
- Cash or like items
- Use of an automobile or transportation
- An employment arrangement for a prospect or student-athlete's relatives
- Entertainment
- Use of your telephone or credit card
- Providing a meal in your home
- Academic assistance of any kind (e.g., tutoring, editing papers/projects, assistance in completing classwork, use of computer, etc.)
- Any tangible items, including merchandise

WHAT ARE THE CONSEQUENCES?

South Carolina is responsible for the actions of its boosters. If a booster provides an impermissible benefit to a prospect, a student-athlete, or their relatives or friends, South Carolina may be subject to penalties, even if the student-athlete has completed his or her eligibility. The prospect or student-athlete who accepts an impermissible benefit jeopardizes his or her eligibility for intercollegiate competition. A booster who provides an impermissible benefit may be disassociated from the University's athletics program. Disassociation results in a loss of all benefits or privileges offered by the department of athletics and may involve other penalties as appropriate.

In February 2012, the University of South Carolina appeared before the NCAA Committee on Infractions as a result of violations committed by boosters of its athletics program. For details, please visit www.sc.edu/ncaareponse to view the report from the Committee on Infractions that was issued in April 2012.

One question that circulates around athletics is, "Is it harder to build a championship program or to maintain one?" Well, the South Carolina Gamecocks are about to find out.

Coming off their best season in school history, a campaign in which they won 11 games for the second-straight year and produced their highest final national ranking, the Gamecocks will try to build on that momentum in 2013. The ultimate goal of winning an SEC Championship has barely eluded Carolina over the past three seasons, but the squad will head into the fall focused on reaching that lofty goal again this season. As one of only four BCS schools, along with Alabama, Oregon and Stanford, that has recorded 11-win seasons in each of the last two campaigns, Carolina expects to once again be the hunted, rather than the hunter.

Buoyed by the return of 36 lettermen, including a dozen starters from a team that went 11-2, captured the Outback Bowl and finished as high as No. 7 in the Coaches' poll, the Gamecocks, under ninth-year head coach Steve Spurrier, have solidified the program to a point where they are able to re-load, rather than rebuild. Led by the nation's top defensive player and a Heisman Trophy candidate in Jadeveon Clowney, Carolina figures to be one of the favorites in the SEC East and a preseason top-10 candidate again in 2013.

Once again, the road to Atlanta and the SEC Championship Game is a difficult one. However, at least on paper, this year's schedule appears a bit more manageable, as it does not feature a gauntlet similar to the one the Gamecocks faced in 2012 when they had contests versus Georgia, at LSU and at Florida in consecutive weeks, a stretch that proved to be Carolina's undoing.

After a non-conference Thursday night opener against neighboring North Carolina, the Gamecocks will travel to Georgia for a key early SEC Eastern Division showdown in which Carolina will try to make it four-straight over the Bulldogs. Much-improved Vanderbilt visits Columbia the following week. After a non-conference trip to UCF, the Gamecocks embark on a stretch of six-consecutive SEC contests, beginning with a home game against Kentucky. Carolina then has three-straight road tilts - at Arkansas, Tennessee and Missouri - that will test their mettle before wrapping up the conference slate with back-to-back home battles with Mississippi State and Florida, the latter of which could decide the East.

The regular season ends with a pair of non-conference home games against in-state opponents on the opposite ends of familiarity. The Gamecocks will meet Coastal Carolina for the first time ever, then will try to make it five-straight against Clemson when the teams meet for the 111th time on November 30 in Columbia.

Late game heroics lifted Carolina over Michigan in the 2013 Outback Bowl.

2012 STATISTICS (NCAA RANK)

Scoring Offense.....	31.54 (44)
Rushing Offense.....	138.46 (89)
Passing Offense.....	238.08 (57)
Total Offense.....	376.54 (82)

The Carolina offense officially returns six starters, including four on the offensive line, from a squad that averaged 31.5 points per game a season ago. Gone are playmakers like Marcus Lattimore and Ace Sanders, along with center T.J. Johnson who started every game over the past four seasons, and solid contributors in Justice Cunningham and D.L. Moore. Led by a pair of experienced quarterbacks in Connor Shaw, the only senior skill position player on the depth chart, and junior Dylan Thompson, the Gamecocks have as good of tandem QB's as anyone in the country. The Gamecocks return 42 percent of their rushing yards, 96 percent of their passing yards and 54 percent of their receiving yards from a year ago. Along with the signal-caller, the strength of this year's offense could be in a still young, but experienced offensive line.

QUARTERBACK:

Incumbent Connor Shaw returns for his senior campaign. Shaw, who owns a 17-3 record as a starting quarterback, including a 10-0 mark at home, threw for just under 2,000 yards a season ago while completing two-thirds of his passes, including 17 for touchdowns against just seven interceptions. Shaw is also the Gamecocks' leading returning rusher after netting 435 yards with three scores a year ago. He sat out the spring after undergoing surgery right after the bowl game on his foot, but should be at full go when fall practices get underway. With Shaw sidelined for the spring, junior Dylan Thompson was handed the reins, something he handled admirably in spot duty during the 2012 campaign. Thompson completed 52 percent of his passes for 1,027 yards with 10 touchdowns and just two INTs last year. He went the distance in the win at Clemson and fired the game-winning touchdown strike to Bruce Ellington in the final seconds of the Outback Bowl against Michigan. Redshirt freshman Brendan Nosovitch enters the fall third on the depth chart, but impressed the coaches both during practices last fall and in the spring. Nosovitch put together one of Pennsylvania's most outstanding prep careers, passing for nearly 13,000 yards. True freshman Connor Mitch got his first taste of college ball this spring and responded to the challenge. Mitch was one of two freshmen to graduate early and enroll at Carolina in January. At 6-3 and 219-pounds, he is blessed with excellent size and was highly regarded coming out of Raleigh, N.C. Newcomer Perry Orth caught the coaches' eyes in the spring as well, while sophomore walk-on Austin Hails provides depth.

TAILBACK: The Gamecocks will have a new look at tailback following the departure of Marcus Lattimore and Kenny Miles, who combined to rush 870 times for over 4,000 yards during their Carolina careers. While running backs coach Everette Sands is excited about the overall talent in the backfield, he viewed the spring as a time for separation and was looking for someone to step up and fill those big shoes vacated by Lattimore. Ideally, Sands would like his number one tailback to have 60-65 percent of the carries, with the number two back getting the next 30-35 percent. The first three on the depth chart entering the fall are all sophomores. Mike Davis gained some valuable experience and showed some flashes last fall as a true freshman and came out of the spring holding a slight lead as the front-runner to work with the first unit. He averaged 5.3 yards per carry including a 50-yard burst against UAB. Brandon Wilds returns after sitting out the 2012 campaign as a redshirt and looked faster and stronger in the spring. Wilds has proven himself at this level, as he logged three 100-yard rushing games as a true freshman in 2011. A patient runner, Wilds is also considered the best blocker of the group. Redshirt freshman Kendric Salley was healthy for the first time and had an opportunity to put his talents on display this spring. He has the physical tools the coaches are looking for but also has the biggest learning curve. Shon Carson has missed most of his first two seasons for the Garnet & Black with injuries and did not participate in the spring while serving as a member of the Carolina baseball team. When he's been healthy, the coaches like his ability. Two fall newcomers have the coaches excited as well. David Williams, who hails from Philadelphia, Pa., was a highly sought-after recruit, while Jamari Smith from Jacksonville, Fla. flew a bit more under the radar. Both are talented backs with Williams, a 6-1, 200-pounder, considered to be a little further along development-wise and could get a long look during the preseason camp. Walk-on Devin Potter adds depth.

FULLBACK: The Gamecocks had a limited number of two-back sets which incorporated a fullback in 2012 and that will likely not change in 2013. Only walk-ons dot the roster for this role, which primarily has been as a blocker for the tailback. Junior Connor McLaurin, who earned his first letter last fall primarily due to his work on special teams, figures to be the first fullback called upon. Junior Jordan Diaz moved over from linebacker in the spring and will compete for the position, along with sophomore Ty Sutherland. Garrison Gist joined the fold in the spring. Gist had made a name for himself in weightlifting competitions prior to returning to the gridiron.

spent the first three months of the calendar year serving as the starting point guard on Frank Martin's men's basketball team. Ellington enters the fall joined on the first unit by a pair of junior classmates in Damiere Byrd and Nick Jones.

Nick Jones

Byrd, who also is a two-sport standout at South Carolina as a member of the track & field team, is the fastest player on the roster and the Gamecocks' best deep threat. He averaged 26.1 yards on 14 catches a season ago. While Byrd seems to make the big splashes, Jones flies more under the radar. He logged a dozen catches last season, but eight of those came in the final three games. Interestingly, none of the Gamecocks' to Carolina. Walk-on Carlton Heard impressed the coaches in the spring, but will not be eligible this fall after transferring from Gardner-Webb.

TIGHT END: Despite the departure of Justice Cunningham, "Mr. Irrelevant" in the 2013 NFL Draft, the Gamecocks figure to be well-stocked at the tight end position again this season. While Cunningham proved to be an excellent blocker and a better receiver than most gave him credit for, the returning trio of scholarship players all have the size and speed to present difficult matches for a defense. Rory "Busta" Anderson, a 6-5, 242-pound target, has been a big-play performer during his first two campaigns, logging eight touchdowns on 22 catches in 26 contests. Jerrell Adams, who checks in a 6-6 and 237-pounds, earned a spot on the SEC All-Freshman team a year ago. Drew Owens, a 6-6, 244-pound sophomore, figures to work his way into the mix as well, after a knee injury suffered in the 2012 Garnet & Black Spring Game limited his opportunities last fall. Walk-on Jeff Homad returns to add depth.

WIDE RECEIVER: Youth will be served at the wide receiver position, as the unit does not feature a senior. Wide receivers coach Steve Spurrier Jr. will have to find a replacement for his top performer, Ace Sanders, who left after an MVP performance in the Outback Bowl and with a year of eligibility remaining to embark on a pro career. But Spurrier Jr. is accustomed to replacing some special receivers who have donned the Garnet & Black in recent years, including Sidney Rice, Kenny McKinley and Alshon Jeffery, all of whom earned spots on NFL rosters. The leader of this year's group figures to be one of college athletics top two-sport standouts in junior Bruce Ellington. Ellington had his best season on the gridiron last fall, leading the team with 600 receiving yards on 40 catches with seven touchdowns. He three projected starters stand taller than 5-9. After those three, the rest of the receiving corps is talented but virtually untested. Sophomore Shaq Roland may have the most raw talent of the group and is listed as a "co-starter" entering the fall, along with Byrd. The state's 2011 "Mr. Football" came in with all kinds of credentials but saw limited action as a true freshman as he made the adjustment to the collegiate level. Redshirt sophomores Shamier Jeffery and K.J. Brent are both in their third year in the program and should be ready to challenge for a spot in the rotation. The light seemed to come on the spring for Jeffery, who is the younger brother of Alshon Jeffery, the former Gamecock All-American. Kwinton Smith and Jody Fuller were redshirted as freshman a year ago, and have an opportunity to prove that they are ready to contribute as well in the fall. Brent and Smith both are listed at 6-4, giving Coach Spurrier Jr. some options when he wants to go with some taller receivers. Walk-ons Tevin Bradshaw, Dwayne Duckett, Matthew Harvey, David Wilkins, and Kane Whitehurst add depth. Bradshaw and Whitehurst are eligible this fall for the first time after sitting out a year as a transfer, while Duckett is a local product from Columbia's Spring Valley High School. Harvey brings exceptional height at 6-8, but is raw. Wilkins is a former track member at South Carolina who played cornerback last fall in his first work on the college gridiron. Whitehurst is the cousin of current NFL and former Clemson quarterback Charlie Whitehurst. He spent a year at Arkansas before transferring

OFFENSIVE LINE: Relatively young but experienced would be the best way to describe the returners on the offensive line. The Gamecocks lost a good one in center T.J. Johnson, who started every game over the past four seasons, but return everyone else who saw any significant action during the 2012 campaign. The only senior of the group is right tackle Ronald Patrick, who started every game a year ago. Patrick is one of just four scholarship seniors on this year's squad and joins Connor Shaw as the only two on the offensive side of the ball. A pair of junior starters return on the left side of the line and figure to man those positions again this year. Tackle Corey Robinson, the biggest of the linemen at 6-8, 341, and guard A.J. Cann, a two-year starter who is considered an all-conference candidate, should be even more comfortable working side-by-side this season. Robinson came into his own last season while Cann has taken on more of a leadership role both on and off the field. Sophomore Brandon Shell took over the right tackle duties last season and earned a spot on the SEC All-Freshman team. The coaches feel he as a tremendous upside.

Brandon Shell

The only newcomer on the starting five entering the fall figures to be redshirt freshman center Cody Waldrop. The coaches like his potential and he could become a fixture for years to come. Junior Cody Gibson has made six starts in his career and could push either Robinson or Shell for playing time at one of the tackle positions, giving Carolina quality depth at that spot. Another tackle, junior Mike Matulis, has seen considerable playing time during his Gamecock career, including 10 starts, but missed the spring while rehabbing from shoulder surgery. He has yet to use a redshirt, so that's a possibility for him if he needs more time to rehab the shoulders. The only sophomore reserve of the group, Will Sport, saw action on special teams last season and is a darkhorse candidate to see playing time at an inside position. A trio of redshirt freshman, six-foot nine-inch tackle Mason Zandi and the twins, guard Brock Stadnik and center Clayton Stadnik, used the year to get bigger and stronger in the weight room. They are hoping that extra work paid off and can carry over to the field of play. Newcomer D.J. Park graduated from high school early and got a jump start on the other incoming freshman class this spring, which also includes center Alan Knott, guard Bryce King and tackles Na'Ty Rodgers and J.P. Vonashek.

2012 STATISTICS (NCAA RANK)

Scoring Defense.....	18.23 (13)
Rushing Defense.....	120.69 (17)

The Carolina defense returns five starters from a unit that ranked in the top 25 in the four major statistical categories a year ago - scoring defense (13th), rushing defense (17th), passing defense (21st) and total defense (11th). The Gamecocks will have a completely different look to their linebacking corps, as Reginald Bowers, DeVonte Holloman, Damario Jeffery, Quin Smith and Shaq Wilson, who combined for 99 career starts, all moved on following graduation. Carolina will also be without starters Byron Jerideau and Devin Taylor along the defensive line, and standout safety D.J. Swearingner. However, the cupboard is certainly not bare. Any unit that can feature 6-6, 272-pound defensive end Jadeveon Clowney, a unanimous All-American and legitimate candidate for every post-season award in 2013, including the Heisman Trophy, is one to be reckoned with. Clowney will be joined up front by Kelcy Quarles and Chaz Sutton. The secondary features three returning starters in cornerbacks Victor Hampton and Jimmy Legree and safety Brison Williams. Defensive coordinator Lorenzo Ward is confident the talent level is there and the experience will come, but the goal will be to develop some leaders among the unit, which started in the spring.

DEFENSIVE LINE: The only coaching change for the Gamecocks this past offseason came on the defensive line where former North Carolina assistant Deke Adams was brought in to replace longtime assistant Brad Lawing. Adams must have felt like he won the lottery when he took the job knowing he would be working with the nation's top defensive player in Jadeveon Clowney. Clowney, a 6-6, 274-pound junior earned unanimous All-America honors last season, just the second Gamecock in history to do so, joining Heisman Trophy winner George Rogers. Clowney, a Heisman contender in his own right after finishing sixth in the balloting in 2012, was the Ted Hendricks Award winner as the nation's top defensive end, and was a finalist for the Nagurski, Lombardi and Bednarik Awards after setting school records with 13.0 sacks and 23.5 tackles for loss. But Clowney isn't the only standout on the defensive line. Junior has started 17 games over the past two seasons and figures to be a stalwart in the middle of the defensive line again in 2013. The only scholarship senior of the unit is defensive end Chaz Sutton. Sutton, a 6-5, 263-pounder, has waited patiently for his turn in the starting lineup, but has been very productive as a backup, as witnessed by his 5.0 sacks last season. Junior J.T. Surratt, who also has been waiting his turn, figures to open the fall as the probable starter at the defensive tackle position next to Quarles. While those penciled in to start have plenty of experience, the spring will be an opportunity for several younger players to show they are ready for the big stage. Three sophomores will challenge for time at the tackle position, including Gerald Dixon Jr., Phillip Dukes and Deon Green. Dixon Jr. saw the most time last season and is listed as a co-starter with Surratt, Dukes was considered the "Most Improved" defensive lineman in the spring, while Green was finally healthy after being hampered by injuries throughout his Carolina career. A pair of sophomores in Gerald Dixon and Mason Harris, along with redshirt freshman Darius English, will compete for the backup roles at defensive end. Walk-on defensive end, Michael Washington adds depth. The newcomers include Devan'te Covington, Kelsey Griffin, Gerald Turner and Devin Washington. Covington, Turner and Washington are ends, while Griffin will work in the middle of the line.

LINEBACKER: Maybe the biggest question mark entering the fall will be how the Gamecocks fill the linebacking position. The veteran quartet of Shaq Wilson, Reginald Bowers, Damario Jeffery and Quin Smith took nearly ever snap last season, leaving a thin and untested group that went through spring drills. The only upper-classman on the roster is junior walk-on Kyle Morini, and he just joined the squad in the spring. A pair of second-year players in sophomore Kaiwan Lewis and redshirt freshman T.J. Holloman will compete for the "Mike" position. Lewis lettered last season primarily for his work on special teams and was considered the "Most Improved" in the spring. Holloman is very intelligent and is able to grasp the concepts quickly. Sophomore Cedrick Cooper was sidelined in the spring with a knee injury, but figures to figure prominently for duty at the Will position. Sophomore Marcquis Roberts and redshirt freshman Kelvin Rainey took the bulk of the snaps at that position in the spring. Roberts has been injured throughout his stint at Carolina, while Rainey made the transition from his tight end position last year. A quartet of incoming freshmen will have an opportunity to make an immediate impact this fall. That foursome includes Larenz Bryant, David Johnson, Skai Moore and Jonathan Walton. SAFETY: Another position with no seniors on the pre-season depth chart is safety. Replacing D.J. Swearingin's leadership, ability and tenacity will be difficult, but several young players will get an opportunity to step up and fill the void. Junior Brison Williams is the odds on favorite to take over those leadership duties vacated by Swearingin as the returning starter at strong safety. He finished sixth on the team in tackles last season with 52 while starting a dozen games. Junior Kadetrrix "JJ" Marcus is penciled in as the starter at free safety, but will face stiff competition in the fall if sophomore T.J. Gurley, a member of the SEC All-Freshman team, is able to bounce back from his season-ending knee injury. A trio of redshirt freshmen, including Chaz Elder, Kyle Fleetwood and Chris Moody, all had the opportunity to showcase their talents in the spring and will be counted on to provide some much-needed depth this fall. starting role, but he will be hard-pressed to hold off redshirt freshman Jordan Diggs for that duty this fall. Golightly has the benefit of experience, but Diggs has impressed the coaches in his short time on the Columbia campus. Newcomer Mohamed Camara will be counted on to provide help down the line.

tion, Hampton logged 40 tackles and one interception last season. Legree, a senior, has played both corner and safety during his Gamecock career. He tied for the team lead with three interceptions last season while figuring in on 44 stops. The coaching staff is hopeful that junior college transfer Ronnie Martin can work his way into the rotation. Martin originally signed with the Gamecocks in 2011, finally made his way onto the Columbia campus in January, but missed most of the spring drills while nursing a hamstring injury. He also missed much of last season with a hamstring issue to his other leg. Walk-on Sidney Rhodes, who developed into a solid contributor on special teams, has worked his way into the conversation for additional playing time. Athletic sophomore Ahmad Christian gained some much needed experience last fall as a redshirt freshman, but earned a spot on the Carolina baseball team in the spring, which kept him off the gridiron. Rico McWilliams caught the coaches' eyes early last fall before suffering a season-ending knee injury. He sat out the entire spring while rehabbing the knee and will be a factor this fall if

Special teams coach Joe Robinson returns for his second season with the Gamecocks. He will be challenged this fall to find replacements for kicker Adam Yates, deep snapper Walker Inabinet, holder Seth Strickland and punt returner extraordinaire Ace Sanders. The Gamecocks will be looking for improvement in all facets, including the punt team and kickoff return unit that feature specialists Tyler Hull and Bruce Ellington, respectively.

PLACEKICKER: For the third straight season, Carolina goes into the fall looking for a new placekicker. Sophomore walk-on Landon Ard and redshirt freshman Nick St. Germain, a scholarship player, battled it out all spring for both the field goal/PAT and kickoff duties. Ard gained some experience last season as he handled the kickoff duties early in the season before giving way to a more consistent Adam Yates. Ard came out of the spring as the leader in the clubhouse, but St. Germain will continue to put the pressure on should Ard falter. Walk-on Caleb Kelly joined the squad in the spring, while Elliott Fry and Max Huggins will walk-on in the fall.

PUNTER: Junior Tyler Hull arrived on campus after fall camp opened in 2012 and quickly established himself as the team's top punter, a role he held all season. He seemed to get more comfortable as the season progressed and is expected to improve on his average this season. Junior Patrick Fish will once again provide the primary competition. While Hull was considered the "Most Improved" punter during the spring competition, Fish was recognized as the Jim Carlen Special Teams Player of the Spring. Newcomer Andrew Komornik joined the competition in the spring, while Elliott Fry and Max Huggins will get into the mix in the fall.

HOLDER: Reserve punter Patrick Fish served as the backup for Seth Strickland last season and was the number one option in that role during the spring.

GAMECOCK SPECIAL TEAMS

LONG SNAPPER: Coach Robinson continues to search for a suitable replacement for the long snapping duties, which were in the capable hands of Walker Inabinet for the last three seasons. Inabinet is believed to hold the school record for most games dressed, as he dressed for every contest over the past five years. Sophomore Coleman Harley and junior Ryland Culbertson return to the squad and figure to battle it out, while newcomer Drew Williams will join the competition in the fall. The final decision on who earns this unsung position may not be decided until just before the season opener.

KICK RETURNER: Junior Bruce Ellington has handled the bulk of the kickoff returns in each of the past two seasons and figures to have the first opportunity again in 2013, although his importance as a wide receiver may sway the coaching staff to look another direction. Damiere Byrd certainly has the speed necessary to take one the distance, while Victor Hampton has shown an ability to succeed in the return game as well.

PUNT RETURNER: The Gamecocks will be hard-pressed to replace one of the nation's best in electric Ace Sanders. Sanders earned co-SEC Special Teams Player of the Year accolades after averaging over 15 yards a return while taking it to the house against both Georgia and Michigan. Victor Hampton gets the first shot at taking over for Sanders and Bruce Ellington could be a viable option as well. Incoming freshman Pharoh Cooper had an outstanding prep career as a returner and could get a long look when fall camp opens.

Steve Spurrier, who has coached a national championship team, won seven Southeastern Conference titles, garnered nine conference Coach of the Year awards, and won 73 percent of the college games in which he has coached, is beginning his ninth season as head coach at the University of South Carolina. Spurrier was introduced as Carolina's 32nd head coach on Nov. 23, 2004.

Coach Spurrier has compiled a 208-77-2 (.728) won-loss record in 23 seasons as a major college head coach, including a 66-37 mark (.641) at Carolina. He became the 71st collegiate coach (all divisions) and the 22nd in Division I to record 200 career victories when he defeated UAB on Sept. 15, 2012 and logged his 250th all-time coaching win against Georgia on October 6, 2012.

Coach Spurrier surpassed Rex Enright's school record for wins when he logged number 65 at Clemson in the 2012 season finale. In doing so, he joined the great Bear Bryant as the only coaches to boast the most coaching victories at two different SEC schools.

He led the Duke Blue Devils to the 1989 Atlantic Coast Conference championship before returning to his alma mater, the University of Florida, as head coach in 1990. During his 12 seasons with the Gators, Spurrier's teams won seven Southeastern Conference championships, one national title and finished ranked in the nation's top 10 nine times. His record at Florida was an amazing 122-27-1 (.817). Spurrier, who won the 1966 Heisman Trophy as a quarterback for the Gators, was also head coach of the NFL's Washington Redskins (2002-03). He returned to the college ranks in 2005 after a one-year absence from the sidelines.

In his first season at South Carolina, Coach Spurrier led the Gamecocks to a 7-5 record and a second-place finish in the SEC Eastern Division. In doing so, he posted a five-game winning streak, the 15th-consecutive year in which he has had a five-game winning streak, something no other coach in college history has accomplished. He was honored as the SEC Coach of the Year by the Associated Press after leading the Gamecocks to a school-record five straight SEC wins, their first win ever at Tennessee and their first win over Florida since the 1930s.

He came back with an 8-5 record in 2006, just the ninth time in school history that the Gamecocks posted eight or more wins in a season. The season was capped with a Liberty Bowl win over C-USA champion Houston.

In his third season with the Garnet & Black, Spurrier's squad raced out to a 6-1 record and moved as high as No. 6 in the BCS rankings, before finishing the campaign with a 6-6 record. With 21 wins, he set the Carolina record for coaching victories after three seasons at the helm.

With a 7-6 record in 2008, Carolina returned to a New Year's Day bowl game for the first time since the 2001 season. The Gamecocks followed that up with another 7-6 record in 2009, their sixth consecutive non-losing season, the longest stretch in school history since 1928-34. The 2009 season included a win over No. 4 Ole Miss, only the second time in school history that Carolina had defeated a top-five team.

His 2010 Gamecock squad posted several milestones en route to a 9-5 season, the biggest of which was the school's first SEC Eastern Division title and first appearance in the SEC Championship. The Gamecocks also defeated the nation's No. 1 team, Alabama, for the first time in school history, and finished the season ranked 22nd in both major national polls. He was named SEC Coach of the Year for the seventh time, his ninth overall Coach of the Year honor.

The Gamecocks continued to make history in 2011, winning a school record 11 games and finishing in the top-10 in the final A.P. poll for the first time. The squad also won a school record six SEC games and defeated each of their Eastern Division rivals in the same season for the first time. Carolina capped the regular season with a win over Clemson, its third-straight over its Palmetto State rival, the first time that has been accomplished since 1968-70, then defeated Nebraska in the Capital One Bowl by a convincing 30-13 margin.

The 2012 season was another success, as the Gamecocks rolled up a school-record 11 wins for the second-straight season and logged double-digits in wins for just the third time in school history, capped off by a 33-28 win over Michigan in the Outback Bowl. They defeated four teams that finished among the nation's top-25 in Georgia, Clemson, Vanderbilt and Michigan. The Gamecocks defeated in-state rival Clemson for a fourth-straight year, the first time that had been accomplished since the 1950s.

Over the past three seasons, the Gamecocks are 11-1 against their top rivals, Georgia, Florida, Tennessee and Clemson.

Spurrier Career Highlights

- ◆ Recipient of the 1966 Heisman Trophy.
- ◆ Two-time All-American at the University of Florida.
- ◆ Inducted into the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame as a player in 1986.
- ◆ Is the winningest coach at two SEC schools (Florida and South Carolina), joining Paul "Bear" Bryant (Kentucky and Alabama) as the only coaches with that distinction.
- ◆ Became the first person to have both won a Heisman Trophy and to have coached a Heisman Trophy winner (Danny Wuerffel).
- ◆ In 2006, he was one of the first four inductees into the Gator Ring of Honor alongside Danny Wuerffel, Emmitt Smith and Jack Youngblood.
- ◆ In 2011, he was one of three Heisman Trophy winners at Florida to have a statue erected in his honor.
- ◆ On May 30, 2013, he was recognized by Governor Rick Scott as part of the 2013 class of Great Floridians, a prestigious group of men and women who have made significant contributions to the progress and prosperity of Florida.
- ◆ Compiled a 122-27-1 record at Florida from 1990-2001, the most wins for a Gator coach in school history and a winning percentage (.817) that ranked among the top three in SEC history.
- ◆ His 122 victories at Florida from 1990-2001 rank as the highest win total for a coach in his first 12 years at a school in major college history.
- ◆ Coached Florida to two National Championship Game appearances (1995 and 1996), claiming the 1996 national title.
- ◆ The only coach in SEC history to lead a squad to six straight seasons of 10 or more wins (1993-1998).
- ◆ His Gator teams appeared in the weekly polls 202 of a possible 203 weeks, including each of his last 202 consecutive weeks. From 1990-2001, the Gators were ranked number one in the polls 29 times, appeared in the top five for 117 weeks and among the nation's top 10 for 179 weeks.
- ◆ The only coach in SEC history and one of only three coaches in major college history to lead a school to 12 consecutive seasons (1990-2001) of nine-plus wins.
- ◆ One of only five coaches in major college history to have his team ranked in the final Top 15 Poll in each of 12 consecutive seasons (1990-2001).

- ◆ Achieved 100 career victories at Florida in a faster time period (10th season, eighth game) than any major college coach at a school in the 20th century.
- ◆ His UF squads finished in the Top 10 of the polls nine times and six times in the final top five, totals that both ranked second best in the nation over his 12 seasons (1990-2001). UF's average poll ranking of 6.5 in the decade of the 1990s was second best in the nation.
- ◆ One of only five major college coaches in history and only the second in SEC history to lead a school to 100 wins during a decade (102-22-1 from 1990-99).
- ◆ He (1993-96) and the legendary Paul "Bear" Bryant are the only coaches in SEC history to win as many as four straight league championships.
- ◆ The only coach in SEC history to win eight conference games in a season four straight years (1993-96).
- ◆ His 73 league wins in the 1990s represented the most SEC wins during a decade in conference history.
- ◆ The only coach in SEC history to lead a school to nine consecutive January bowl game appearances.
- ◆ His six outright SEC titles ('91, '93, '94, '95, '96, 2000) ranks as the second-best total in SEC history, trailing only Bear Bryant's 11.
- ◆ Prior to his arrival in 1990, Florida had never won more than nine games in a season. In 12 seasons at the helm he lead the Gators to nine seasons of 10+ wins.
- ◆ Has been selected as a finalist for the Paul "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year Award four times (1990, 1991, 1995, 1996).
- ◆ In his 23 years as a collegiate head coach he led his squad to the best record in the conference standings eight times (Duke in 1989 and Florida in 1990, 1991, 1993, 1994, 1995 1996 and 2000).
- ◆ Won his 100th game at Florida in 1999 in just his 120th overall game (100-19-1 record), a total that ranked among the six fewest games to reach that level at a major college school in the 20th century.
- ◆ Has been named his conference's Coach of the Year nine times (1988 and 1989 in the ACC with Duke, in 1990, 1991, 1994, 1995 and 1996 in the SEC with Florida and in 2005 and 2010 at South Carolina).
- ◆ Has led teams to 19 bowl games, including each of his last 11 years (1991-2001) at Florida and in 18 of his last 19 seasons overall. Of his 19 bowl teams, 13 played in January.

Did You Know...

Steve Spurrier is one of only four coaches to record 100 or more wins as an SEC coach against SEC competition (he also has three wins against SEC teams while coaching at Duke). Only Bear Bryant (159) has won more SEC conference games than Coach Spurrier's 122. Spurrier passed John Vaught (106) and Vince Dooley (105) during the 2010 campaign.

Steve Spurrier's Playing Career

University of Florida
Quarterback 1964-66

- Steve Spurrier was a two-time All-America selection, won the 1966 Heisman Trophy and was tabbed as the 1966 SEC Player of the Year.

- During his three-year playing career, he broke every single-game, single-season and career record in passing and total offense and broke all league passing records.

- Became the first player in the history of the Sugar Bowl to earn MVP honors despite playing for the team that did not win the game after breaking six game records in the Gators' 20-18 loss to Missouri.

- First-round draft pick of the San Francisco 49ers. Spurrier played 10 years of pro football with the 49ers and Tampa Bay Buccaneers. He set a 49ers team record with five touchdown passes vs. the Chicago Bears.

- Inducted into the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame in 1986.

- Finished ninth in the Heisman Trophy balloting in 1965.

Deke Adams, the newest Gamecock coach, was named defensive line coach at the University of South Carolina on January 22, 2013.

Adams spent the 2012 season as Larry Fedora's defensive line coach at North Carolina after serving the three previous seasons in the same capacity for Fedora at Southern Miss. In his one-year stint in Chapel Hill, Adams had the opportunity to coach Sylvester Williams, a first round selection in the 2013 NFL Draft.

In his final year in Hattiesburg, Adams, a former Southern Miss letterman, was in charge of a front four that allowed just 112.6 rushing yards per game in 2011, 22nd in the country. Southern Miss won the Conference USA title and went on to a 12-win season after a Hawaii Bowl win over Nevada.

Among the players he mentored at USM were current CFL player Cordarro Law and 2013 NFL draft pick Jamie Collins.

In his first year at Southern Miss, Adams inherited a young, but seasoned and talented group of players that progressively improved as the season continued. The Golden Eagle defense finished the year No. 18 nationally in sacks and No. 24 in tackles for loss. The year prior to his arrival, Southern Miss was No. 93 and No. 68, respectively, in those two defensive categories.

Adams came to Southern Miss after spending the previous year as linebackers coach and coordinator of player development at Louisiana-Monroe. At ULM, he coached current NFL player Cardia Jackson. Prior to his stint at ULM, he worked for two seasons at North Carolina A&T.

During his first season at North Carolina A&T, Adams stepped into the role of defensive coordinator two games into the season on an interim basis. He was given the job on a permanent basis following that first season. He coached the defensive line during his first year in 2006 and had responsibility for the linebackers in 2007.

Adams spent four years (2002-05) at Ouachita Baptist University in Arkansas before his stint at North Carolina A&T. In 2005, he served as Ouachita Baptist's defensive coordinator and was responsible for the defensive line.

Adams began his coaching career in 1997 as the defensive line coach at Jacksonville State. After spending one season at Jacksonville State, he coached at Pearl River Community College, where he first served as the linebackers coach and later was named co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach. In 2001 he became the defensive coordinator and continued his duties as recruiting coordinator.

Adams was a four-year member of the Southern Miss Dean's List during his time as a student-athlete and a three-year letterwinner for the Golden Eagle "Nasty Bunch" defense from 1991-94. During his career at linebacker, Adams tallied 76 tackles, 5 tackles for loss, one sack and one interception for 15 yards.

He is married to the former Alexis Hall, a member of the 1,000-point club and four-year letterwinner for the Southern Miss women's basketball team. The couple has two boys, Jaylen and Jordyn.

Kirk Botkin begins his second year with the Gamecocks. He was tabbed as South Carolina's linebackers and Spurs coach on January 13, 2012.

Botkin had a veteran group to work with in 2012, as his top five players, linebackers Shaq Wilson, Reginald Bowens, Damario Jeffery and Quin Smith, along with starting Spur DeVonte Holloman, were all seniors.

Botkin returned to the collegiate coaching ranks after spending the last two seasons coaching high school football at Texas High School in Texarkana, Texas. He spent the 2008 and '09 seasons coaching the defensive ends and special teams at his alma mater, Arkansas, under Bobby Petrino, including one season alongside Gamecocks' defensive coordinator Lorenzo Ward.

Botkin was the Razorbacks' first All-SEC performer as a tight end in 1992 and '93, and served as a captain during his senior season. He graduated with a bachelor's degree in education. He was later named to the Razorbacks' All-Decade team for the 1990s after logging 87 career receptions for 819 yards and five touchdowns.

Botkin spent four years in the NFL, including playing for Bill Parcells in New England (1994), Jim Mora in New Orleans (1994-95) and Bill Cowher in Pittsburgh (1996-97). After an injury ended his career, he began his coaching career at his hometown high school of Robert E. Lee High in Baytown, Texas in 1999. In 2000 he worked as a graduate assistant at Rice University in Houston.

From 2001-05, Botkin served as an assistant coach at Jacksonville State University, first as a tight ends/offensive tackles coach, then as an outside linebackers/special teams coach. While at JSU, the squad won the Ohio Valley Conference in 2003 and '04 and coached seven all-conference performers.

Between stints at Jacksonville State and Arkansas, Botkin spent two seasons coaching linebackers and special teams at Louisiana-Monroe. In 2007, he helped the Warhawks record their first non-losing season in 14 years, including a win at Alabama.

Botkin and his wife, the former Rebecca Holloway, have three children, Lane, Ty and Brynn.

2009 Capital One Bowl

Former Southern Miss assistant Grady Brown begins his second year in Columbia, after joining the Carolina coaching staff on February 3, 2012. Brown serves as the Gamecocks' secondary coach and assistant special teams coordinator.

During his first season with the Gamecocks, Brown mentored senior safety D.J. Swearinger, who captured second-team All-SEC honors. Safety T.J. Gurley earned a spot on the SEC All-Freshman squad despite missing part of the season with a knee injury.

Brown spent the previous two seasons as the Golden Eagles' cornerbacks coach. During the 2011 campaign, Southern Miss was No. 7 nationally in pass efficiency defense (108.47 rating) and set an NCAA record for interceptions returned for touchdowns with eight. As a unit, the Golden Eagle defense finished the season as a Top-30 defense.

In his first year at USM, Brown, who was hired just prior to the start of fall camp, quickly instilled a toughness and physicality into his corners that amounted to a pair of freshman being selected to the All-Freshman squad.

Brown came to Southern Miss after spending the previous year and a half working in the strength & conditioning area and assisting as a defensive intern at LSU, where he helped tutor NFL third-round pick Chad Jones and free agent signees Danny McCray and Chris Hawkins.

Brown went to LSU after working a season at Texas Southern where he was the safeties coach and also the community outreach liaison.

His arrival to TSU came after a six-year stint as the secondary coach at Alabama State. While at ASU, the Hornets' defense finished ranked in the Top 10 nationally in six team categories and once for an individual. In his first season at ASU, Brown mentored Antoine Hill who finished third in the country in interceptions with 10, while the squad ranked seventh in both turnovers gained and interceptions. The team won the Southwestern Athletic Conference crown in 2003 and then the league's overall title in 2004, in which his defensive squad ranked seventh in turnovers gained and ninth in rushing defense.

During his time at ASU, Brown served two NFL Minority Coaching Internships, first with the Seattle Seahawks in 2004, then with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2007. He also served as the defensive coordinator and linebacker coach for the Magnolia All-Star Football Classic in 2005.

Brown began his coaching career in 2000 at his alma mater, Alabama A&M, before being promoted to the rank of a full-time assistant coach for the 2001 campaign.

After completing his high school career at Wenonah High School in Birmingham, Ala., Brown played defensive back for Alabama A&M from 1995 through 1998. After his senior season, he played one season with the Tennessee Valley Vipers in the Arena Football League.

Brown graduated from Alabama A&M with a degree in mathematics education in 2000. He is married to Rashidah Brown.

Shawn Elliott begins his fourth season in Columbia. The Camden, S.C. native officially joined Coach Spurrier's staff on Jan. 3, 2010. He was given the title of co-offensive coordinator in 2012 after serving as the running game coordinator for the previous two campaigns. He continues to mentor the Gamecocks' offensive line.

In 2012, the Gamecocks finished fifth in the SEC in scoring, averaging 31.5 points per game, while churning out 377 yards of offense per contest, using a balanced attack of rushing (139 ypg) and passing (238 ypg). Senior center T.J. Johnson garnered second-team All-SEC accolades, while tackle Brandon Shell was recognized on the All-Freshman squad.

The former Appalachian State offensive line coach's first Gamecock squad showed a tremendous turnaround upon his arrival, especially in the running game, as Carolina averaged 154.4 rushing yards per game to rank eighth in the SEC after finishing last in the league each of the previous three years. His implementation of a new blocking scheme also helped running back Marcus Lattimore set the Carolina freshman record for rushing yards and the all-time single-season touchdown record for the Gamecocks while earning unanimous National Freshman of the Year accolades. Elliott helped convert former walk-on Garrett Chisolm into a second-team All-SEC selection.

The Gamecock offense showed tremendous balance in 2011. The squad averaged 192 yards on the ground and 182 yards through the air. Carolina had a 100-yard rusher in eight of the 13 games. Offensive tackle Rokevious Watkins earned All-SEC honors in his final campaign.

Prior to his arrival in Columbia, Elliott had coached his entire career at Appalachian State, where he helped the Mountaineers to three straight national championships (2005-07). After earning his bachelor's degree from Appalachian State in 1996, Elliott worked for two seasons as a defensive assistant, then two seasons as the tight ends coach before taking over the offensive line in 2001. Over his final nine seasons as the offensive line coach at Appalachian State, Elliott's players earned All-America distinction on 12 occasions. From 2005-07, he coached three-consecutive SoCon Jacobs Blocking Trophy recipients.

Elliott was the first player in Appalachian State history to appear in the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs four separate seasons. He was a four-year letterwinner for the Black and Gold, helping the squad to two Southern Conference titles. He was a co-captain on the Mountaineers' 1995 squad that finished 12-1 while earning all-league distinction as a defensive end. In his four seasons as a player, the Mountaineers posted a combined record of 36-14.

Elliott was one of three Appalachian State coaches to earn the NCAA's Award of Valor for their efforts in rescuing two individuals from a car accident on Oct. 1, 2000.

Elliott is married to the former Summer Scruggs, who was ASU's women's tennis Most Valuable Player in 1998. They have two children, a daughter, Maddyn, and a son, Max.

1992 Gator Bowl
1992 Sugar Bowl
1989 Freedom Bowl
1988 All-American Bowl

G.A. Mangus begins his fifth season as South Carolina's quarterbacks coach. He was responsible for the tutelage of quarterbacks Connor Shaw and Dylan Thompson during the 2012 campaign. The quarterbacks combined to throw 29 touchdown passes while logging just nine interceptions during the season.

In 2009, his first season with the Gamecocks, Mangus helped Stephen Garcia rank second in the SEC in passing and was third in the league in total offense, behind only Ryan Mallett and Tim Tebow.

His second season saw marked improvement, as Garcia ranked 22nd in the nation in passing efficiency and moved up the Carolina passing charts to third all-time in yards, completions, attempts and touchdowns. Garcia's completion percentage of 64.2 also was one of the top three seasons in school history.

Mangus helped develop sophomore quarterback Connor Shaw in his third campaign, the 2011 season. Shaw posted an 8-1 record as the starting signal-caller. The dual-threat QB completed 65.4 percent of his passes with 14 touchdowns and also rushed for over 500 yards with eight scores.

Mangus' abilities as a coach spill over into recruiting, as he was named one of the nation's top 25 recruiters by ESPN, Rivals.com and by 247Sports.com in February 2011, and one of the top 50 recruiters in the country by 247Sports.com in '12 and '13.

Prior to South Carolina, Mangus was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Middle Tennessee State for three seasons working under former Gamecock assistant Rick Stockstill.

Mangus took over the Delaware Valley program in May 2002, went 2-8 in his first season, and turned the team into an NCAA Division III championship contender. In the next three seasons Delaware Valley notched a 33-4 record, won three conference championships, and advanced to the national quarterfinals twice.

In 2003, Mangus directed the Aggies to the fifth-best one-year turnaround in Division III history. They finished 9-2 and captured the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Southeast Championship, earning him Coach of the Year honors.

In 2004 and 2005, Mangus led the Aggies to perfect back-to-back regular-season records and the team's first overall Middle Atlantic Conference championship. The 2005 squad also earned a MAC title and advanced to the NCAA playoffs. Delaware Valley hosted and won its first two playoff games each season before falling in the quarterfinals, finishing both years with 12-1 marks.

Mangus was named the league's 2004 Coach of the Year for the second year in a row and earned the East Region Coach of the Year Award from Don Hansen's Football Gazette. Mangus was voted the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Division III Region 2 Coach of the Year. His off-season was capped when he was named the Tri-State Coach of the Year by the Maxwell Football Club.

Mangus was a quarterback at the University of Florida from 1988 to '91, including two years under Steve Spurrier. During that time, he was a member of the school's first SEC championship team in 1991.

Following his graduation in 1992, Mangus remained at Florida for three years, serving in the roles of graduate assistant and assistant offensive line coach. The Gators won two SEC titles (1993 and '94), reached the championship game in 1992 and made three bowl appearances during that time.

Mangus first full-time position came at Widener. He began as the running backs and quarterbacks coach and was eventually elevated to offensive coordinator. The Pioneers had two eight-win seasons and made two postseason appearances, including a spot in the 1995 Division III playoffs.

Mangus became the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator for Ursinus College in June 1999 and joined a program that had gone 3-7 in 1998. The 1999 squad posted a school-record 10 wins, including its first-ever Division III playoff win. The Bears went 8-2 the following year for their first back-to-back winning seasons since 1954.

Mangus and his wife, Lauren, have two daughters, Grace and Hope.

1990 Independence Bowl

Joe Robinson begins his second year in Columbia. He was hired as the Gamecocks' special teams coordinator and tight ends coach on January 13, 2012.

During his first season, Ace Sanders established a school record for punt return yardage in a season while earning second-team All-America honors and SEC Special Teams Player of the Year accolades. The Gamecock tight ends, led by Justice Cunningham and Rory Anderson, along with SEC All-Freshman Jerell Adams, became a key threat in the passing game.

Robinson, the 2010 FootballScoop Special Teams Coordinator of the Year, joined the Gamecock staff after one season at the University of North Carolina where he coached the defensive line.

Prior to his arrival in Chapel Hill, Robinson spent three seasons as the defensive line coach and special teams coordinator at LSU. In his award-winning 2010 season, the Tigers' special teams finished in the top 13 nationally in net punting, kickoff return average and punt return average while earning a trip to the Cotton Bowl. In 2009, LSU's special teams combined to rank No. 1 overall in the SEC as the Tigers led the league in both kickoff coverage (44.5 net average) and punt returns (18.9). LSU was the only team in the league to rank among the top three in the conference in four special teams categories. Kick returner Trinton Holliday led the SEC and ranked No. 2 in the nation in punt returns and was selected in the 2010 NFL Draft by the Houston Texans.

Robinson has coached a variety of positions during his coaching career, including defensive line, special teams, linebackers and running backs. He also has experience as a recruiting coordinator at Southern Miss and Louisiana Tech.

He began his collegiate coaching career at Louisiana Tech where he served as a defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator from 1989-91. Robinson then coached seven seasons at Southern Miss where he tutored the defensive line (1992-93), linebackers (1994-95) and special teams (1996-98) while also earning a master's degree. He returned to Louisiana Tech for one year (2001), and also logged stints at Houston (2002) and Central Florida (2003).

Robinson coached defensive ends and special teams for four seasons at Arizona from 2004-07. He coached a number of outstanding special teams performers with the Wildcats, including NFL draft picks Antoine Cason, (1st round by San Diego), Nick Folk (6th round by Dallas) and Syndric Steptoe (7th round by Cleveland). In 2004, Robinson coached on the same Arizona staff as current South Carolina wide receivers coach Steve Spurrier, Jr.

A 1985 graduate of LSU, Robinson's first coaching job came as an assistant at Catholic High School of Pointe Coupee in 1986. He was promoted to head coach in 1987. Robinson spent the 1988 season as the defensive coordinator at Bastrop High School.

Born in Abilene, Texas, Robinson and his wife, Abby, have three daughters, Alexandra, Madeline and Valerie.

Everette Sands begins his second season with the Gamecocks. He was named running backs coach at South Carolina on January 16, 2012.

In Sands first season, the Gamecocks rushed for 19 touchdowns and averaged 139 yards on the ground. Carolina lost its top ground-gainer, Marcus Lattimore, to a season-ending knee injury in the ninth game of the season against Tennessee, but senior Kenny Miles and freshman Mike Davis stepped in to pick up the slack in fine fashion.

Sands came to South Carolina after spending the 2011 campaign coaching the running backs at NC State, his 16th year in the profession. In his lone season with the Wolfpack, his backs logged four individual 100+ yard performances for the first time since 2007.

Sands is very familiar with the Palmetto State, having logged two stints at The Citadel, first from 1999-2000 and again from 2005-10. During his second stint at the Charleston school, he coached three running backs who were named to the Southern Conference All-freshman team and had one back break the school's single-season and single-game records for touchdowns. Between his stints at The Citadel, Sands coached the offensive backs at Ohio University.

Born July 28, 1971 in Conway, S.C., Sands earned a bachelor's degree in computer science from The Citadel in 1993. He earned four letters as a running back for the Bulldogs collecting All-Southern Conference honors in all four years. He ranks second all-time in school history with 3,926 rushing yards and with 204 points and 34 touchdowns. He garnered All-America accolades as a junior when he led The Citadel to a conference title and number one final ranking with 1,449 yards and 12 touchdowns. He served as a team captain in 1993 and was inducted into The Citadel Athletic Hall of Fame in 2004.

Sands got into the coaching profession originally at the high school level in 1995 when he was at Sea Island Academy in Johns Island, S.C. At that time, he was considered to be the youngest head coach in the history of South Carolina high school football.

His first college coaching position came at Elon from 1996-98.

Sands is married to the former Yvette Newton and the couple has two sons, Everett III "Tre" and Josiah, and one daughter, Sierra.

Steve Spurrier Jr., who has served on the coaching staffs of two national championship teams and tutored a bevy of outstanding receivers at both the collegiate and professional levels, begins his ninth year as the coach of the Gamecock wide receivers.

Spurrier was given the additional title of passing game coordinator beginning with the 2009 season and, beginning in the spring of 2011, added the duties of recruiting coordinator to his resume. He was promoted to co-offensive coordinator in the spring of 2012.

In his first season with the Gamecocks in 2005, Spurrier mentored Sidney Rice, who broke nearly every receiving record at the school en route to Freshman All-America honors. Rice ended the campaign as the school's single-season receiving yards leader after catching 70 passes for 1,143 yards.

In 2006, Spurrier's top two receivers, Rice and Kenny McKinley, combined for 123 catches and 1,970 yards receiving, the top tandem marks in school history. Rice owns two of the top four receiving seasons in Carolina history and set numerous records in just two campaigns in the Garnet and Black.

In 2007, McKinley earned first-team all-league recognition after setting a school record with 77 receptions for 968 yards and nine touchdowns.

His receivers had another strong year in 2008 as McKinley became the school's all-time leading receiver in both receptions (207) and receiving yards (2,781), surpassing the records previously held by Sterling Sharpe. McKinley, who missed part of his senior season with an injury, still managed to haul in 54 passes for 642 yards to lead the team and earn honorable mention all-conference recognition.

In 2009, Spurrier developed Alshon Jeffery into a consensus first-team Freshman All-American after leading the team in receptions, yards and touchdown catches.

Spurrier helped guide Jeffery to a school-record season in 2010, as the sophomore amassed over 1,500 receiving yards and nine touchdowns, earning unanimous All-SEC honors, All-America accolades and a nod as a Biletnikoff Award finalist.

Jeffery capped his career with 49 catches for 762 yards in 2011, finishing his three-year stint in the Garnet & Black with school records in receiving yards (3,042) and 100-yard receiving games (12), and tying the school record for touchdown catches with 23.

The Gamecocks used the tight end more in the passing game in 2012, as Justice Cunningham and Rory Anderson provided a nice balance with wideouts Bruce Ellington and Ace Sanders. That quartet caught 21 of the 29 touchdown passes.

Spurrier brought 11 years of coaching experience to Carolina, with his most recent stop being at the University of Arizona under head coach Mike Stoops.

He spent two seasons as wide receivers coach in the NFL with Washington. While with the Redskins, Spurrier Jr. coached Laveraneus Coles, whose 2003 receiving totals of 82 receptions for 1,204 yards earned him his only Pro Bowl appearance. He also coached Rod Gardner, who was the Redskin's top receiver in '02 with 1,007 yards.

Spurrier was part of Bob Stoops' rebuilding project at Oklahoma, which culminated with a perfect 13-0 record and national championship in 2000. He spent three seasons as the Sooners' wide receivers coach, working with such standouts as Mark Clayton and Josh Norman.

Prior to his stay in Norman, Spurrier worked at Florida for five seasons and was part of the Gators' 1996 national championship club.

During his collegiate coaching career, he has been involved with 14 postseason bowl teams, four conference championships (three SEC and one Big 12) and two national championships (Florida 1996 and Oklahoma 2000).

Born in Palo Alto, Calif., Spurrier played collegiate football at Duke University, where he earned his bachelor's degree in 1994. He later earned a master's degree at Florida in 1996.

Spurrier and his wife, the former Melissa Beauchamp, are the parents of triplets, Luke, Gavin and Emmaline; Nolan; and twins, Palmer and Hayden.

Lorenzo Ward wraps up his fifth season with the Gamecocks and his first season in charge of the Gamecock defense. Ward was originally named defensive coordinator at South Carolina on January 12, 2009, working under Assistant Head Coach-Defense Ellis Johnson. He focused on the Gamecock cornerbacks in 2011 after being responsible for both the cornerback and free safeties in each of the previous two campaigns.

In 2012, the Gamecocks were ranked in the top-25 nationally in all four statistical categories – 11th in total defense and 13th in scoring defense, 17th in rushing defense and 21st in passing defense. The unit was led by All-American defensive end, Jadeveon Clowney, who had a school record 13 of the team's school-record 43 sacks, the nation's fifth-highest total.

Ward helped guide a defensive unit that finished the 2011 season with the nation's third-best rated defense, one that surrendered just 268 yards per contest. Carolina boasted the nation's second-best pass defense and ranks 11th in the country, allowing just 18.4 points per game. In addition, Carolina forced 32 turnovers. In his debut as the man in charge of the defense, he limited Nebraska to 13 points and 253 yards of offense, and shut them out over the final three quarters while allowing just 64 yards in the second half of the 2012 Capital One Bowl game.

Ward helped lead a Gamecock defense that scored six defensive touchdowns during the 2010 season, a school record, with two scored by his secondary (Stephon Gilmore, D.J. Swearinger). Gilmore was cited as an All-SEC selection during his sophomore campaign.

In his first season at Carolina, Ward's unit helped the Gamecocks rank eighth in the nation in pass defense. In addition, the Gamecocks finished in the upper half in the SEC in scoring defense, rushing defense and total defense. Individually, Gilmore earned first-team Freshman All-America accolades.

Ward came to South Carolina after spending one season as the secondary coach on Bobby Petrino's staff at Arkansas. Prior to that, he was on Art Shell's staff with the NFL's Oakland Raiders in 2006.

A former player at Alabama, Ward coached the secondary under Frank Beamer at Virginia Tech for seven seasons from 1999-2005, with five of his players earning All-Big East honors and one making the All-Atlantic Coast Conference squad. Virginia Tech led the nation in total defense, was third in pass defense and second in pass efficiency defense in 2005.

The 2004 Hokie defense ranked fourth in the nation in both pass defense and interceptions. In 2002, the Hokies led the nation with 24 interceptions. The 2001 defense was No. 2 in the nation in total defense while the 2000 unit was No. 3 in interceptions. The 1999 defense was No. 3 in total defense and No. 7 in pass efficiency defense.

From 1994-99, Ward was an assistant at Tennessee-Chattanooga, including a two-year stint (1998-99) as defensive coordinator and defensive backfield coach. He coached the defensive backs from 1994-96 and the running backs in 1997. He also coached kickoff coverage and the punt team.

Ward played at Alabama from 1986-89, helping the Crimson Tide go 33-15 with an SEC title in 1989. The Sporting News named him Special Teams Player of the Year following his senior season as Alabama's unit was ranked No. 1 in the nation. Ward and Alabama played in the 1986 Sun Bowl, 1988 Hall of Fame Bowl, 1988 Sun Bowl and 1990 Sugar Bowl.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant under the tutelage of Ellis Johnson at Alabama in 1991, working with the defensive backs, before going to Newnan (Ga.) High School as an assistant in 1992, where he also coached the track team. He returned to Alabama as a graduate assistant in the fall of 1993, working with the outside linebackers, before going to Chattanooga.

Ward earned his bachelor's in physical education from Alabama in 1991.

Ward is married to the former Tara Tubbs. The couple has one son, Lorenzo Donovan Ward Jr.

2012 Game Recaps

Game 1

#9/9 South Carolina 17, Vanderbilt 13

August 30, 2012
Vanderbilt Stadium
Nashville, Tenn.
38,393

NASHVILLE, TENN.—Junior running back Marcus Lattimore rushed for 110 yards and two touchdowns to lead ninth-ranked South Carolina to a 17-13 victory over Vanderbilt on Thursday night in the season opener for both teams at Vanderbilt Stadium.

With the Gamecocks trailing 13-10 early in the fourth quarter, Lattimore scored the game-winning touchdown on a 1-yard run with 11:25 remaining. The Gamecock defense then buckled down and allowed just 17 yards the rest of the way to seal the win.

South Carolina (1-0, 1-0 SEC) has now won 13 straight season openers and nine straight games against SEC Eastern Division opponents, while Gamecock head coach Steve Spurrier improves to 22-1 all-time in season openers. The Commodores (0-1, 0-1) have dropped four straight games to South Carolina.

In his first game back after suffering a knee injury at Mississippi State last season, Lattimore averaged 4.8 yards on 23 carries and led the Gamecocks with three receptions for 21 yards.

Despite missing several series with a shoulder injury, junior quarterback Connor Shaw helped guide the Gamecocks back into the game, connecting on 7-of-11 passes for 67 yards and rushing 14 times for 92 yards.

The Gamecock defense came up big early after two turnovers by the offense. With Vanderbilt facing a third and goal at the Carolina 5, linebacker Shaq Wilson stepped in front of a Jordan Rogers pass and returned the interception 37 yards to the Commodore 49.

Wilson's interception provided a spark for the offense, as Shaw ran for a 20-yard gain on Carolina's first play after the turnover. Lattimore then took care of the rest as he busted loose for a 29-yard touchdown run, breaking a tackle on his way to the end zone. The touchdown moved Lattimore into sole possession of third place in career rushing touchdown at Carolina with 28. Adam Yates tacked on the extra point to give the Gamecocks a 7-0 lead at the 4:55 mark of the first quarter.

Yates drilled his first career field goal attempt from 20 yards out with 11:44 left in the half to push South Carolina's lead to 10-0.

Vanderbilt fought back to tie the game before halftime, as Rogers connected with Jordan Matthews for a 78-yard scoring strike to make it a 10-7 ballgame with 10:37 remaining.

After holding the Gamecocks to a three-and-out on the ensuing possession, the Commodores drove deep into Carolina territory before Carey Spear made a 25-yard field goal to knot the game at 10-10.

Shaw left the game late in the second quarter with a shoulder injury after rushing for a 2-yard gain on first down, as the teams ran out the clock and headed into the locker room tied at 10.

Vanderbilt took its first lead of the contest in the third quarter on a 44-yard field goal by Spear that gave the Commodores a 13-10 advantage with 6:02 on the clock.

But Shaw re-entered the game to help lead the Gamecocks to victory. After the offense stalled in his first series back, he guided Carolina on a nine-play, 66-yard scoring drive in his second series, with Lattimore scoring from 1 yard out to give the Gamecocks the lead for good.

Wilson and sophomore defensive tackle Kelcy Quarles led the Carolina defense with eight tackles apiece, as the Gamecocks surrendered 276 yards. Carolina also had five sacks on the night.

Rogers led the way for Vanderbilt, completing 13-of-23 passes for 214 yards and one touchdown.

Game 2

#9/9 South Carolina 48, East Carolina 10

September 8, 2012
Williams-Brice Stadium
Columbia, S.C.
77,006

COLUMBIA, S.C.—In his first career start, sophomore quarterback Dylan Thompson threw for 330 yards and three touchdowns to lead ninth-ranked South Carolina to a 48-10 victory over East Carolina in its home opener at Williams-Brice Stadium.

Thompson, who completed 21-of-37 pass attempts, helped South Carolina amass 528 yards of total offense, including 397 through the air.

The Gamecocks (2-0) have won six consecutive contests dating back to last season. The win also gives head coach Steve Spurrier the 199th of his collegiate career.

Junior running back Marcus Lattimore led the Gamecock rushing attack with 40 yards and a touchdown on 13 carries. He is now tied for the school record for career touchdowns with 33.

South Carolina had 11 different players with at least one or more receptions. Sophomore Rory Anderson led the way with career highs in receptions (four), receiving yards (90) and touchdowns (two). Sophomores Damiere Byrd and Bruce Ellington added 81 and 63 yards, respectively, while senior D.L. Moore had two receptions for 45 yards and two touchdowns. Junior DeAngelo Smith also had a 30-yard touchdown reception, the first of his career.

Defensively, the Gamecocks surrendered 403 yards but they made big plays for the second consecutive week, forcing five turnovers (four interceptions, one fumble).

Quin Smith, T.J. Gurley and Jimmy Legree led the defensive effort with five tackles apiece. Legree also recorded his first career interception and returned it 34 yards for a touchdown. Seniors D.J. Swearingen and Shaq Wilson and sophomore Brison Williams also came up with one interception each.

ECU starting quarterback Rio Johnson threw for 193 yards but had three interceptions. Backup Shane Carden completed 12-of-18 passes for 140 yards with one touchdown and one interception, while sophomore receiver Justin Hardy hauled in eight passes for 111 yards and a touchdown to lead the Pirates (1-1).

The Gamecocks wasted little time putting points on the scoreboard as they found the end zone less than two minutes into the game. On the fourth play of the contest, Thompson connected with Byrd for a 53-yard pass play to the ECU 6. Lattimore took the handoff on the ensuing play and plowed his way up the middle for a 6-yard touchdown run to give Carolina the early 7-0 lead.

South Carolina pushed its lead to 14-0 late in the first quarter with a five-play, 71-yard scoring drive capped off by a 7-yard touchdown pass from Thompson to Anderson. Ellington and Anderson did a majority of damage on the drive, tallying 40 and 24 receiving yards, respectively.

Thompson delivered his second touchdown strike of the contest early in the second quarter, connecting with Smith in the corner of the end zone from 30 yards out to give the Gamecocks a 21-0 cushion heading into the locker room.

The Carolina defense came up big at the end of the half, forcing turnovers on three of ECU's final four possessions of the second quarter.

The defense kept its momentum going to start the second half, as Wilson stepped in front of a Carden pass at the ECU 29 for his second interception of the season. Three plays later Thompson completed a pass to Moore, who dodged defenders on his way into the end zone for a 29-yard TD to give the Gamecocks a 28-0 lead. On the ensuing possession, Carolina scored again when Legree intercepted a Johnson pass at the ECU 34 and raced into the end zone untouched. A 23-yard field goal by ECU's Warren Harvey at the 1:44 mark of the third made it 35-3.

The Gamecocks added another touchdown with the help of some trickery, as receiver Ace Sanders caught a lateral and found Moore wide open for a 16-yard touchdown pass early in the fourth quarter, giving South Carolina a 41-3 lead.

After ECU scored its first touchdown on a 34-yard pass from Carden to Hardy, USC capped the scoring with a 51-yard scoring strike from Seth Strickland to Anderson late in the contest.

Game 3

#8/9 South Carolina 49, UAB 6

September 15, 2012
Williams-Brice Stadium
Columbia, S.C.

COLUMBIA, S.C.—No. 8/9 South Carolina amassed 501 yards of total offense en route to a 49-6 victory over UAB on Saturday night at Williams-Brice Stadium, giving head coach Steve Spurrier his 200th career victory as a collegiate head coach.

With the win, the Gamecocks improve to 3-0 and extend their winning streak to seven games dating back to last season, which ties for the second longest streak in school history.

For the second straight week, South Carolina gained more than 500 yards of offense, passing for 322 and rushing for 179. The Gamecocks had to mix up quarterbacks after junior Connor Shaw left the game late in the second quarter with an injury. Shaw completed 8-of-14 passes for 107 yards and a touchdown before leaving the game. Sophomore Dylan Thompson came in after Shaw's injury and had plenty of success directing the offense, throwing for 177 yards and two scores.

Junior running back Marcus Lattimore rushed for 85 yards on just 12 carries and had one score as he became South Carolina's career leader in touchdowns with 34. He also moved into a tie with George Rogers and Harold Green for first in school history in rushing touchdowns with 31. Freshman Mike Davis contributed 84 yards and a touchdown on just four carries.

Bruce Ellington led the receiving corps with five catches for 98 yards, and Damiere Byrd had a 94-yard touchdown reception. Ace Sanders hauled in four passes for 55 yards and a score, and freshman Shaq Roland added a 30-yard touchdown reception.

Defensively, the Gamecocks were just as impressive as they allowed 267 yards of offense, including just 89 in the second half. Senior linebacker Shaq Wilson tallied a game-high eight tackles. Sophomore Jadeveon Clowney was in the UAB backfield disrupting plays for most of the night, recording seven tackles (3.5 for a loss) and two sacks. Senior D.J. Swearingin added three stops and a 65-yard fumble return for a touchdown.

UAB quarterback Jonathan Perry accounted for most of the Blazers' offense, completing 17-of-34 passes for 219 yards.

The Blazers (0-2) came out strong as Jackie Williams returned the opening kickoff 53 yards to the South Carolina 35. UAB settled for a 33-yard field goal by Ty Long to take a 3-0 lead at the 12:41 mark of the first quarter.

After the Gamecock offense stalled on its first two drives of the game, the Carolina defense provided a spark. On a third and 12 for UAB at the Gamecock 35, Swearingin recovered a Perry fumble in mid-air and raced 65 yards for a touchdown, giving South Carolina a 7-3 lead with 2:17 left in the quarter.

The Gamecock defense came up big again on the ensuing possession, stopping UAB on fourth and 12 from the South Carolina 36. The Gamecocks then went on a nine-play, 64-yard scoring drive capped by a 16-yard touchdown pass from Shaw to Sanders. Adam Yates' extra point gave Carolina a 14-3 lead with 11:15 remaining in the half.

UAB pulled to within 14-6 with a 46-yard field goal by Long with 4:34 on the clock, but South Carolina pushed its lead to 21-6 heading into the locker room, as Lattimore ended a five-play, 37-yard drive with a 2-yard touchdown run with 1:37 left.

South Carolina put the game out of reach early in the third quarter, as Thompson guided the offense down the field on the opening possession of the half. He connected on passes of 11 and 43 yards to Ellington to set the Gamecocks up at the UAB 6 before finishing off the drive himself with a 6-yard touchdown run to push Carolina's lead to 28-6.

After the defense shut down the Blazers on the next two possessions, Thompson completed a 94-yard touchdown pass to Byrd — the fourth longest pass play in school history — at the 7:03 mark of the third quarter to give South Carolina a 35-6 cushion.

The Gamecocks added two more scores in the fourth quarter — a 30-yard touchdown pass from Thompson to Roland and a 3-yard touchdown run by Davis — to build the final margin.

Game 4

#7/8 South Carolina 31, Missouri 10

September 22, 2012
Williams-Brice Stadium
Columbia, S.C.
80,836

COLUMBIA, S.C.—Junior quarterback Connor Shaw threw for 249 yards and two touchdowns and completed a school-record 20 consecutive passes to finish the game as he led No. 7/8 South Carolina to a 31-10 victory over Missouri on Saturday at Williams-Brice Stadium.

Shaw's 20 consecutive completions are tied for the second most in SEC history with Ole Miss' Kent Austin, who had 20 straight against Tennessee in 1982. Shaw's completion percentage of 95.2 is also a school record and ranks second in SEC history behind Tee Martin's (Tennessee) record of 95.8 (23-of-24), which came against South Carolina in 1998.

The Gamecocks (4-0, 2-0 SEC) amassed 396 yards of total offense on Saturday, with 252 coming through the air and 144 on the ground. Junior running back Marcus Lattimore rushed for 85 yards and two touchdowns, averaging four yards per carry to lead the rushing attack. His first touchdown of the afternoon, a 2-yard run early in the second quarter, moved him past George Rogers (1977-80) and Harold Green (1986-1989) for first all-time in career rushing touchdowns at South Carolina with 32. Shaw added 41 yards on 12 carries.

Lattimore also had a stellar day catching passes out of the backfield, tallying seven receptions for 60 yards. Senior tight end Justice Cunningham added four receptions for 41 yards, and junior receiver Ace Sanders had a 23-yard touchdown reception.

Contributing to the Gamecocks' dominant performance was their play on special teams. Sanders returned six punts for 106 yards, including a long of 49. Sophomore Bruce Ellington also had one kickoff return, Carolina's first of the season, for 50 yards.

Defensively, South Carolina held the Tigers to 255 yards of offense (109 rushing, 146 passing). Quin Smith led the way with a season-high 10 tackles, and Devonte Holloman and Shaq Wilson contributed seven stops each. Jadeveon Clowney added four tackles and 1.5 sacks.

Missouri quarterback James Franklin led the Tigers with 92 yards passing, and running back Kendal Lawrence contributed 67 yards on the ground. Linebacker Will Ebner tallied a game-high 14 tackles to carry the Missouri defense.

Special teams played a key role in South Carolina's strong finish to the first half. After a scoreless first quarter, Sanders gave Carolina a much-needed spark early in the second quarter with a lengthy punt return as he weaved his way down the field and broke several tackles for a 49-yard gain to the Missouri 4. Two plays later, Lattimore burst into the end zone from 2 yards out, giving the Gamecocks a 7-0 lead with 11:08 left in the half.

The Gamecock defense then forced a Missouri fumble on the ensuing series, and senior defensive end Devin Taylor fell on the ball at the Tiger 37. Shaw took advantage of the excellent field position as he connected with Nick Jones for a 36-yard pass to the Missouri 1, setting up a 1-yard touchdown run by Lattimore. Adam Yates knocked through the extra point to give the Gamecocks a 14-0 advantage at the 10:14 mark of the second quarter.

The Tigers (2-2, 0-2 SEC) put together their best possession of the half late in the second quarter, driving 76 yards on 12 plays to the Carolina 4. However, the Gamecock defense did not break as it held the Tigers to a 22-yard field goal by Andrew Baggett with 1:20 remaining.

Special teams came through once again for the Gamecocks on the ensuing kickoff, as Ellington fielded the ball in the end zone and broke loose for a 50-yard return, giving the offense a chance to score before the half. Four plays later, Shaw found Sanders open down the sideline for a 23-yard touchdown pass, giving the Gamecocks a 21-3 lead heading into the locker room.

The Gamecocks put the game out of reach late in the third quarter, going on a 10-play, 47-yard scoring drive. Shaw capped the drive with a 13-yard touchdown pass to Rory Anderson, giving Carolina a 28-3 cushion.

Shaw remained in the game early in the fourth quarter and completed a 10-yard pass to Damiere Byrd on his final pass attempt of the day.

Game 5

#6/6 South Carolina 38, Kentucky 17

September 29, 2012
Commonwealth Stadium
Lexington, Ky.
49,810

LEXINGTON, KY— Sixth-ranked South Carolina erased a 10-point halftime deficit, scoring 31 second half points, on the way to a 38-17 victory over Kentucky on Saturday night at Commonwealth Stadium. The Gamecocks are 5-0 on the year and 3-0 in the SEC while the loss drops Kentucky to 1-4 overall and 0-2 in the league. It was the Gamecocks' ninth-straight win, tying the school record set in 1984.

Junior running back Marcus Lattimore carried 23 times for 120 rushing yards and tallied two touchdowns with junior quarterback Connor Shaw going 15-for-18 in the air for 148 yards and two touchdowns as well as 19 carries for 76 yards on the ground.

The Gamecocks appeared to be going in for the first score of the game midway through the first quarter on their second drive of the game. With 3rd and goal from the Kentucky 1, the Kentucky defense stood tall and stopped South Carolina on a pair of quarterback sneaks to take over on downs near the goalline.

The Wildcats rode the momentum of their defense putting together a 16-play 94-yard drive before settling for a 22-yard field goal by Craig McIntosh that gave Kentucky a 3-0 lead. Twice, the Wildcats converted a pair of 3rd-and-long conversions on 12-yard rush by Jalen Whitlow and a 24-yard rush from Sanders. A key 20-yard pass completion as well as a 15-yard face mask penalty gave Kentucky the ball deep in Carolina territory. However, the Gamecock defense responded on its own with a goal line stand, forcing McIntosh to kick a first field goal.

South Carolina broke on top in the second quarter going 64 yards to paydirt. Shaw rushed for 11 yards and completed a pair of passes to Marcus Lattimore as well as a 37-yard completion to Rory Anderson that put the Gamecocks into scoring position. Deep into Kentucky territory, Shaw found Ace Sanders for a three-yard touchdown reception giving the Gamecocks a 7-3 lead.

Kentucky answered on its next possession though with a touchdown of its own to regain the lead. Whitlow had a steady dose of rushes and passes before capping the drive with an eight-yard touchdown run. The Wildcats were also aided on the drive by a 15-yard face mask penalty by the Gamecocks that moved Kentucky deep into South Carolina territory.

With a three-point lead, Kentucky held the Gamecock offense to a three and out and blocked Tyler Hull's punt giving the Wildcats the ball on the South Carolina 34-yard line. As Kentucky threatened, the Gamecocks suffered a bad break as a tipped pass by Gamecock defensive back Jimmy Legree landed in the hands of UK wide receiver Daryl Collins as Kentucky made its way into the red zone. Raymond Sanders capped the drive with a 10-yard touchdown run that increased Kentucky's lead to 17-7.

Trailing 17-7 at halftime, the Gamecocks scored on their opening possession of the second half to cut the deficit to three. A 14-yard rush to convert a third down followed by an 11-yard rush by Shaw set up a 30-yard touchdown pass to Damiere Byrd.

After the defense forced a three-and-out, the Gamecock offense drove 57 yards on the next drive to regain the lead. Carolina mixed the run and the pass on an eight-play drive that was capped by a 17-yard touchdown run by Kenny Miles, putting Carolina ahead for good at 21-17.

With a four-point advantage heading into the fourth quarter, South Carolina put the game away with two more touchdowns and a field goal. The Gamecocks' longest drive of the season in time of possession, 7:12, was capped by a three-yard touchdown run by Lattimore. It was a 14-play, 81-yard drive that featured 63 rushing yards by Lattimore.

The Gamecocks held a 28-17 lead with the defense continuing its steady play. DeVonte Holloman intercepted the Kentucky quarterback on the next possession with freshman defensive tackle Gerald Dixon Jr. coming up with another interception on the Wildcats' next possession. Dixon Jr.'s interception set up Lattimore's second touchdown of the game, this one from four yards out. Carolina would add a 31-yard field goal by Adam Yates to complete the scoring. After allowing 173 total yards in the first half, the defense delivered in the second half, shutting out the Wildcats on just 70 yards in the final 30 minutes. Carolina's offense was stellar in the second half scoring 31 points and gaining 240 yards, including 184 yards on the ground.

Game 6

#6/6 South Carolina 35, # 5/5 Georgia 7

October 6, 2012
Williams-Brice Stadium
Columbia, S.C.
85,199

COLUMBIA, S.C.—Sixth-ranked South Carolina put together one of its most complete efforts of the season on Saturday night against No. 5 Georgia en route to a 35-7 victory in front of a record crowd of 85,199 at Williams-Brice Stadium.

The Gamecocks rolled up 392 yards of offense and held Georgia to a season-low 224 yards of offense. The Bulldogs entered the contest averaging 48.2 points per game and 536 yards per contest.

With the win, South Carolina improves to 6-0 overall and 4-0 in the SEC. The victory is the Gamecocks' 10th straight, which is the longest winning streak in school history, and it's their 12th consecutive over SEC Eastern Division opponents. The win is also head coach Steve Spurrier's 250th career coaching victory (collegiate and pro combined).

Junior quarterback Connor Shaw and junior running back Marcus Lattimore combined for 349 yards of South Carolina's total offense. Shaw completed 6-of-10 passes for 162 yards and two touchdowns through the air and added 78 yards and a score on the ground. Lattimore carried the ball 24 times for 109 yards and a score, giving him his 11th career 100-yard game and third against the Bulldogs.

Defensively, South Carolina limited Georgia quarterback Aaron Murray, as he completed just 11-of-31 passes for 109 yards and threw one interception. The Gamecocks also held Bulldog freshman running back standouts Todd Gurley and Keith Marshall to 39 and 37 yards, respectively. The duo entered the contest averaging a combined 192.8 yards per game.

Sophomore safety Brison Williams led South Carolina's defensive effort with seven tackles and two pass breakups. Sophomore Jadeveon Clowney added four stops, including a sack and two tackles for a loss, and DeVonte Holloman recorded an interception for the only turnover of the game and tallied three tackles.

The Gamecocks fed off of the energy from the record crowd from the start and took the opening possession for a five-play, 76-yard scoring drive. A 42-yard pass from Shaw to Damiere Byrd on the second play of the game set South Carolina up at the Georgia 30-yard line. Three plays later Shaw threw a strike to Bruce Ellington for a 20-yard touchdown pass, giving the Gamecocks a 7-0 lead less than three minutes into the game.

The South Carolina defense kept the momentum going on the ensuing possession, as Kelcy Quarles deflected a Murray pass into the air and Holloman dove under the ball for an interception at the Gamecock 31. The Gamecocks took advantage of the Bulldog miscue, marching 69 yards in 11 plays for a touchdown. Shaw connected with Rory Anderson for a 14-yard scoring strike, giving South Carolina a 14-0 lead at the 6:29 mark of the first quarter.

After the defense forced a three-and-out on the next possession, the Gamecock special teams got involved in the early outburst. On fourth and 8 from the Georgia 30, junior punt returner Ace Sanders fielded a Collin Barber punt at the South Carolina 30 and weaved his way through the punt coverage 70 yards for a touchdown and a 21-0 first quarter lead.

The Bulldogs (5-1, 3-1 SEC) threatened to score late in the second quarter as they went on a 15-play, 80-yard drive to the South Carolina 2. However, the Gamecock defense buckled down at the goal line and stuffed the Bulldogs on fourth and goal to preserve a 21-0 halftime lead.

After stalling on its first drive of the second half, the Gamecocks put the game out of reach with a four-play, 63-yard scoring drive on their second possession. D.L. Moore hauled in a 62-yard pass from Shaw over a Georgia defender to set South Carolina up at the Georgia 1 on the third play of the drive. Lattimore then burst up the middle for a 1-yard touchdown run to give the Gamecocks a 28-0 lead with 10:32 left in the third quarter.

South Carolina added one more score with a 14-play, 89-yard scoring drive that ate up 9 minutes and 28 seconds off the clock. Shaw finished off the drive with a 7-yard touchdown run to push the Gamecocks' lead to 35-0.

Georgia avoided the shutout with a 3-yard touchdown run by Ken Malcome with 1:55 left.

#9/8 LSU 23, #3/3 South Carolina 21

October 13, 2012
Tiger Stadium
Baton Rouge, La.

BATON ROUGE, LA — Third-ranked South Carolina was unable to overcome a late nine-point deficit at LSU on Saturday night, as the No. 9/8 Tigers held on to claim a 23-21 victory over the Gamecocks at Tiger Stadium.

The loss snaps a school-record 10-game winning streak for the Gamecocks, who fall to 6-1 overall and 4-1 in the SEC. LSU improves to 6-1 on the season and 2-1 in conference play.

South Carolina held a 14-10 lead heading into the fourth quarter. However, the Tigers made a pair of field goals in the final stanza to take the lead for good, and a 50-yard touchdown run by Jeremy Hill pushed LSU's lead to 23-14 with 5:03 remaining.

The Gamecocks refused to go down, as junior quarterback Connor Shaw guided the offense on a 12-play, 91-yard scoring drive capped by a 1-yard touchdown pass to Bruce Ellington to trim LSU's lead to 23-21 with 1:41 remaining. The South Carolina defense then forced a three-and-out, but LSU's Craig Loston came up with an interception on the ensuing possession to seal the win.

South Carolina finished the night with 211 yards of offense, while LSU accumulated 407 yards. Shaw completed 19-of-34 passes for 177 yards and two scores and had two interceptions. Junior Ace Sanders tied a career high with five receptions for 49 yards and a touchdown to lead the receiving corps.

Junior Marcus Lattimore led Carolina on the ground with 35 yards and a TD on 13 carries.

Defensively, senior linebacker Shaq Wilson recorded a career-high 14 tackles and a sack to lead the way. Safety D.J. Swearinger and cornerback Victory Hampton added 10 tackles apiece.

Hill led the Tigers' attack with 17 carries for 124 yards and two touchdowns.

The Gamecock defense came up big on LSU's first drive of the game, as the Tigers drove down to the South Carolina 2-yard line. On third-and-goal, Gamecock linebackers Wilson and Reginald Bowers stood up Tiger running back Kenny Hilliard at the 1-yard line. After a false start penalty on fourth down moved the ball back to the 6-yard line, the Tigers were forced to settle for a 23-yard field goal by Drew Alleman to take a 3-0 lead with 5:32 left in the first quarter.

South Carolina's offense stalled on its second drive of the contest, but the defense provided one of the biggest plays of the night on the ensuing possession. On second-and-seven from the South Carolina 34, junior cornerback Jimmy Legree stepped in front of a Zach Mettenberger pass at the 29 and returned the interception 70 yards to the LSU 1.

Shaw and the offense took advantage of the momentum-changing play. On second-and-goal from the 2, Shaw rolled right and connected with Sanders for a 2-yard touchdown pass, giving the Gamecocks a 7-3 lead with 14:54 left in the half.

LSU went on another lengthy drive following the Gamecocks' score, but once again the South Carolina defense stood tall in the red zone and forced a fourth-and-10 from the South Carolina 15. Alleman entered to attempt a 32-yard field goal but he missed it wide left, as the Gamecocks held on to their 7-3 lead the remainder of the half.

The teams battled back and forth in the second half. LSU opened the half with a nine-play, 69-yard scoring drive capped by a 7-yard touchdown run by Hill, giving the Tigers a 10-7 lead at the 11:13 mark of the third quarter.

The Gamecocks answered late in the third quarter with a five-play, 39-yard scoring drive. A 30-yard pass from Shaw to tight end Justice Cunningham set South Carolina up at the LSU 2. From there, Lattimore burst into the end zone for a 2-yard touchdown run, as the Gamecocks took a 14-10 lead with 5:11 left in the quarter.

The Tigers pulled to within 14-13 early in the fourth quarter, as a 20-yard field goal by Alleman capped a 16-play, 75-yard drive.

LSU's Eric Reid intercepted Shaw on the ensuing possession and returned it 29 yards to the Gamecock 22, setting up a 22-yard field goal by Alleman that gave LSU the lead for good with 6:37 left in the contest.

Game 8

#3/4 Florida 44, #9/8 South Carolina 11

October 30, 2012
Ben Hill Griffin Stadium
Gainesville, Fla.
90,833

GAINESVILLE, FLA. — No. 9/8 South Carolina was unable to overcome three costly first-half turnovers as it fell to No. 3/4 Florida, 44-11, on Saturday afternoon at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium.

The Gamecocks turned the ball over three times in the first half deep in their own territory, which led to 21 points for the Gators.

With the loss, South Carolina falls to 6-2 on the season and 4-2 in SEC play. It is the Gamecocks' first lost against a SEC Eastern Division opponent since 2010 at Kentucky. The Gators move to 7-0 overall and 6-0 in the conference.

South Carolina outgained the Gators 191-183 in total offense, but four turnovers allowed Florida to finish the contest with an average starting field position of the 50-yard line.

Senior placekicker Adam Yates made field goals of 35, 51 and 30 yards to score the majority of South Carolina's points, while sophomore defensive back Victor Hampton returned a blocked extra point attempt for two points on Florida's first score of the second half.

Sophomore quarterback Dylan Thompson led South Carolina with 83 yards passing, while junior Connor Shaw had 72 yards through the air.

Florida quarterback Jeff Driskel completed 11-of-16 passes for 93 yards and four touchdowns to lead the Gators.

Defensively, senior linebacker Reginald Bowens tied a career high with 11 tackles to lead the Gamecocks, while senior spur DeVonte Holloman added eight tackles and a sack. Defensive ends Devin Taylor and Jadeveon Clowney also had a sack apiece for South Carolina.

The Gamecock defense dominated the first half, holding Florida to just 29 yards of offense. However, three turnovers by the offense led to 21 points for the Gators.

On the first play of the game, Florida defensive back Loucheiz Purifoy stripped Shaw at the Gamecock 5-yard line, and the Gators recovered the fumble at the 2.

The turnover set up a 3-yard touchdown pass from Driskel to Jordan Reed that gave Florida a 7-0 lead less than a minute into the game.

South Carolina shook off the early miscue and went on a 15-play, 61-yard scoring drive. Yates capped the drive with a 35-yard field goal to trim Florida's lead to 7-3.

The Gamecock defense then forced four straight three-and-outs, but after the fourth Ace Sanders fumbled the punt, and the Gators recovered at the South Carolina 29. Six plays later, Driskel connected with Quinton Dunbar for a 13-yard scoring strike to give Florida a 14-3 lead with three minutes left in the second quarter.

On the ensuing kickoff, Damiere Byrd fumbled on the return, and it was recovered by Florida's Chris Johnson at the South Carolina 13 and returned to the 1-yard line. Driskel then gave the Gators a 21-3 lead with a 1-yard touchdown pass to Reed with 2:02 left in the half.

South Carolina gained some momentum heading into the locker room, as Yates drilled a career-long 51-yard field as time expired to cut Florida's lead to 21-6. However, the Gamecocks were outscored 23-5 in the second half.

Game 9

#17/16 South Carolina 38, Tennessee 35

October 27, 2012
Williams-Brice Stadium
Columbia, S.C.
80,250

COLUMBIA, S.C.—No. 17/16 South Carolina came up with a pair of crucial defensive plays down the stretch to hold off Tennessee for a 38-35 victory at Williams-Brice Stadium.

The Volunteers (3-5, 0-5 SEC) drove inside the Gamecock 20-yard line with less than two minutes remaining in the contest. However, Jadeveon Clowney sacked quarterback Tyler Bray on first and 10, forcing a fumble that was recovered by Shaq Wilson to end the threat. After the Tennessee defense forced a three-and-out on the next possession, cornerback Victor Hampton intercepted a deep pass by Bray with 23 seconds left to seal the win.

The game was an offensive showcase with the teams combining for 982 yards of total offense. The Gamecocks (7-2, 5-2 SEC) rolled up 510 yards of offense which was their second highest total of the season, while the Volunteers finished the day with 472 yards, including 381 passing.

Connor Shaw put together one of his best performances as a Gamecock as he threw for a career-high 356 yards (22-of-32) and three TDs. He also added 33 yards and a score rushing.

A trio of Gamecocks posted career highs in receiving yards. Junior Justice Cunningham hauled in six passes for 108 yards. Bruce Ellington also caught six passes for 101 yards and a touchdown, and Ace Sanders snagged five passes for 79 yards and a score.

Marcus Lattimore led the ground attack as he rushed for 65 yards and a touchdown on 11 carries before being carted off the field in the second quarter with a right knee injury.

Bray led the Tennessee offense, completing 27-of-43 passes for 368 yards and four touchdowns. Three of those scores went to Zach Rogers, who caught six passes for 107 yards.

The Gamecocks came out strong. After the Carolina defense forced Tennessee into a three-and-out on the first possession of the game, Shaw guided the offense on a nine-play, 81-yard scoring drive on the ensuing possession. He went 4-for-4 on the drive and connected with Ellington for a 33-yard touchdown pass to give the Gamecocks a 7-0 lead.

The Volunteers provided an answer on the next possession, as Bray completed an 8-yard touchdown pass to Rogers to cap a 10-play, 75-yard drive to tie the game at seven.

Shaw helped the Gamecocks regain the lead early in the second quarter as he led the offense on an eight-play, 53-yard scoring drive. He connected with Anderson for a 26-yard scoring strike to give South Carolina a 14-7 lead with 11:27 left in the half.

The Gamecocks needed just four plays on their next possession to push their lead to 21-7. Lattimore broke free for a 28-yard touchdown run to finish off the drive.

Tennessee wouldn't go away, however, as Bray found Rogers for a 37-yard touchdown pass on the ensuing possession to pull the Volunteers to within 21-14.

South Carolina regained its two-touchdown advantage just before the half with a 10-play, 67-yard touchdown drive. With 14 seconds remaining, Shaw took the snap from the shotgun at the 1-yard line and strolled into the end zone off the left edge for a touchdown, giving the Gamecocks a 28-14 lead heading into the locker room.

Tennessee battled back on its first possession of the third quarter. Bray completed a 61-yard touchdown pass to Vincent Dallas to trim the lead to 28-21.

The Gamecocks seemed to take control of the contest with an 11-play, 80-yard touchdown drive late in the quarter that ate up five minutes and 42 seconds. Shaw found Sanders for a 24-yard scoring strike to cap the drive, giving South Carolina a 35-21 lead.

Tennessee responded once again with another lengthy drive. With the ball at the Gamecock 13, Alton Howard lined up at quarterback for the Volunteers, rolled right and found Mychal Rivera in the end zone to pull Tennessee to within 35-28 at the 14:55 mark of the fourth quarter.

After South Carolina pushed its lead to 38-28 with a 36-yard field goal by Yates, the Volunteers cut it to 38-35 on the ensuing possession. Rogers hauled in his third touchdown reception of the day, this time a 22-yarder, but that's as close as it would get.

Game 10

#12/11 South Carolina 38, Arkansas 20

November 10, 2012
Williams-Brice Stadium
Columbia, S.C.
78,772

COLUMBIA, S.C.—No. 12/11 South Carolina amassed 383 yards of offense and forced three turnovers en route to a dominant 38-20 win over Arkansas on Saturday afternoon at Williams-Brice Stadium.

With the victory, the Gamecocks improve to 8-2 overall and 6-2 in the SEC. The win snaps a three-game losing streak to the Razorbacks and extends South Carolina's home winning streak to 10 games, which is the third longest streak in school history. Arkansas drops to 4-6 on the season and 2-4 in conference play.

The Gamecocks racked up more than 300 yards of offense for the seventh time this season and fell just short of reaching 400 for the fourth time. Junior quarterback Connor Shaw led the way, completing 14-of-22 passes for 272 yards and two touchdowns while rushing for a score as well. Five of his completions went to sophomore receiver Bruce Ellington, who finished the contest with a career-high 104 receiving yards and a touchdown. Freshman tight end Jerrell Adams added a 29-yard touchdown reception, the first of his career. Freshman running back Mike Davis led the ground attack, rushing for 57 yards and a touchdown on 13 carries.

Defensively, the Gamecocks surrendered 360 yards of offense but they forced three turnovers, including a 69-yard interception return for a touchdown by senior D.J. Swearingen. A native of Greenwood, S.C., Swearingen recorded a career-high 13 tackles on the day.

Senior cornerback Akeem Auguste also had an interception, while senior linebacker Reginald Bowens recovered a fumble. Sophomore defensive end Jadeveon Clowney added two tackles and a sack. He now has 9.5 on the season, which ranks third all-time at South Carolina for sacks in a single season.

The Gamecocks came out strong early offensively as they marched 77 yards in 10 plays on their opening possession. Shaw connected with Adams across the middle for a 29-yard scoring strike to give South Carolina a 7-0 lead at the 5:47 mark of the first quarter.

Arkansas knotted the game at 7-7 midway through the second quarter, as quarterback Tyler Wilson capped a six-play, 50-yard scoring drive with a 6-yard touchdown pass to Keon Hatcher. For the contest, Wilson completed 26-of-41 passes for 277 yards and two touchdowns. He also threw a pair of interceptions.

South Carolina answered to regain the lead for good on the ensuing possession. A 36-yard pass from Shaw to Ellington and a personal foul penalty on the Razorbacks on the third play of the drive set the Gamecocks up at the Arkansas 14-yard line. Three plays later, Shaw rolled around the right side and sprinted to the pylon for a 10-yard touchdown run, giving the Gamecocks a 14-7 advantage with 5:28 left in the half.

A 20-yard field goal by Zach Hocker at the 3:28 mark of the second quarter pulled Arkansas to within 14-10, but South Carolina extended its lead to double digits just before the half. On fourth and 5 from the Arkansas 42, Shaw connected with a wide-open Ellington near the sideline, and Ellington made a defender miss as he darted into the end zone for a touchdown, giving the Gamecocks a 21-10 lead with 1:30 remaining in the half.

The Razorbacks moved the ball to the Gamecock 45 on their last possession of the half, but Aldrick Fordham and Chaz Sutton each came up with a sack to end the threat and send the teams into the locker room with South Carolina leading 21-10.

South Carolina put the game out of reach early in the second half. After Adam Yates drilled a 41-yard field goal to give the Gamecocks a 24-10 lead on the opening possession of the third quarter, the defense provided the game-sealing play on the ensuing possession. On first and 10 from the South Carolina 36, Swearingen stepped in front of a Wilson pass and returned the interception 69 yards to the end zone, giving the Gamecocks a 31-10 cushion.

After Hocker made it a 31-13 game with a 21-yard field goal at the 5:48 mark of the third quarter, the Gamecocks added one more touchdown, a 2-yard run by Davis, on the ensuing possession to push their lead to 38-13.

Game 11

#12/11 South Carolina 24, Wofford 7

November 17, 2012
Williams-Brice Stadium
Columbia, S.C.

COLUMBIA, S.C.—Senior running back Kenny Miles rushed for a career-high 127 yards and one touchdown to help lead No. 12/11 South Carolina to a 24-7 victory over Wofford on Senior Day Saturday afternoon at Williams-Brice Stadium.

With the win, the Gamecocks (9-2) finish the year a perfect 7-0 at home for the first time since 1987. The victory also gives head coach Steve Spurrier his 64th career victory at South Carolina, tying Rex Enright's school record. Wofford drops to 8-3 on the season.

Miles, who was one of 29 seniors honored prior to the game, carried the ball a career-high 27 times, averaging 4.7 yards per touch. It was his fourth career 100-yard rushing game. Miles also pulled down four passes for 27 yards.

South Carolina junior quarterback Connor Shaw completed 16-of-20 passes for 122 yards and had one touchdown and one interception. Junior Ace Sanders caught five of those passes for a team-high 35 yards and a score to lead the receiving corps.

The Gamecock defense gave up 330 yards of offense to the Terriers but came up with several big stops and forced three turnovers to help pull away for the victory. Senior D.J. Swearingen led the way with 12 tackles, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. Seniors Shaq Wilson and Byron Jerideau tallied 10 tackles apiece, while senior Akeem Auguste recovered a fumble and returned it 31 yards for a touchdown.

The game got off to a slow start as the teams battled through a scoreless first quarter. The Gamecocks eventually struck first with a 13-play, 51-yard scoring drive that ate up more than five minutes of clock. Miles did most of the damage on the drive as he rushed for 43 yards, including a 2-yard touchdown run that gave South Carolina a 7-0 lead at the 14:56 mark of the second quarter.

The Carolina defense clamped down on the Wofford rushing attack early on as it forced three-and-outs on the Terriers' first three possessions, surrendering just 17 yards.

The Gamecocks seemed to be on the way to extending their lead to 14-0 midway through the second quarter with a drive that went deep into Wofford territory. However, freshman running back Mike Davis fumbled at the end of a 16-yard run at the Terrier 6-yard line, and Wofford's Blake Wylie recovered at the 1.

The Terriers found a groove offensively right before the half and engineered a 12-play, 85-yard scoring drive. Eric Breitenstein rushed for 46 yards on the drive, including a 2-yard touchdown run with 32 seconds left in the half that tied the game at 7-7. Breitenstein finished the contest with 125 yards on 28 carries to lead Wofford.

Wofford gave the Gamecocks a scare on its opening possession of the second half as it drove to the Gamecock 27. However, on first and 10 Swearingen knocked the ball loose from Octavius Harden, and Carolina's Brison Williams recovered to end the threat.

South Carolina took advantage by going on a 15-play, 68-yard scoring drive capped by a 23-yard field goal by senior Adam Yates that gave the Gamecocks a 10-7 advantage with 11:57 left in the fourth quarter.

The defensive unit then came up with a huge fourth down stop for the Gamecocks on the ensuing possession. On fourth and 1 from the Wofford 34, Carolina seniors Devin Taylor and Quin Smith stuffed Breitenstein for no gain, setting the offense up with excellent field position. Five plays later, Shaw connected with Sanders for an 8-yard touchdown pass at the 8:10 mark, giving South Carolina a 17-7 lead.

The Gamecocks then put the game out of reach on the next possession with another big defensive play. Auguste scooped up a forced fumble by Reginald Bowens on Wofford's second play of the drive at the Terrier 31 and returned it for a touchdown to extend South Carolina's lead to 24-7.

Game 12

#13/12 South Carolina 27, #12/9 Clemson 17

November 24, 2012
Memorial Stadium
Clemson, S.C.

CLEMSON, S.C. —Head coach Steve Spurrier became the winningest coach in South Carolina history with 65 wins as the Gamecocks (10-2) defeated Clemson (10-2) 27-17 on Saturday evening for Carolina's fourth straight victory in the series vs. the Tigers. Sophomore quarterback Dylan Thompson went 23-for-41 for 310 yards in the air with three touchdown passes and sophomore defensive end Jadeveon Clowney tallied 4.5 sacks to set the single-season record at Carolina with 13 on the year.

The Gamecocks had a complete performance in all three phases. The Carolina offense totaled 444 yards on the day. Thompson connected six times to Ace Sanders for 119 yards, the most receiving yards by a Gamecock player this year as well as a touchdown. Bruce Ellington also had seven catches for 72 yards with two touchdowns. Carolina's defense limited the Tigers to just three points and 91 total yards in the second half. Adam Yates went 2-for-2 for field goals with Sanders tallying a 30-yard punt return to set the school's single-season record at 363 punt return yards.

With a 20-17 lead in the fourth quarter, the Gamecocks put together a 13-play 65-yard drive that was capped by a 6-yard touchdown pass from Ellington to Thompson that gave Carolina a commanding 10-point lead. That was enough for the defense as they stopped Clemson two more times with Clowney tallying a pair of sacks in the Tigers' final two possessions.

The Tigers struck first on their second possession of the game with a 16-play, 85-yard scoring drive that ate up more than six minutes of clock. Quarterback Tajh Boyd capped the drive with a 3-yard touchdown run on an option keeper to give Clemson a 7-0 lead with 5:27 left in the first quarter.

South Carolina responded on the ensuing possession to tie the game. Dylan Thompson completed passes of 9, 19, and 15 yards, and Kenny Miles added runs of 1 and 11 yards to set the Gamecocks up at the Clemson 13-yard line. Thompson then connected with Ellington for a 13-yard scoring strike to cap the seven-play, 63-yard scoring drive and knot the game at 7-7.

Clemson fired back with a quick scoring drive to regain the lead. Roderick McDowell broke free for a 32-yard run down the sideline. On the next play, Boyd lofted the ball to DeAndre Hopkins for a 43-yard touchdown pass, giving the Tigers a 14-7 advantage at the 1:22 mark of the first quarter.

The Gamecocks cut Clemson's lead to 14-10 late in the second quarter, as Yates drilled a 27-yard field goal to cap a 12-play, 79-yard drive at the 2:40 mark. On the drive, Thompson was 5-for-6 for 53 yards and had 27 yards on the ground.

Thompson took control on the opening possession of the second half and guided South Carolina on a 10-play, 85-yard scoring drive. On third and 16 from the Clemson 34, Thompson found Sanders across the middle, and Sanders shed a tackle and raced to the end zone for a 34-yard touchdown reception to give the Gamecocks a 17-14 lead with 11:48 remaining in the third stanza. Thompson completed four passes for 79 yards on the drive.

The teams then exchanged field goals. Yates extended South Carolina's lead on its next possession with a 43-yard field goal to give the Gamecocks a 20-14 lead at the 6:56 mark of the third quarter. Clemson's Chandler Catanzaro answered on the ensuing possession with a 37-yard field goal to trim South Carolina's lead to 20-17 with 5:07 left in the quarter.

Outback Bowl

#11/10 South Carolina 33, #19/22 Michigan 28

January 1, 2013

Raymond James Stadium

Tampa, Fla.

TAMPA, Fla. -- Dylan Thompson's 32-yard touchdown pass to Bruce Ellington with 11 seconds remaining lifted South Carolina (11-2) to a 33-28 victory over Michigan (8-5) to win the 2013 Outback Bowl.

Trailing 28-27 with 3:29 remaining in the game, Carolina made one final drive. Connor Shaw converted a 4th & 3 on the South Carolina 37 with a 6-yard slant pass to Ace Sanders and followed that up with completions of 6, 8 and 6, all to Sanders to earn two more first downs. Shaw left the game after the fourth completion to Sanders as he was nicked up, resulting in Thompson entering the contest. Thompson moved the Gamecocks down to the Michigan 32-yardline with 20 seconds remaining. After spiking the ball to stop the clock, Thompson took the next snap and unleashed a perfect strike to Ellington near the goal line. The Gamecock wide receiver made his way into the end zone to give the Gamecocks a 5-point lead with just seconds remaining.

The back and forth affair saw the duo of Shaw and Thompson deliver for Carolina. Shaw finished 18-for-26 for 224 yards in the air and a pair of touchdowns and added 96 yards rushing. Thompson was 7-for-10 for 117 yards and two scores.

Sanders caught 9 passes for 92 yards with two touchdown receptions as well as a 63-yard punt return for a touchdown en route to MVP honors.

The Gamecocks needed just three plays to find the end zone. Damiere Byrd got behind the Wolverine secondary and Shaw connected with him for a 56-yard scoring strike to give the Gamecocks a 7-0 lead less than two minutes into the game.

Michigan trimmed the lead to 7-3 with a 39-yard field goal by Brendan Gibbons.

After the Carolina defense pushed the Wolverines back to their own 9-yard line with a sack by Aldrick Fordham, Michigan punted to All-SEC return man Sanders, who weaved his way 63 yards to the end zone, giving the Gamecocks a 14-3 advantage.

The Wolverines answered with an 11-play, 75-yard scoring drive capped by a 5-yard pass from Devin Gardner to Drew Dileo, cutting South Carolina's lead to 14-10.

The Gamecocks regained their 11-point lead quickly with a four-play, 75-yard touchdown drive. Thompson found Nick Jones across the middle for a 70-yard pass to set Carolina up at the Michigan 4. From there Thompson rolled right and found Sanders open in the end zone to give the Gamecocks a 21-10 lead with 10:54 left in the half.

A 40-yard field goal by Gibbons closed the gap to 21-13 heading into intermission.

Michigan got a 52-yard field goal from Matt Wile, then went on a 10-play, 65-yard scoring drive capped by a 10-yard touchdown pass from Gardner to Jeremy Gallon to take a 22-21 heading into the final stanza.

After a very questionable first down was awarded to the Wolverines, Jadeveon Clowney made a big defensive play. Clowney forced and recovered a fumble by tail-back Vincent Smith giving the Gamecocks the ball on the Michigan 31-yardline. South Carolina quickly struck then as Shaw completed a 31-yard touchdown pass to Sanders as the Gamecocks reclaimed a 27-22 lead.

Michigan answered on its ensuing drive to take a 28-27 lead. An 11-play 64-yard drive took up over four minutes on the clock and was capped by a 17-yard pass from Gardner to Gallon, his second touchdown reception of the game.

* — South Carolina fielded its first football team in 1892, and for the first three seasons no head coach was designated. The all-time won-lost-tie record includes those three seasons. No football was played in 1893, and in 1906 the trustees abolished the sport for one season.

George Rogers 1980 Heisman Trophy Winner

All-America running back George Rogers won the 1980 Heisman Trophy following his senior season at South Carolina, as he was recognized as the nation's top collegiate football player. The Duluth, Ga., native was a consensus first-team All-America selection that year after leading the nation in rushing with 1,894 yards. Rogers went on to become the first player chosen in the 1981 NFL draft and starred for the New Orleans Saints before moving on to the Washington Redskins, where he helped lead his team to a Super Bowl Championship in 1988. Rogers was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1997.

Sterling Sharpe, who wore No. 2, concluded his career as the school's all-time leading receiver with 169 catches for 2,497 yards and 17 touchdowns. Sharpe had his jersey retired following the 1987 regular season. He became only the second Gamecock to have his jersey retired while he was still active at the school. Sharpe was a first-round draft pick by the Green Bay Packers in 1988.

Running back Steve Wadiak, who wore No. 37 for Carolina from 1948-51, was the first to have his number retired, after a tragic automobile accident claimed his life. Wadiak, who still appears throughout the South Carolina record book, was the school's all-time rushing leader for 28 years after his senior season. Wadiak, who rushed for 2,878 yards in his career, had his mark passed by Rogers in 1980. Wadiak led the team in scoring and rushing all four years he played. His number was retired in 1951.

1980 Heisman Trophy winner George Rogers had his No. 38 jersey retired during halftime ceremonies at Carolina's final 1980 home game. Rogers was the first South Carolina player to have his jersey retired while still active at the school. Rogers was the first player chosen in the 1981 NFL Draft by the New Orleans Saints.

Center Mike Johnson, No. 56, became gravely ill before the start of his junior season and the illness cut short a potentially great football career. Johnson had finished his sophomore campaign as the regular center. His number was retired following his death in 1965.

2013 Outback Bowl

#11 South Carolina 33, #19 Michigan 28

January 1, 2013

Raymond James Stadium

Tampa, Fla.

TAMPA, Fla. -- Dylan Thompson's 32-yard touchdown pass to Bruce Ellington with 11 seconds remaining lifted South Carolina (11-2) to a 33-28 victory over Michigan (8-5) to win the 2013 Outback Bowl.

Trailing 28-27 with 3:29 remaining in the game, Carolina made one final drive. Connor Shaw converted a 4th & 3 on the South Carolina 37 with a 6-yard slant pass to Ace Sanders and followed that up with completions of 6, 8 and 6, all to Sanders to earn two more first downs. Shaw left the game after the fourth completion to Sanders as he was nicked up, resulting in Thompson entering the contest. Thompson moved the Gamecocks down to the Michigan 32-yardline with 20 seconds remaining. After spiking the ball to stop the clock, Thompson took the next snap and unleashed a perfect strike to Ellington near the goal line. The Gamecock wide receiver made his way into the end zone to give the Gamecocks a 5-point lead with just seconds remaining.

The back and forth affair saw the duo of Shaw and Thompson deliver for Carolina. Shaw finished 18-for-26 for 224 yards in the air and a pair of touchdowns and added 96 yards rushing. Thompson was 7-for-10 for 117 yards and two scores.

Sanders caught 9 passes for 92 yards with two touchdown receptions as well as a 63-yard punt return for a touchdown en route to MVP honors.

The Gamecocks needed just three plays to find the end zone. Damiere Byrd got behind the Wolverine secondary and Shaw connected with him for a 56-yard scoring strike to give the Gamecocks a 7-0 lead less than two minutes into the game.

Michigan trimmed the lead to 7-3 with a 39-yard field goal by Brendan Gibbons.

After the Carolina defense pushed the Wolverines back to their own 9-yard line with a sack by Aldrick Fordham, Michigan punted to All-SEC return man Sanders, who weaved his way 63 yards to the end zone, giving the Gamecocks a 14-3 advantage.

The Wolverines answered with an 11-play, 75-yard scoring drive capped by a 5-yard pass from Devin Gardner to Drew Dileo, cutting South Carolina's lead to 14-10.

The Gamecocks regained their 11-point lead quickly with a four-play, 75-yard touchdown drive. Thompson found Nick Jones across the middle for a 70-yard pass to set Carolina up at the Michigan 4. From there Thompson rolled right and found Sanders open in the end zone to give the Gamecocks a 21-10 lead with 10:54 left in the half.

A 40-yard field goal by Gibbons closed the gap to 21-13 heading into intermission.

Michigan got a 52-yard field goal from Matt Wile, then went on a 10-play, 65-yard scoring drive capped by a 10-yard touchdown pass from Gardner to Jeremy Gallon to take a 22-21 heading into the final stanza.

After a very questionable first down was awarded to the Wolverines, Jadeveon Clowney made a big defensive play. Clowney forced and recovered a fumble by tailback Vincent Smith giving the Gamecocks the ball on the Michigan 31-yardline. South Carolina quickly struck then as Shaw completed a 31-yard touchdown pass to Sanders as the Gamecocks reclaimed a 27-22 lead.

Michigan answered on its ensuing drive to take a 28-27 lead. An 11-play 64-yard drive took up over four minutes on the clock and was capped by a 17-yard pass from Gardner to Gallon, his second touchdown reception of the game.

2012 Capital One Bowl

#10 South Carolina 30, #21 Nebraska 13

January 2, 2012

Florida Citrus Bowl Stadium
Orlando, Fla.
61,351

ORLANDO, FLA. — No. 10/9 South Carolina wrapped up one of the most successful seasons in school history with a 30-13 victory over No. 21/20 Nebraska in the Capital One Bowl.

With the win, the Gamecocks finish the season at 11-2, becoming the first team in school history to reach 11 wins.

Junior receiver Alshon Jeffery played a key role in leading South Carolina to its record-setting win and made a little history of his own. Jeffery finished the day with four receptions for 148 yards and a touchdown on his way to earning bowl MVP honors.

Gamecock quarterback Connor Shaw had a stellar end to his sophomore campaign, completing 11-of-17 passes for 230 yards and two touchdowns. He added 42 yards and one touchdown on the ground. Junior running back Kenny Miles finished with 67 yards and a touchdown on 15 carries and had two receptions for 13 yards and a score.

The Gamecock defense delivered another solid performance, holding Nebraska to 253 yards of total offense with just 64 yards allowed in the second half. Carolina tied a season-high with six sacks on the day, including two from freshman Jadeveon Clowney and 1.5 from senior Melvin Ingram. Junior D.J. Swearingin and senior Antonio Allen led the way with seven tackles apiece.

The Cornhuskers (9-4) struck first. On Nebraska's third play from scrimmage, quarterback Taylor Martinez found Kenny Bell for a 30-yard touchdown strike, but not all was lost for the Gamecocks thanks to a huge play on special teams. Senior Travian Robertson blocked the extra point and Stephon Gilmore returned it for two points to make it a 6-2 game with 11:58 left in the first quarter.

Freshman Bruce Ellington gave Carolina excellent field position on the ensuing possession with a 45-yard kickoff return to the Gamecock 45. A 24-yard run by Miles set up the Gamecocks deep in Nebraska territory. Shaw capped the drive on fourth and goal by punching it in from a yard out, giving Carolina a 9-6 advantage.

Nebraska answered with an eight-play, 60-yard scoring drive, aided by a Carolina drive-extending penalty, to regain the lead. Ameer Abdullah finished off the drive with a 1-yard touchdown run to give the Cornhuskers a 13-9 lead.

Both teams missed golden opportunities to score in the second quarter. Nebraska lost a fumble in the redzone, then Carolina came up empty after a 78-yard pass to Jeffery set them up with a first-and-goal situation.

Cornerback Stephon Gilmore gave the Gamecocks one more chance to put points on the board before halftime by intercepting a Martinez pass at the Gamecock 26. On second and 1 from the Gamecock 49 with seven seconds left, Shaw rolled right and heaved it to the end zone. Jeffery leaped over a defender, came down with the ball and dove into the end zone to give South Carolina a 16-13 lead heading into the locker room.

The Gamecocks pushed their lead to 23-13 early in the fourth quarter with a five-play, 41-yard scoring drive. Shaw hooked up with Ace Sanders for a 23-yard pass play on third and 18 to move the ball to the Nebraska 11. Two plays later, Shaw found a wide-open Miles for a 9-yard touchdown pass with 12:25 remaining.

Miles added a 3-yard touchdown run with 3:05 left to put the game out of reach.

2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl

#23 Florida St. 26, #19 South Carolina 17

December 31, 2010

Georgia Dome

Atlanta, Ga.

72,217

ATLANTA, GA.—EJ Manuel threw a fourth-quarter touchdown pass to stop a South Carolina rally and lead Florida State to a 26-17 victory over the Gamecocks in the Chick-fil-A Bowl.

Manuel took over after senior quarterback Christian Ponder left early in the second quarter with a concussion. The sophomore appears ready to assume the starting role next season.

"I hate it for Christian," Florida State coach Jimbo Fisher said. "He got dinged on the back of his head. He came off, and he was kind of out of it a little bit. I hate that because of what he means to us, but EJ, oh boy, I'm glad he's on our team."

Manuel completed 11-of-15 passes for 84 yards and a touchdown and had seven carries for 46 yards. He was 7-for-7 passing on the fourth-quarter touchdown drive.

Dustin Hopkins kicked four field goals for the No. 23 Seminoles (10-4), who reached 10 victories for the first time since 2003. Hopkins tied his own school record for a bowl, and the four field goals also matched the Chick-fil-A Bowl record.

No. 19 South Carolina (9-5), which was seeking its first 10-win season since 1984, lost star running back Marcus Lattimore when he was hit hard on the Gamecocks' first drive. Coach Steve Spurrier's team also committed five turnovers.

"We had (414) yards," Spurrier said. "It wasn't a terrible offensive performance. It was just the turnovers that hurt us."

"Stephen struggled early and then he made some pretty decent throws in the second half," Spurrier said. "It looked like we had a chance to get back in the game."

Garcia recovered to lead two long touchdown drives that trimmed Florida State's lead to 19-17 before Manuel answered with the seven-yard scoring pass to Taiwan Easterling.

"Man, I was so happy," Manuel said. "We weren't moving the ball like we wanted to. We weren't getting touchdowns. We were getting field goals instead."

Florida State cornerback Greg Reid, whose hits caused the fumbles by Lattimore and Jeffery, deflected a fourth-down pass by Garcia with 3:23 remaining to end the Gamecocks' last hope.

Garcia completed 19 of 34 passes for 243 yards and also scored on a nifty play in the third. On a third-down play from the Florida State three, Garcia threw a screen pass to Ace Sanders, who threw back across the field to Garcia alone in the right side of the end zone.

The Seminoles answered with Hopkins' fourth field goal, from 45 yards, to push the lead to nine. Hopkins also kicked four field goals in the Seminoles' Gator Bowl win over West Virginia.

Garcia responded by leading a 79-yard drive, capped by Brian Maddox's seven-yard TD run. Garcia helped set up the score with a 29-yard pass to Jeffery.

Reid's hit on Lattimore knocked the freshman out of the game with an injury announced as a cut to his mouth. Spurrier said after the game that Lattimore also had "a little bit of a concussion" and was taken to a hospital for stitches.

"It hurt a bit, no question about that," Spurrier said of Lattimore's absence. "We would have kept trying to run a little bit more, that's for sure."

2010 Papajohns.com Bowl Connecticut 20, South Carolina 7

January 2, 2010
Legion Field
Birmingham, Alabama

BIRMINGHAM, ALA.

—Andre Dixon rushed for 126 yards and a touchdown and resilient Connecticut (8-5) ended a trying season with a 20-7 victory over the South Carolina Gamecocks (7-6) in the Papajohns.com Bowl on Saturday.

Dixon was the Most Valuable Player and joined teammate Jordan Todman as 1,000-yard rushers, the first time two UConn backs have surpassed that mark in the same season.

Carolina quarterback Stephen Garcia completed just 16 of 38 passes for 129 yards while gaining 56 yards on 15 carries. He lost a fumble, was intercepted once and didn't get much help. An emotional Garcia called the Gamecocks' performance "very disappointing."

He said they never got it going, "and it shows on the scoreboard."

UConn had a pristine performance, with zero penalties. Linebacker Lawrence Wilson called it "the most complete game we've played all year."

The Gamecocks avoided their first shutout in three seasons on Brian Maddox's 2-yard touchdown run with 3:24 left. Their only other possession ending in UConn territory resulted in a botched field goal attempt.

The Gamecocks' effort was marred by dropped passes, a missed interception and costly penalties that kept a mostly garnet-and-black clad crowd subdued -- and steadily shrinking by the fourth quarter.

Leading receiver Alshon Jeffery was held to three catches for 28 yards, all in the first half. Tailback Kenny Miles had just six carries for 24 yards.

Dixon's 10-yard touchdown with 13:12 left effectively put the game away. Jesse Simpson had set the Huskies up at the Gamecocks' 29-yard line by forcing Garcia to fumble, knocking it away from behind at the end of a run.

A South Carolina team that pounded Clemson with 58 runs in a win to finish the regular season finished with 26 rushes for 76 yards.

UConn jumped ahead 13-0. Kashif Moore snagged the ball one-handed down the right sideline for a 37-yard touchdown catch from Zach Frazer in the first quarter. Dave Teggart then hit field goals of 33 and 44 yards. The first kick was set up when Garcia was stopped on a sneak on fourth-and-1 from South Carolina's 32.

South Carolina didn't even manage its initial first down until midway through the second quarter, and that took Garcia converting a third-and-16.

South Carolina's sloppy play continued into the second half. Running into the kicker and roughing the passer calls helped UConn keep its first drive alive for more than seven minutes, though it ended with a fumble.

Then, cornerback Akeem Auguste dropped an easy interception with nothing between him and the end zone.

2009 Outback Bowl Iowa 31, South Carolina 10

January 1, 2009
Raymond James Stadium
Tampa, Florida

TAMPA, FLA. — Shonn Greene, the Big Ten's most valuable player, rushed for 121 yards and three touchdowns Thursday, helping the Hawkeyes trounce South Carolina 31-10 in the Outback Bowl.

Greene ran for more than 100 yards in all 13 of Iowa's games and scored in all but one. He finished with school single-season records of 1,850 yards and 20 TDs.

Iowa (9-4) won for the sixth time in seven games since losing three straight to fall to 3-3. South Carolina (7-6) lost three straight down the stretch while being outscored 118-30.

Greene scored on a pair of 1-yard runs to help Iowa build a 21-0 halftime lead, then added an 11-yarder to make it 31-0 late in the third quarter. South Carolina scored on Chris Smelley's 10-yard TD pass to Jared Cook and Ryan Succop's 48-yard field goal in the fourth quarter.

After struggling offensively in lopsided losses to Florida and Clemson, Gamecocks coach Steve Spurrier decided to start quarterback Stephen Garcia, a highly regarded redshirt freshman from Tampa who was the centerpiece of his recruiting class in 2007.

But Garcia turned the ball over four times in the first half and was replaced by Smelley after going 9-for-18 for 79 yards and three interceptions.

The 20-year-old's homecoming turned sour in a hurry. His first pass was intercepted and returned 29 yards set up an Iowa touchdown, then the dual-threat quarterback fumbled on his first run to give the Gamecocks turnovers on two of their first four offensive plays.

The next two South Carolina possessions ended with interceptions. After Bradley Fletcher picked off Garcia in the end zone, Iowa drove 80 yards to take a 21-0 lead on Greene's second touchdown.

Ricky Stanzi was intercepted twice before halftime, but neither mistake really hurt the Hawkeyes. Iowa was trying to turn Garcia's third interception into a quick TD when South Carolina's Chris Culliver made a leaping pick in the end zone.

Smelley, who started nine games for South Carolina this season, replaced Garcia at the start of the second half. Moe Brown fumbled on the quarterback's first completion to set up an Iowa field goal, but the Gamecocks did have some success moving the ball the rest of the game.

Stanzi was 13-for-19 for 148 yards, including a 6-yard TD throw to Trey Stross on the first drive of the game. Smelley finished 16-of-31 for 174 yards and no interceptions.

2006 Liberty Bowl South Carolina 44, Houston 36

December 29, 2006
Liberty Bowl Stadium
Memphis, Tennessee

MEMPHIS, TENN. – Steve Spurrier's offense was humming along in the first half, but the South Carolina defense was doing nothing to stop Houston.

In the final 30 minutes, Spurrier's Gamecocks got a little D to go with their O.

Defensive end Jordin Lindsey came up with two turnovers for a defense that made the stops that mattered most, and South Carolina beat Houston 44-36 in the Liberty Bowl on Friday for its first bowl victory under Spurrier.

Blake Mitchell tied a bowl record by throwing four touchdown passes, Cory Boyd ran for two more TDs as the Gamecocks (8-5) finished Spurrier's second season with their best record since going 9-3 in 2001.

Kevin Kolb, making his 50th start at quarterback for Houston (10-4) and leading the nation's sixth-best offense, finished 26-of-39 for 386 yards and three touchdowns.

Houston, which went 0-11 in 2001, came in with a six-game winning streak and looking to cap its Conference USA championship season.

Houston led 28-27 at the half - a Liberty Bowl record for points in a half - but South Carolina held the Cougars to 63 yards in the third quarter when the Gamecocks took control. They sacked Kolb three times, forced two turnovers and stopped the Cougars twice on fourth down in the fourth quarter.

The Cougars and Gamecocks combined for 588 yards in the first half, much of it just before halftime. The second quarter took 61 minutes, and a game that was tied at 7 went haywire. In the final three minutes of the half, four TDs were scored in a span 12 plays - the last a 77-yard TD catch by Houston's Vincent Marshall with 11 seconds left.

The Cougars didn't score in the second half until Jackie Battle ran in from 3 yards out with 5:42 left. The 2-point conversion cut South Carolina's lead to 44-36.

Houston outgained South Carolina 527-512, but the Cougars managed only 200 in the second half.

With a pair of coaches known for their offensive ingenuity, this had a little of everything: four TDs in a span of 12 plays, a flea flicker for an interception, a punt on fourth-and-goal, a halfback pass and an option by Houston when backed up against its own goal line.

Ryan Succop kicked a 45-yard field goal into winds gusting up to 20 mph on the Gamecocks' opening drive of the second half to put South Carolina ahead to stay at 30-28. Mitchell padded the lead with a pair of 43-yard TD passes to Kenny McKinley, the last with 7:39 to go for a 44-28 lead.

Mitchell, the game's Most Valuable Player, was 19-of-29 for 323 yards.

Houston ruined its best scoring chance on the drive after Succop's field goal.

In the shotgun on third-and-goal at the 8, a bad snap went wide right of Kolb, who tried to chase down the ball and kicked it out of bounds for a penalty. That forced Houston to punt from midfield after having first-and-goal.

2005 Independence Bowl Missouri 38, South Carolina 31

December 30, 2005
Independence Stadium
Shreveport, Louisiana
41,332

SHREVEPORT, LA. – South Carolina's game plan of keeping Brad Smith in check worked great - for a half, anyway.

Then, the Missouri quarterback broke loose, as he has done so often in his career, rushing for three touchdowns - including a 1-yarder in the final minutes - and passing for another to rally the Tigers for a 38-31 victory over the Gamecocks in the Independence Bowl.

Smith, who rushed for 1,151 yards and passed for 2,022 this season, accounted for 431 yards of Missouri's 504 yards as the Tigers staged their biggest comeback of the year.

Missouri (6-6) trailed 21-0 after the first quarter as Steve Spurrier's Gamecocks dominated the first half. South Carolina (7-5) outgained Missouri 312 yards to 174 in the first half and held the football almost 11 minutes longer (20:02-9:58).

The Tigers didn't convert a third-down until the final 58 seconds of the half.

Smith completed 21 of 37 passes for 282 yards, with one touchdown and an interception. He passed for 200 or more yards for the 18th time. He also ran for 150 yards and three touchdowns on 21 carries.

The Gamecocks needed less than 3 minutes to go 80 yards for their first score. Blake Mitchell's 23-yard pass to Sidney Rice put Carolina up 7-0. Rice finished with 12 receptions for 191 yards.

Tony Temple fumbled on Missouri's first play and South Carolina's Ricardo Hurley scooped up the ball. Four plays later Mike Davis, who ran for 125 yards on 18 carries, scored on a 5-yard run for a 14-0 lead.

The Gamecocks' third scoring drive covered 69 yards in 1:59. This time Mitchell, who completed 20 of 38 passes for 266 yards, hit Carson Askins with a 20-yard scoring pass to make it 21-0. Mitchell passed for two touchdowns, and was intercepted three times.

Marcus King gave Missouri its first points, grabbing Mitchell's pass at the goal line and returning it 99 yards to make it 21-7 in the second quarter.

After Davis' 2-yard TD run gave the Gamecocks a 28-7 lead, Missouri staged its first long drive of the game. The Tigers went 77 yards and Smith hit Chase Coffman with a 5-yard touchdown pass to make it 28-14 at halftime. Coffman finished with eight catches for 99 yards.

On their first drive of the third quarter, Missouri faked a field goal at the Carolina 14. Martin Rucker ran to the 1-yard line, but the Tigers couldn't push it in and Crossett's 22-yard field goal attempt sailed wide right.

Smith pulled Missouri to 28-21 with a 31-yard run with 2:41 left in the third.

Another apparent Missouri TD was nullified by a 15-yard penalty. Smith finally got the score on a 4-yard run that tied the score at 28 early in the fourth quarter.

Crossett kicked a 50-yard field goal to put the Tigers up 31-28, but Josh Brown countered with a 30 yarder that tied it at 31-all.

Then, with 2:13 remaining, Smith sealed the Missouri win with a 1-yard TD run.

2002 Outback Bowl South Carolina 31, Ohio State 28

January 1, 2002

TAMPA, FLA — With the score tied and no time left, South Carolina kicker Daniel Weaver knew his 42-yard field goal attempt wasn't his best effort. So he put his faith in the wind.

The kick barely cleared the crossbar, allowing No. 14 South Carolina to avoid a big embarrassment with a 31-28 victory over No. 22 Ohio State in the Outback Bowl on Tuesday.

Steve Bellisari led Ohio State from a 28-0 deficit to tie the score. But he was intercepted by Sheldon Brown, whose return to Ohio State's 29 with 23 seconds left set up Weaver's first game-winning kick.

Four plays and two Ohio State timeouts after the interception, Weaver delivered. Phil Petty, the game's MVP, threw for 227 yards and two touchdowns, and Andrew Pinnock scored twice for South Carolina.

But none of that mattered when Bellisari finally got the Buckeyes (7-5) going. He ran for a 2-yard score to close the third quarter, then hit Darrell Sanders with a 16-yard TD pass with 10:18 to go that cut the lead in half.

Bellisari, who was 21-of-35 for 320 yards, then drove Ohio State to the South Carolina 18 but lost the snap. South Carolina linebacker Jeremiah Garrison recovered.

On the next play, Derek Watson fumbled right back to Ohio State's Mike Doss. Three plays later, Jonathan Wells' 1-yard run made it 28-21 with 5:02 to go.

Ohio State got the ball back on its 11 with 3:56 to play and Bellisari was magnificent. He went 6-of-6 for 86 yards, tying the game on Sanders' 9-yard catch.

Cie Grant gave the Buckeyes a chance for victory at the end, intercepting Petty with 1:12 left. A celebration penalty backed them up to their 18, but no one at Raymond James Stadium was doubting Bellisari.

However, the long pass was picked off by Brown, whose twisting, cutback 37-yard return gave the Gamecocks hope.

Weaver waited out the timeouts, reared back and kicked the dying ball through. Much of the credit for South Carolina's turnaround goes to Petty, an unspectacular yet efficient senior who has started the past three years.

Petty had throws of 9 yards to Watson and 13 to Brian Scott that set up South Carolina's first score, a 1-yarder by the beefy, 250-pound Pinnock.

On the Gamecocks' next drive, Petty passed to Scott for 30 yards and Pinnock for 9, ending things with Scott's 7-yard grab over freshman safety Dustin Fox to lead 14-0 at the half.

Petty started the third quarter with a 50-yard TD throw to Andrea Gause. Pinnock's 10-yard run made it 28-0 before the fun began.

Ohio State started strongly, forcing three first-quarter punts, including a bowl record 70-yarder by Tyeler Dean.

But after Bellisari hit Sanders on a 17-yard pass that was Ohio State's longest play at the time, defensive end George Gause stripped the ball to start the Gamecocks' first touchdown drive.

2001 Outback Bowl South Carolina 24, Ohio State 7

TAMPA, FLA. — South Carolina capped off its amazing turnaround season with an impressive 24-7 win over Ohio State in the 2001 Outback Bowl.

Claiming only the second bowl victory in the program's history, the Gamecocks ended the season 8-4 and ranked No. 19 in the AP rankings and No. 21 in the USA Today/ESPN poll.

Sophomore running back Ryan Brewer had a day to remember. The Troy, Ohio, native, who chose Carolina over his home-state university, dismantled the Buckeyes both on the ground and in the air. Brewer carried the ball 19 times, gaining 109 yards, and caught three passes for another 92 yards. The eventual game MVP was responsible for all of USC's touchdowns, scoring on runs of seven and two yards and a 28-yard TD reception early in the fourth quarter that put the game out of reach.

Also contributing on the offense for USC was quarterback Phil Petty. The junior was 9-of-19 for 175 yards and a touchdown. Jermale Kelly and Brian Scott each caught three passes.

Defensively, the Gamecocks were led by linebacker Kenny Harney who had a total of eight tackles (six unassisted), with two of those going for a loss. True freshman Deandre' Eiland contributed from his free safety position with two interceptions and tackles with three of them adding up to 17 yards of lost yardage for the Buckeyes.

1995 Carquest Bowl

South Carolina 24, West Virginia 21

MIAMI, FLA.— The Gamecocks, long supposed victims of the mythical Chicken Curse, are ready for the charmed life of bowl champions after defeating West Virginia 24-21 at the Carquest Bowl.

South Carolina quarterback Steve Taneyhill threw for one touchdown, ran for another and was named the game's MVP. Brandon Bennett rushed for 100 yards and fullback Stanley Pritchett scored the Gamecocks' final touchdown with a 1-yard power run.

The win was the first in nine bowl tries for South Carolina (7-5) and the fifth consecutive postseason loss for the Mountaineers (7-6).

It looked more like West Virginia was the cursed team. Mountaineers tailback Jimmy Gray fumbled on their opening play and six plays later Taneyhill hit Foster for a 2-yard TD.

Quarterback Chad Johnston was driving West Virginia for a go-ahead score in the third quarter when the ball glanced off tight end Lovett Purnell and was caught by freshman cornerback Ben Washington.

His twisting, juking, 42-yard return led to Pritchett's score, and West Virginia couldn't recover.

Still, the Mountaineers trailed by three throughout the final period, twice giving the ball up on downs in the final six minutes.

The Gamecocks had chances to extend the lead, but failed.

They went on a 12-play drive that got to West Virginia's 4, but Taneyhill was sacked by tackle Barry Hawkins, and a field goal try was blocked.

Pritchett went on a 28-yard run with 1:14 left and was headed for a score, but fumbled the ball out of the back of the end zone, and West Virginia took over on its 3. Johnston, though, was sacked for the sixth time and Carolina's lead was safe.

Up 10-7, Taneyhill ended a 14-play drive just before halftime with his second touchdown run of the season. The junior ducked between two defenders, faked a throw at the line of scrimmage and dived over the top for a 4-yard score.

Reed Morton set a Carquest Bowl record with a 47-yard field goal, giving the Gamecocks a 10-0 lead in the second quarter.

West Virginia tripped itself up several times in the first half. Brooks stopped Kantroy Barber for no gain on fourth-and-2 at the Gamecocks 23. After the Mountaineers recovered Monty Means' fumble on South Carolina's next drive, Vanterpool lost the ball at the end of a 25-yard completion on the next play.

Another West Virginia sequence - this time an eight-play series - ended at South Carolina's 29 when Brooks knocked away a fourth-down pass to Robert Walker in the end zone.

Robert Walker gained 132 yards, including 62 during West Virginia's only scoring drive of the first half. He bounced through the left side for a 24-yard touchdown run to make it 10-7.

1988 Liberty Bowl Indiana 34, South Carolina 10

MEMPHIS, TENN.—

Dave Schnell passed for 378 yards and two touchdowns, including an 88-yard game-breaking toss to Rob Turner, leading Indiana to a 34-10 Liberty Bowl victory over South Carolina Wednesday night.

The victory capped an 8-3-1 season for Indiana, of the Big Ten, and snapped the Hoosiers' two-game postseason losing streak. South Carolina, an independent, ended the year 8-4. The Gamecocks never have won a bowl game, dropping to 0-8 with the loss.

Collin Mackie had kicked a 43-yard field goal for South Carolina, making it 20-10. But Schnell then put the game away on the first play of the fourth quarter.

He spotted Turner behind the secondary and Turner pulled in the pass at the Gamecocks' 40. He never was touched on the longest scoring pass in Liberty Bowl history.

Indiana established its dominance on its first play from scrimmage as Anthony Thompson ignited an eight-play, 88-yard scoring drive with a 48-yard run to the Gamecocks' 40-yard line. Seven plays later, Thompson, who gained 63 yards on five carries during the drive and 140 yards in the game, scored from the 7.

Pete Stoyanovich added the extra point for a 7-0 lead with 9:23 to play in the first quarter.

Cornerback Erick Coleman set up the Hoosiers' next drive when he intercepted Todd Ellis at the Indiana 31 and brought the ball back to the Gamecocks' 40.

Schnell, who completed 16 of 31 passes and was named the game's most valuable player, took Indiana to the 10-yard line in four plays before connecting with Cal Miller for the Hoosiers' second touchdown.

Miller, who was slashing across the middle of the defense, took Schnell's pass at the 4 and sliced his way through two South Carolina defenders at the 1 for a 14-0 lead with 5:54 left in the half.

The Hoosiers turned another turnover into three points late in the half. Andre Hall halted a South Carolina drive at the Hoosiers' 16 with an interception with 2:23 left in the half.

Schnell and Tony Buford combined for a 46-yard pass play to the Gamecocks' 38 on first down. Thompson broke free along the left sideline on the next play, but stepped out of bounds at the 12.

The South Carolina defense then stiffened, and Stoyanovich kicked a 28-yard field goal for a 17-0 lead at the half.

South Carolina's defense put the Gamecocks back in contention in the third quarter. Antonio Walker blocked a punt by Mackey Smith and Mike Tolbert picked it up and ran 34 yards for a score.

Indiana drove 55 yards to the South Carolina 1 later in the quarter, but a mis-handled snap by Schnell and an incomplete pass forced another field goal by Stoyanovich, from 19 yards, and a 20-7 lead.

JACKSONVILLE, FLA.—South Carolina's blitzing defense backfired Thursday against seventh-ranked Louisiana State, which beat the Gamecocks 30-13 in the Gator Bowl.

LSU quarterback Tom Hodson eluded the South Carolina rush and threw three touchdown passes to wide receiver Wendell Davis, who was able to get open against the Gamecocks' one-on-one coverage. Hodson completed 20 of 32 passes for 224 yards.

Davis, LSU's all-time leading receiver, caught nine passes for 132 yards. The touchdown receptions covered 39, 12 and 26 yards.

David Browndyke booted field goals of 27, 18 and 23 yards to complete the LSU scoring.

Hodson's first two scoring passes to Davis came in the first five minutes of the game as the Tigers, who finished 10-1-1, jumped to an early 14-0 lead.

Louisiana State opened a 27-6 lead before ninth-ranked Carolina, 8-4, scored its only touchdown on a 10-yard run by Harold Green at the start of the fourth quarter.

South Carolina quarterback Todd Ellis, who broke a finger on his left hand in the second quarter, threw four interceptions and was sacked seven times for losses totaling 62 yards. Ellis completed 28 of 47 passes for 304 yards.

The Tigers took a 7-0 lead when Davis caught a sideline pass and eluded three tacklers on the 39-yard scoring play. That scoring drive was set up when Clapp sacked Ellis for a 20-yard loss, forcing the Gamecocks to punt from their own 16.

On South Carolina's next offensive series, LSU's Greg Jackson picked off an Ellis pass and returned it 48 yards to set up Hodson's second scoring pass.

Davis slipped behind South Carolina's secondary to catch a perfectly thrown ball by Hodson into the corner of the end zone as the Tigers took a 14-0 lead with 9:59 left in the opening quarter.

South Carolina took advantage of LSU's first turnover, a fumble by Davis at his own 32, to set up a 44-yard field goal by Collin Mackie.

Browndyke sandwiched field goals of 27 and 18 yards around a 39-yard field goal by Mackie in the second period as LSU took a 20-6 halftime lead.

The Tigers took a 27-6 lead when Davis pulled in Hodson's 26-yard scoring pass to climax their opening drive of the second half.

LSU's defense not only forced five South Carolina turnovers, but limited the Gamecocks' to 25 yards net rushing. Jackson picked off two Ellis passes, returning the interceptions for total of 92 yards.

Although he wasn't sacked, Hodson fumbled twice. Both fumbles were recovered by South Carolina noseguard Roy Hart.

Louisiana State has won 12 straight games over South Carolina, which last defeated the Tigers in 1930. South Carolina has suffered four of its seven bowl losses in the Gator Bowl.

1984 Gator Bowl

Oklahoma State 21, South Carolina 14

December 28, 1984
Gator Bowl Stadium
Jacksonville, Florida
82,138

JACKSONVILLE, FLA.—Tight end Barry Hanna, who had not scored all season, turned Rusty Hilger's short pass into a dramatic 25-yard touchdown with 1:04 left to play, lifting ninth-ranked Oklahoma State (10-2) to a 21-14 Gator Bowl victory over No. 7 South Carolina Friday night.

The bitter setback prevented South Carolina from winning for the first time in six bowl trips, although the Gamecocks, also 10-2, are the first team in the school's history to win more than eight games in a season.

Hanna caught Hilger's pass at the Carolina 21, evaded a would-be tackler and was hit at the 8-yard-line, but dragged three defenders into the end zone.

The winning touchdown capped an 88-yard drive in 11 plays, with Hilger completing six of eight passes for 75 yards, including a 13-yarder to Hanna on fourth-and-six from the South Carolina 49.

Oklahoma State thoroughly dominated the first half and took a 13-0 lead on Thomas' 1-yard run in the first period and his 6-yard pass to Hilger in the second quarter. But the Cowboys had to come from behind after South Carolina scored twice in the third period despite less than two minutes of possession time.

The Gamecocks, whose offense was the nation's ninth best during the regular season, were held to just 71 yards in the first two periods by Oklahoma State's eighth-ranked defense and were shut out for the first time in any half this season.

And even though they had the football for just 1:42 in the third quarter, they managed to take a 14-13 lead on halfback Quinton Lewis' 24-yard pass to Chris Wade and a 57-yard bomb from quarterback Mike Hold to Ira Hillary. The first strike covered 71 yards in four plays and 56 seconds, while the latter was a two-play, 77-yard thrust that took only 40 seconds.

The Gamecocks' only other possession in the third period ended with a fumble on the first play, one of four South Carolina turnovers.

Oklahoma State's first-half touchdowns capped methodical, time-consuming drives of 69 and 74 yards.

Thomas and Hilger produced all the yards as Oklahoma State took a 7-0 lead on its first possession. Thomas carried eight times for 40 yards, including an 18-yard burst to the 3, while Hilger completed all four pass attempts for 29 yards.

Roach missed a 47-yard field goal attempt 1 1/2 minutes later, but the Cowboys made it 13-0 at 5:21 of the second period after linebacker Ricky Adams recovered a fumble by Hold at the OSU 26.

The 15-play drive included a 20-yard back-hand shovel pass from Hilger to Thomas. On third-and-goal from the six, Hilger pitched right to Thomas, and the rookie tailback lobbed the ball back to the left to Hilger, who scored easily.

A record Gator Bowl crowd of 82,138 watched the game on a mild evening. The crowd included an estimated 40,000 South Carolina supporters.

1980 Gator Bowl

Pittsburgh 37, South Carolina 9

December 29, 1980
Gator Bowl Stadium
Jacksonville, Florida
72,287

JACKSONVILLE, FLA.—South Carolina's second trip to the prestigious Gator Bowl was not much better than the first trip — 34 years before. The Pitt Panthers, gunning for a national championship, poured it on the Gamecocks, 37-9.

The game matched two nationally-ranked teams. Pitt came in with the #4 national ranking and South Carolina was ranked 17th. In addition, two of the nation's best athletes, South Carolina's George Rogers and Pitt's Hugh Green, were showcased. Rogers, who rushed for 113 yards, had won the Heisman Trophy while Green, who recorded five tackles, was honored as the nation's finest lineman with the Outland Trophy.

An unusually cold evening with temperatures in the 40s and 15 mph winds greeted the teams and South Carolina didn't react to the adverse conditions from the word go. Rogers broke open for a nice seven-yard gain on the first play, but fumbled with the Panthers recovering on the South Carolina 29 yard line. Seven plays and four minutes later Pitt scored to take a 7-0 lead, a lead they would not relinquish.

South Carolina finally got on the scoreboard before the half on a 39-yard Eddie Leopard field goal. At the half Pittsburgh led 17-3 and led 34-3 by the end of the third quarter as turnovers and an inability to move the ball plagued the Gamecocks.

Pat Bowen picked off a pass and returned it 31 yards to the 14-yard line with 3:34 left to play in the game. Quarterback Gordon Beckham then connected with Tim Gillespie for South Carolina's lone touchdown.

1979 Hall of Fame Bowl Missouri 24, South Carolina 14

December 28, 1979

BIRMINGHAM, ALA. (AP)—It appeared that Carolina was going to break its postseason losing streak in the third annual Hall of Fame Bowl, but the Gamecocks fell short in a 24-14 loss to Missouri.

South Carolina took the opening kickoff and behind the running of George Rogers and the passing and catching of Garry Harper and Zion McKinney, scored a 20-yard touchdown pass.

Led by All-Big Eight quarterback Phil Bradley, the Tigers' responded with a 22-yard field goal.

Percey Reeves was hit and fumbled on the ensuing kickoff with the Tigers recovering on the 28. Bradley hit Newman with a scoring strike eight seconds later and USC was never to lead again.

Missouri took over again and moved the ball 30 yards to go up 17-6 before halftime. The Gamecocks cut the deficit to 17-14, but MU answered for the final points.

Bradley was named the game's MVP while Rogers was tabbed as the Offensive Player of the Game after rushing for 133 yards on 25 carries.

ORLANDO, FLA.—Despite a brilliant individual effort by Jeff Grantz, South Carolina lost to Miami (Ohio), 20-7. Grantz passed for 228 yards, hitting on 18-of-29 passes.

South Carolina took the opening kickoff and marched down the field on a well directed attack by Grantz only to miss a 26-yard field goal.

A short punt set Miami up for its initial score, coming on a five-yard run by Carpenter after a 42-yard, seven-play drive. Carpenter scored on another run just prior to the half to give Miami a 14-0 lead and they ran that to 17-0 early in the third quarter.

Grantz's passing enabled Carolina to finally get on the scoreboard late in the third quarter. He passed for 60 yards during the 13-play, 73-yard drive. The score came on a three-yard Tom Amrein dive.

Grant Field
Atlanta, Georgia

ATLANTA, GA.—South Carolina's first bowl game in 24 years was a defensive battle. West Virginia and Carolina totaled just 17 points in a 14-3 WVA win.

West Virginia scored on its first possession of the game. Following a short punt, the Mountaineers began on their own 34-yard line. They marched 66 yards in 10 plays capped by Gresham's 10-yard run to go up 7-0.

Carolina threatened to score late in the first half. Tommy Suggs passed the team down the field and had a first-and-goal at the West Virginia 10 before a fumble thwarted the drive.

But a West Virginia fumble of a punt set up a score just before the half and place kicker Bill DuPre booted through a 37-yard kick to get on the board.

Neither team scored in the third quarter. The fourth quarter saw Carolina mount one serious drive that was stalled by a pass interception. West Virginia scored once more, thanks to another pass interception, scoring with just 23 seconds left in the game.

Williams rushed for 208 yards on 35 tries to account for most of WVU's offense.

1946 Gator Bowl

Wake Forest 26, South Carolina 14

January 1, 1946

JACKSONVILLE, FLA.—Despite a record-breaking 90-yard pass interception return for a touchdown, the South Carolina Gamecocks fell to old nemesis Wake Forest, 26-14 in the inaugural Gator Bowl.

This was the first bowl outing for the Gamecocks and the first and last season for coach Johnnie McMillan. He was filling in for coach Rex Enright who was completing his military obligation. Enright had a lot to do with the Gamecocks receiving the bid as he was stationed in the Jacksonville area.

The game was a rematch of sorts since weeks before Carolina and Wake Forest had played to a 13-13 deadlock. But playing in 55 degree weather before a near capacity crowd did not serve well.

Wake Forest jumped off to an early 6-0 first-quarter lead on a three-yard run by Nick Sacrinty. But the Gamecocks used the one-yard burst by Bobby Giles and a Dutch Brembs extra point to grab a 7-6 half time lead.

Wake Forest regained the lead with a Dick Brinkley run and the kick was blocked to lead, 12-7. Brinkley scored another touchdown early in the fourth quarter and added a 25-yard Bob Smathers run to blow to a 26-7 lead.

The only joy left for South Carolina in its first bowl appearance was the record-setting return by Brembs.

The University of South Carolina is home to more than 200 years of history and tradition, rising from a single building in 1805 on what would become the heart of the campus, the Horseshoe.

Today, the 11 buildings that make up the Horseshoe frame a lush lawn that is an irresistible gathering place for students, faculty, staff and alumni and the scene of many important university events.

And while the Horseshoe will always be the symbol of Carolina's proud tradition, the University's presence and reach stretch across the Palmetto State, with baccalaureate universities in Aiken, Spartanburg (Upstate) and the sea islands (Beaufort and the gateway to Hilton Head), and two-year regional campuses in Allendale and Walterboro (Salkehatchie), Sumter, Lancaster and Union. Together, they are building economic prosperity; fulfilling the University's mission of teaching, research and service to the state, and preparing future leaders in business, law, education, the arts, tourism, communications, medicine and the health sciences.

- ◆ The University of South Carolina's Columbia campus has 324 degree programs through its 14 degree-granting colleges and schools.
- ◆ The South Carolina Honors College is ranked the No. 1 public university honors college in the nation based on honors college factors by the guidebook, "A Review of Fifty Public University Honors Programs."
- ◆ The Moore School of Business undergraduate international business program was ranked No. 1 by U.S. News & World Report for the 16th consecutive year.
- ◆ USC launched a new online degree completion program called Palmetto College in 2013. Palmetto College brings together the resources of the entire University of South Carolina system to combine the quality of a USC degree with the flexibility of online learning.
- ◆ Students at the University of South Carolina have earned 594 national fellowships and scholarships valued at $16.7 million since 1994. In 2012 alone, 56 students earned more than $1.4 million for academic study.
- ◆ University of South Carolina faculty generated $238.3 million in funding for research, training and outreach programs in fiscal year 2012, a 5 percent increase from the previous year.

UNIVERSITY HISTORY

In 2001, the University celebrated the bicentennial of its charter, but 2005 also marked a watershed anniversary: 200 years since the first classes began at South Carolina College, as it was then known. Carolina has endured the Civil War and Reconstruction, closings, and name changes. Permanently chartered in 1906 as the University of South Carolina, it grew throughout the 20th century and today is building its reputation as a cutting-edge research institution.

- ◆ USC is ranked in the top 5 percent of U.S. public universities in the number of national awards its faculty have received.
- ◆ When completed in late 2013, the Darla Moore School of Business building will become the front door of Innovista, the University's research district, and a hub for creativity, research and entrepreneurial activity. The school is pursuing a net zero status and LEED Platinum rating for its cutting-edge new home.
- ◆ The USC School of Medicine pioneered the nation's first medical school curriculum that teaches first- through fourth-year students how to use leading ultrasound technologies for bedside diagnosis.
- ◆ Twelve USC students received Fulbright grants in 2012 for research, study or teaching abroad, and the Chronicle of Higher Education named USC a "Top Producer of U.S. Fulbright Students." Another six students were awarded National Science Foundation Graduate Research Fellowships.
- ◆ The International House at Maxcy College opened in fall 2012, bringing USC's American and international students together to experience and share each others' cultures.
- ◆ USC was recognized in 2013 by both Kiplinger's "Best Values in Public Colleges" and Princeton Review's "Best Value Colleges for 2013 — Public."
- ◆ USC is one of only 40 public universities to receive the Carnegie Foundation's top-tier research designation and community engagement designation and is the only university in South Carolina with the Carnegie top-tier designation for "very high research activity."

Dr. Harris Pastides, University President

Harris Pastides was named the University of South Carolina's 28th president on Aug. 1, 2008, after a decade of service as a professor, dean, and vice president. He was the first internal candidate to be elected President of the University of South Carolina in more than half a century. He has stressed leadership and civil discourse as primary values of the university and believes that athletic and academic success go hand-in-hand in preparing student-athletes to be successful on the court, the playing field and in the classroom.

With Focus Carolina, one of his first major initiatives as University president, Pastides has launched the most comprehensive strategic planning initiative in the University's history. The effort is expected to result in transformational goals that will steer a course for the University's long-term future.

Among the major goals Pastides has identified are:

- * Sustainability
- * Innovation
- * The university's role in the development of a knowledge economy
- * More access to education for South Carolinians
- * Stronger cohesion among the university's eight campuses

To accomplish these goals, he has solicited ideas from the University community and all South Carolina citizens through Carolina's Ideas, a Web-based suggestion box that is yielding a bounty of good counsel.

Before joining the South Carolina faculty, Pastides was a professor of epidemiology and chairman of the Department of Biostatistics and Epidemiology at the University of Massachusetts at Amherst. He received his master's of public health and his Ph.D. in epidemiology from Yale University.

In 2011, Pastides was named to the NCAA Board of Directors Executive Committee to represent the Southeastern Conference for a four-year term. The Executive Committee ensures that each division operates consistently with the basic purposes, fundamental policies and general principles of the Association.

Harris Pastides and Patricia Moore were married April 27, 1980. They have two children: Katharine, an education specialist at the Getty Villa in Malibu, Calif.; and Andrew, an equity stage actor in New York City.

Dr. Zach Kelehear, Faculty Athletics Representative

Zach Kelehear assumed the duties as the University of South Carolina's Faculty Athletics Representative on July 1, 2010. Kelehear is the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and a professor in the Department of Educational Leadership and Policies. In his capacity as Associate Dean he is primarily responsible for all matters related to undergraduate and graduate studies. As a professor of educational leadership he has written multiple articles and books on the ideas of artful leadership practice in public schools and business. While at USC, Dr. Kelehear has also served on the Faculty Senate, on the University Athletics Advisory Committee, on the Graduate Council as Chair, as well as several other committees.

Kelehear provides leadership for multiple national and international professional organizations such as the American Educational Research Association and the Council of Professors of Instructional Leadership. Along with his peer reviewed publications, Kelehear has published in the Journal of Staff Development, American School Board Journal, The School Administrator, Principal Leadership and The Principal. He also serves as editor and/or reviewer for multiple journals and publications.

Over the past 30 years, Kelehear has been a college professor, a personnel director, staff development director, and a teacher and coach in high school and middle school. He also was a college athlete at Furman University where he played football while completing a double major in Latin and history in 1981. He later earned his master's in education from Furman in 1982, then earned his doctorate from N.C. State in 1993.

Dr. Kelehear is married to Dr. Karen Heid, an associate professor of art education in the Department of Art at the University of South Carolina.

Gaps in the presidential timeline indicate periods when the University was closed or under interim leadership or when its chief executive was known by a different title.

University of South Carolina president Dr. Harris Pastides announced July 13, 2012, that longtime Gamecock baseball coach Ray Tanner had been selected as the university's new director of athletics. Tanner began his new duties August 2.

"Sometimes you can search the world over for the perfect candidate and at times you know you have the right leader within your organization," said Dr. Pastides. "For USC, we knew we had the right person on our team already. Ray exemplifies all the qualities I am seeking in an Athletics Director: integrity, a winning attitude, a confident leader and manager and an individual who puts the well-being of our student-athletes above and beyond all other things."

In his first season as AD, Tanner experienced a wealth of success. The football team turned in its highest national ranking in school history, while women's basketball, men's and women's golf, men's and women's tennis, women's indoor and outdoor track & field, men's outdoor track & field, equestrian, men's and women's swimming and diving, softball and baseball all reached the NCAA postseason.

A dedicated community leader whose charitable organization has made a difference in many South Carolina families, a three-time National Coach of the Year and Southeastern Conference Coach of the Year, Tanner completed 16 years as head coach at the University of South Carolina, establishing one of the premier programs in college baseball prior to being named AD. He led the Garnet & Black to two NCAA Division I Baseball Championships, a pair of national runner-up finishes, six College World Series appearances, three SEC championships, six SEC Eastern division titles, a SEC tournament crown and 13 consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances.

Under the direction of Tanner, South Carolina's postseason success from 2010-2012 is arguably the greatest run in collegiate baseball history. In the three-year span, the Gamecocks established NCAA records with 22 consecutive postseason wins and 12 consecutive wins in the College World Series. The Gamecocks won the NCAA Division I Baseball Championship in 2010 and 2011 with a national runner-up finish in 2012. South Carolina's 30-4 (.882) record over the past three seasons in the NCAA Tournament is the fifth best three-year postseason record in NCAA history.

In addition, the 2012 CWS trip marked the sixth time in 11 years that South Carolina had reached Omaha. No Division I baseball team has made more appearances than the Gamecocks over the last 11 seasons.

Tanner and the Gamecocks have created one of the top environments in college baseball at Carolina Stadium. After a successful run at Sarge Frye Field through 2008, the Gamecocks made the move to the new $36 million Carolina Stadium where college baseball has continued to grow. South Carolina's total attendance of 295,389 in the 2012 season was second highest in the nation. The average attendance of 7,574 also was a Carolina Stadium record, besting the previous mark of 7,431 in the 2011 season. The Gamecocks also set a record for sellouts in 2012 with 15 games at a capacity of 8,242 fans. In addition, South Carolina set a record for season tickets sold with a total of 5,580 sold in the preseason before the 2012 campaign.

Under Tanner's leadership, South Carolina owns the longest current streak of NCAA Regional appearances among the 14 SEC schools with 13 straight trips to the tournament dating back to the 2000 season. In that span, Carolina has 10 NCAA Super Regional appearances (2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2006, 2007, 2010, 2011, 2012). South Carolina is one of only two schools in the nation to make at least 10 NCAA Super Regionals in the last 13 years and one of only six schools in the country to have reached the NCAA Regionals every season from 2000 to the present.

For all of his accolades, Tanner's uniform No. 1 was retired and the street outside Carolina Stadium was renamed in his honor. He was also inducted into the South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame in May 2013.

The 2012 season was Tanner's 25th year as a collegiate head coach. He posted a 738-316 record at South Carolina with a .700 winning percentage, second highest all-time among SEC coaches. His career record was 1,133-489-3 for a winning percentage of .699. His final 12 teams featured 23 All-Americans.

Tanner gained valuable experience at an international level in his association with USA Baseball. He has served five stints with Red, White and Blue, including in 2003 as head coach for the USA National Baseball Team. At the helm of some of the top freshmen and sophomores in the country, Tanner's club finished with a 27-2 record, the best record for a U.S. National Team (.931 winning percentage) and won a silver medal at the 2003 Pan American Games. He was named the U.S. National Coach of the Year for his work that season. Prior to his head coaching stint, Tanner served as an auxiliary coach under Tommy Lasorda for the 2000 Olympic Team that won a gold medal at the XXVII Olympiad in Sydney, Australia. He was also an assistant under former LSU coach Skip Bertman with the 1995 and 1996 USA teams that culminated in a bronze medal win at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta, Ga. Tanner also served alongside current Mississippi State coach Ron Polk on Bertman's staff. Tanner's first stint with USA Baseball came as an assistant coach to the national team in the summer of 1993.

Tanner was named the South Carolina head coach June 14, 1996, after nine successful seasons at North Carolina State. At NC State, Tanner led his alma mater to seven appearances in the NCAA postseason tournament and ranked second for most wins in school history. He was the 1990 Atlantic Coast Conference Coach of the Year and in 1993 was named Atlantic Region Coach of the Year when his team won 49 games.

Tanner was affiliated with the Wolfpack baseball program for more than 20 years. He came to the Raleigh campus in the fall of 1976 as a player following an outstanding career at South Johnston High School in Four Oaks, N.C. A four-year starter at shortstop and third base, he earned All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors his senior season and still ranks among the Wolfpack's all-time leaders in several categories.

Following his playing career, Tanner served as an assistant for NC State coach Sam Esposito, overseeing recruiting efforts and coaching third base. During his tenure as an assistant, the Wolfpack reached the NCAA Tournament twice. He had additional duties as assistant to the athletics director and as assistant athletics director in charge of game operations.

After Esposito's retirement, Tanner was named head coach at the age of 28 by the legendary late Jim Valvano, becoming one of the youngest head baseball coaches in the nation.

Tanner has a bachelor of science degree in recreational administration from NC State (1980) and a master's of public affairs, public administration (1983).

Born Donald Ray Tanner, Jr., March 25, 1958, in Smithfield, N.C., Tanner grew up in Benson, N.C. He is married to the former Karen Donald, a native of Charleston, S.C. A University of South Carolina graduate, she was formerly head women's athletic trainer at NC State. During the summer of 1997 she served as trainer for the Charlotte Sting in the Women's National Basketball Association (WNBA). She is the former director of athletics and director of sports medicine at Columbia College.

They have two daughters, Bridgette Grace ("Gracie") and Margaret Pearl ("Maggie") and one son, Joseph Luke ("Luke").

The Gamecock Club, established in 1940, provides financial support to the more than 500 student-athletes representing the University of South Carolina. This aid is in the form of tuition fees, meal costs, housing costs, medical costs, injury assistance, and other educational needs. Gamecock Club membership is open to all alumni and friends of the University.

More than 15,000 South Carolina fans donate to the athletics department through annual Gamecock Club memberships. There are currently 47 local chapters throughout South Carolina and an additional 16 out-of-state chapters that span from Houston to New York.

The Gamecock Club is located at 1304 Heyward Street in Columbia in the Rice Athletics Center and can also be found online at www.GamecocksOnline.com/GamecockClub or reached by phone at 803.777.4276.

IT'S THE GARNET WAY

South Carolina Athletics' mission centers on developing championship-caliber programs in the Southeastern Conference and nationally.

There are four components needed to create a championship program: a prominent university committed to its athletics program, a vibrant community that can be proudly presented to recruits, excellent coaches, and outstanding facilities. South Carolina is a distinguished university with an energized and supportive community in Columbia and throughout the state. The Gamecock coaching staff blends hall-of-fame experience and exciting new perspectives that, together with a seasoned athletics staff, give South Carolina Athletics a competitive advantage in the recruiting battle. It is time to focus on providing outstanding facilities for Gamecock student-athletes and fans.

The Garnet Way Capital Campaign serves as a road map for transforming Gamecock Athletics. The goal of this campaign is to generate $200 million through donations by July 2015. Funds will be used to improve athletics facilities. When this goal is attained, Gamecock supporters will be able to take pride in the fact they have dramatically impacted South Carolina Athletics and the Gamecocks' ability to compete on a national stage.

NICKNAME: THE FIGHTING GAMECOCKS

The University of South Carolina is the only major college athletic program in the country that uses "Fighting Gamecocks" as its official nickname and mascot. The University's athletic teams have been known as Gamecocks for almost 100 years.

At the turn of the 20th century, after struggling for more than decade under numerous nicknames, the school's football team was the impetus of the new moniker. In 1903, Columbia's morning newspaper, The State, shortened the name to one word and South Carolina teams have been Gamecocks ever since.

Those early teams must have been a feisty and spirited group. A gamecock, of course, is a fighting rooster known for its spirit and courage. A cock fight, which was a popular sport throughout the United States in the 19th century, would last until the death of one of the combatants. Cock fighting has been outlawed by most states for humanitarian reasons, but it is still held surreptitiously in many areas.

The State of South Carolina has long been closely connected with the breeding and training of fighting gamecocks. General Thomas Sumter, famed guerrilla fighter of the Revolutionary War, was known as "The Fighting Gamecock."

SCHOOL COLORS

Garnet and Black were adopted near the turn of the century as the official colors of the University of South Carolina athletic teams. The colors are the dominant ones on the gamecock, which is the University's official mascot for its athletic teams.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA MASCOT

The Gamecock mascot, "Cocky," is a familiar sight at a variety of South Carolina athletic events. He appears at all home and road football and basketball games, and at home baseball games. In addition he can be found frequenting other Olympic sports events on the USC campus.

Cocky was chosen National Mascot of the Year in 1986, 1994, and again in 2004 and is recognized as one of the most colorful mascots in collegiate athletics.

In 1981, and 1982, the Gamecocks participated in the College Baseball World Series and "Cocky" was selected both years as the official mascot of the CWS.

"2001"

The University of South Carolina Gamecocks feature perhaps the most unique and electrifying pregame entry in all of college football. In fact, The Sporting News rated USC's "2001" as the most exciting pregame entry in all of college football. As the minutes wind down on the game clock prior to the opening kickoff, the Gamecocks leave the locker room following final pregame instruction from their coaching staff and assemble in the tunnel in the southwest corner of Williams-Brice Stadium. Then, as the crowd of more than 82,000 begins its roar of anticipation, the first notes of the them song from "2001-A Space Odyssey" blare over the stadium sound system. As the music continues, the enthusiasm of the crowd is feverish. Finally, at just the exact moment, in perfect coordination with the music, the Gamecocks hit the field running, and the stadium goes wild.

GAMECOCK WALK

Approximately two hours and 20 minutes prior to every home game, the South Carolina team buses drop the players off on the Garnet Way in The Commons at Williams-Brice. The team walks on the Garnet Way, crosses Bluff Road and the stadium tarmac and heads to the locker room, located in the southwest corner of Williams-Brice Stadium. The team walks through the throng of Gamecock fans and well-wishers as they make their way to the locker room to prepare for the game ahead.

THE COCKABOOSE RAILROAD

What is perhaps the most unique form of tailgating and featured throughout the years in numerous magazines and television shows, the Cockaboose railroad has made its way to Columbia and University of South Carolina football. Twenty-two cabooses line a railroad track just outside of Williams-Brice Stadium - but these rail cars don't move and they certainly aren't something you would see passing by on the rear end of a train.

Several years ago, a local businessman and his wife finally had enough of the railroad tracks which sit just a stone's throw from the south side of the stadium. The next season, in 1990, the beautifully-designed Cockaboose Railroad began catering to the serious Gamecock tailgater with amenities never before associated with in tailgating: running water, cable television, air conditioning, and heating, and a living room highlight each and every Cockaboose.

The Carolina Cockabooses are stationary and many are wired with closed-circuit television to watch Gamecock away games if making the trip is not feasible.

"The Cockaboose Railroad" - it's different, it's unique, and it's exciting; and there's nothing else like it in the nation.

ALMA MATER: "We Hail Thee Carolina"

We hail thee, Carolina, and sing thy high praise; With loyal devotion, remembering the days; When proudly we sought thee, thy children to be: Here's a health, Carolina, forever to thee!

Since pilgrims of learning, we entered thy walls; And found dearest comrades in thy classic halls; We've honored and loved thee as sons faithfully: Here's a health, Carolina, forever to thee!

Generations of sons have rejoiced to proclaim; Thy watchword of service, thy beauty and fame; For ages to come shall their rallying cry be: Here's a health, Carolina, forever to thee!

Fair shrine of high honor and truth, thou shalt still; Blaze forth as a beacon, thy mission fulfill; And crowned by all hearts in a new jubilee: Here's a health, Carolina, forever to thee!

FIGHT SONG: "The Fighting Gamecocks Lead the Way"

Hey, Let's give a cheer, Carolina is here, The Fighting Gamecocks lead the way.

Who gives a care, If the going gets tough, And when it is rough, that's when the 'Cocks get going.

Hail to our colors of garnet and black, In Carolina pride have we.

So, Go Gamecocks Go - FIGHT! Drive for the goal - FIGHT!
USC will win today - GO COCKS! So, let's give a cheer, Carolina is here.
The Fighting Gamecocks All The Way!

The Dodie Anderson Academic Enrichment Center, located at 1302 Heyward Street, is "the heart of the athletics department and the place where the ebb and flow of student-athletes' days are centered."

The three-story, 40,000-square-foot, $13 million state-of-the-art facility, opened in the spring of 2010, strives to synthesize the traditional architectural values associated with the University of South Carolina and the dynamic movement of athleticism. The building appeals to student-athletes and also the recruits evaluating the role South Carolina may play in their development as a student-athlete. The building's primary purpose is to foster a sense of community among student-athletes as well as promote excellence in academics.

"The Dodie" is named for Dolores F. Anderson of Greer, S.C., whose philanthropic gift helped fund the center for University of South Carolina student-athletes. Anderson is the widow of Robert Anderson, the former president and chairman of Anderson Hardwood Floors, the largest privately-owned hardwood floor manufacturer in the United States. A 1981 graduate of USC Upstate with a degree in interdisciplinary studies, Dodie Anderson is co-owner of Anderson Hardwood Floors and a longtime supporter of USC Upstate's athletic programs.

The Dodie is the focal point and the first piece in the re-developed 41-acre footprint known as the Athletics Village. The area also includes the Rice Athletics Center, a new tennis complex, softball stadium, and parking garage and updated soccer practice fields.

Student-athletes are in and out of the Dodie throughout the day as they use computers and study areas, receive tutoring, counseling and advising and even eat their meals.

"The Dodie" Features:

- ❖ Full-service cafeteria
- ❖ Dietitian's office
- ❖ Audio/visual multi-purpose room
- ❖ 20 tutoring rooms (accommodates 2-4)
- ❖ 15 seminar rooms (accommodates 6-8)
- ❖ Math and English labs
- ❖ Special needs learning lab
- ❖ One large quiet study room
- ❖ One small quiet study room
- ❖ One computer lab containing 58 computers
- ❖ Two computer labs containing 16 computers
- ❖ Student-athlete lounge
- ❖ Academic support staff offices
- ❖ Wireless capabilities throughout the facility
- ❖ Academic Hall of Fame

❖ The South Carolina football team posted its highest combined grade point average on record in consecutive semesters, first logging a 2.781 mark during the Spring 2012 semester, then exceeding that with a 2.918 team GPA in Fall 2012. The football team has registered a team GPA above 2.70 for six consecutive semesters, including a 2.724 in Spring 2013.

❖ For the seventh-consecutive year, the University of South Carolina led the way with 74 student-athletes on the SEC Fall Academic Honor Roll in 2012. Twenty-nine of those on the list from South Carolina were football players.

❖ The football program posted a 2011-12 single year APR (Academic Progress Rate) score of 960 and a multi-year APR of 966, matching 2010-11 for the top multi-year score on record.

❖ Connor Shaw was honored at halftime of the 2013 Garnet and Black Spring Game as the Harris Pastides Student-Athlete Award winner for Football.

❖ Damiere Byrd and T.J. Holloman were also honored at halftime of the 2013 spring game as recipients of the Harold White GPA Award for offense and defense, respectively.

❖ During the 2012-13 academic year, the football program graduated 18 student-athletes, bring the number of football graduates over the last three years to 69 student-athletes.

CAROLINA FOOTBALL

The Dodie Anderson Academic Enrichment Center employs a team of dedicated staff, mentors and tutors who work to assist student-athletes with day-to-day academic support. Their mission is to help all student-athletes realize their personal, academic and athletic potentials. The Athletics Department is dedicated to developing the total student-athlete.

GAMECOCK GALA: At the end of each school year, all Gamecock student-athletes attend the Gamecock Gala, where outstanding individual performers throughout Carolina's 21 intercollegiate sports are recognized in front of their peers and special guests.

ETIQUETTE SEMINAR: "MANNERS MATTER"

The Etiquette Dinner Seminar is presented to educate student-athletes on proper table manners and etiquette appropriate for business and other formal situations. This seminar will also prepare student-athletes for upcoming internships and job-hunting scenarios where interviewing may take place over a meal. It is an interactive dinner where they receive instruction during the course of a meal.

GAMECOCK ATHLETICS CAREER NETWORK

It is essential for student-athletes to plan for the future and to prepare for life outside of college athletics. A component of the Life Skills Program, the Gamecock Athletics Career Network has resources available for identifying practicum and internship experiences to enhance the career development process. Other programs include mentoring, assistance with resume development and job interviewing skills, student-athlete networking seminar and strong collaboration with the University Career Center.

Five Gamecock football players were awarded their undergraduate degrees in December 2012.

DRESS FOR SUCCESS

In the spring of each year, the Athletics Department invites local business partners to assist the department in training student-athletes in the skills needed to appropriately present themselves in all professional settings. This seminar has a separate male and female presentation and covers all current trends of what is acceptable proper business attire.

Preparing the Student-Athlete

THE STUDENT-ATHLETE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

South Carolina has a Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC), which is made up of two student-athlete representatives from each team within the Athletics Department. SAAC represents the voice of all student-athletes to the administration about issues that affect them. They also have been active in promoting department-wide community service projects and facilitating student-athlete camaraderie.

Jadeveon Clowney was presented the Male Athlete of the Year Award by Athletics Director Ray Tanner at the 2013 Gamecock Gala.

SENIOR RING CEREMONY

At the end of each semester, the Athletics Department presents each of its graduating seniors with a South Carolina class ring. At the ceremony, individual recognition is provided to each graduate by their Academic Advisor and their ring is presented by their head coach.

MEDIA TRAINING

Through the Life Skills program and the Media Relations Department, Carolina student-athletes participate in media training sessions that are designed to make them more comfortable in dealing with members of the media. The sessions include tips on dealing with the media and give student-athletes the opportunity to practice interviewing and speaking publicly.

ORIENTATION/CONSEQUENCES FOR YOUR ACTIONS

Provided to all student-athletes, the objective of Orientation is to educate them on the expectations placed upon them as Gamecocks. They also receive information on the academic resources available in the Academic Enrichment Center and campus-wide. Additionally, the student-athletes are presented with information focused on the topic, "Consequences For Your Actions," where the objective is to encourage responsibility and mature behavior among the student-athletes and to teach them there are consequences for the decisions they make.

TEAM GAMECOCKS

"Team Gamecocks" are student-athletes who volunteer their time and effort to the local community in a variety of different ways. Each year, student-athletes engage in community service activities including reading to elementary school children, collecting food for the Harvest Hope Food Bank, visiting both hospitalized veterans and children, and interacting with kids in after-school programs. There are ongoing opportunities for Team Gamecocks as well as scheduled events. Student-athletes can select service opportunities in which they are most interested.

The Gamecocks annually take part in the "Pigskin Poets" reading program.

CAROLINA FOOTBALL

Williams-Brice Stadium, formerly Carolina Stadium, was first constructed in 1934 by the Works Progress Administration (WPA). Then, it seated 17,600 Gamecock fans. It has undergone a number of expansions and revisions over the years, with the largest prior to the 1982 expansion coming in 1971-1972. A bequest from the estate of Mrs. Martha Williams-Brice helped boost the capacity then from slightly more than 43,000 to greater than 54,000.

Mrs. Williams-Brice's husband, Thomas H. Brice, was a Gamecock football letterman from 1922-24, and her family operated the Williams Furniture Company in Sumter. She left a substantial inheritance from the furniture fortune to her nephews, Thomas W. and Philip L. Edwards, much of which they passed on to the University of South Carolina. That included a bequest for the stadium project.

The name was officially changed from Carolina Stadium to Williams-Brice Stadium in dedication ceremonies during the Sept. 9, 1972 opener with Virginia.

Added in 2012 was a $6.5 million state-of-the-art videoboard that sits above the north stands. It measures 36' x 124'.

Williams-Brice Stadium Facts

- ❖ First game as Carolina Stadium: Oct. 6, 1934 (South Carolina 22, VMI 6)
- ❖ Dedicated as Williams-Brice Stadium: Sept. 9, 1972 (Virginia 24, South Carolina 16)
- ❖ Capacity: 80,250
- ❖ Stadium Record: 265-179-14 (.594)
- ❖ When the Gamecocks take the field on gameday, Williams-Brice Stadium is packed with 80,000+ screaming Gamecock fans, making it more populated than all but three cities in the state of South Carolina.
- ❖ Williams-Brice is recognized as one of the finest facilities in all of college football. Carolina annually ranks among the nation's leaders in attendance, and Gamecock fans are regarded as some of the most loyal in the country.
- ❖ South Carolina established a school record for football season tickets sold in 2005, selling 62,604 season tickets, surpassing the previous mark of 62,103 set in 2002. The numbers do not include student tickets and tickets contractually obligated to visiting teams.

Gamecock Sports Marketing, a partnership between the University of South Carolina Athletics Department and the country's leaders in the collegiate sports marketing industry, IMG College, is the originating medium for radio coverage of the South Carolina Gamecocks.

This begins the sixth year of a nine-year, $50 million contract between the University and IMG College that runs through 2017. 2013 also marks the first year of a four-year extension with Cumulus Media for WNKI-FM (107.5 The Game) to continue as the official flagship station of Gamecock Athletics through 2017.

Gamecock Sports Marketing is responsible for the overall management of the athletics program's corporate partnership effort, which includes producing, selling and distributing the Gamecock Radio Network (live play-by-play and call-in shows) and television programming (pay per view opportunities and coaches shows), print advertising in various athletics department publications, and selected signage in university athletic facilities.

The Gamecock Sports Network from IMG College counts two dozen affiliate stations for the 2013-14 season. For Sirius/XM subscribers, follow the Gamecock Radio Twitter page for weekly updates on channel information for Gamecock broadcasts.

Todd Ellis, the all-time leading passer in Gamecock history and the school's winningest quarterback, begins his 22nd season with the network and his 11th as the play-by-play voice of Carolina football. Ellis previously served as sideline reporter for the radio network and as a color analyst and play-by-play announcer for Comcast Sports Southeast for Gamecock telecasts. Ellis has also hosted the coaches television show and served on CBS's bowl game radio coverage. He hosts the Steve Spurrier Television Show and Carolina Calls with Steve Spurrier, the Head Ball Coach's weekly radio call-in show. Ellis set more than 20 school passing marks during his career (1986-89) while throwing for 9,953 yards.

Tommy Suggs, a former standout Gamecock quarterback, is back for his 40th year as color analyst for the radio network. Suggs played for Carolina from 1968-70 and is regarded as one of the school's all-time premier signal-callers. He led the Gamecocks to the 1969 ACC championship and Peach Bowl berth and was named MVP of the 1970 Blue-Gray All-Star Classic. Suggs was inducted into the University's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1989 and is also a member of the state of South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame. In 2012, friends and colleagues of Tommy and Jane Suggs established the Tommy Suggs Endowed Quarterback Scholarship to honor his long-time commitment to the University and Gamecock Athletics. The scholarship will be awarded to a quarterback each year and is the first endowed scholarship for the football program.

Former Gamecock and NFL lineman Langston Moore returns for his second season to handle the sideline duties for the game broadcasts.

Liz McMillan serves as the General Manager of Gamecock Sports Properties in Columbia. Brent Johnson serves as the Network Host. Carroll Senn is the broadcast engineer, David Spence is the spotter and Doug Adams is the statistician. Rachel Senn assists with production.

The Steve Spurrier Television Show can be seen regionally and nationally on Sports South. Check your listings for the times of the broadcasts.

The South Carolina Radio Crew:

The weekly Carolina Calls show will air Thursdays from 7-8 p.m. on the flagship station of the Gamecocks, WNKI-FM, and over the Internet at GamecocksOnline.com. The show takes place at Wild Wing Café, located at 729 Lady Street in the Vista.

SEC NETWORK TO LAUNCH IN 2014

The Southeastern Conference and ESPN have signed a 20-year agreement through 2034 to create and operate a multiplatform network, which will launch in August 2014. The new network and its accompanying digital platform will air SEC content 24/7 including more than 1,000 events in its first year.

The network will televise approximately 45 SEC football games, more than 100 men's basketball games, 60 women's basketball games, 75 baseball games, and events from across the SEC's 21 sports annually. Programming will also include studio shows, original content such as SEC Storied, spring football games, signing day and pro days coverage. Hundreds of additional live events from various sports will be offered exclusively on the digital platform. The network and its digital extensions will connect with each SEC institution and create opportunities for each school to produce and develop content.

Each weekend throughout the season, the new network will air multiple top-tier matchups from the strongest conference in college football. Since 2006, the SEC has claimed seven consecutive football national championships. In 2011-12, SEC teams won eight national championships: football (Alabama), men's basketball (Kentucky), gymnastics (Alabama), men's indoor track and field (Florida), women's tennis (Florida), women's golf (Alabama), men's outdoor track and field (Florida), and softball (Alabama). Since 1990, the SEC has won 149 national team championships for an average of more than six per year.

As part of the agreement, ESPN will now oversee the SEC's official Corporate Sponsor Program. In addition, ESPN and the SEC also agreed to extend their existing media rights agreement through 2034. ESPN has televised the SEC since 1982. ESPN's existing networks present more than 1,600 hours of SEC action each year. The new network will focus exclusively on the SEC and add another outlet to deliver sports fans more SEC content than ever.

GAMECOCK TELEVISION HISTORY

South Carolina football has appeared on television many times, dating back to a local telecast of a game against Marquette University in Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 5, 1949. The first Gamecock home game to be televised was against the University of North Carolina in Carolina (now Williams-Brice) Stadium, Nov. 7, 1953.

That first home telecast was the first program aired by WIS-TV (Channel 10) when the Columbia NBC affiliate went on the air. The NBC network originally planned a "panorama" of four games nationwide on that date, showing one quarter of each game. When plans for that production did not materialize, NBC agreed to honor a commitment to WIS-TV, which had scheduled the football telecast as its inaugural program.

NBC sent a remote unit from Washington, D.C., and play-by-play was handled by WIS-TV Sports Director Ray Stanfield. South Carolina beat North Carolina 18-0 in the game, which was sponsored by General Motors. The teams split the $50,000 rights fee for the one station network broadcast.

General

The University of South Carolina understands the importance of assisting the media in providing coverage of the institution, its athletics programs, administrators, coaches and student-athletes. To this end, the best attempt will be made to fill reasonable requests by recognized media outlets. Members of the media are encouraged to work with the South Carolina Athletics Media Relations staff to assist in that endeavor. It is not permissible for media members to contact any athletics department administrator, associate, coach or student-athlete directly without working through the media relations department.

Preseason Media/Photo Day

The University of South Carolina's annual Football Media Day is set for Sunday, Aug. 4. Photos are tentatively scheduled to be taken on the field beginning at 1 p.m. No interviews will be allowed on the field. Head Coach Steve Spurrier will hold a press conference beginning at approximately 1:40 p.m. in the Media Interview Room, located under the west stands at Williams-Brice Stadium. Requested student-athletes and assistant coaches will be available on the second floor of the Crews Building following Coach Spurrier's press conference.

Press Credentials

Working press credentials for the 2013 South Carolina home football games must be requested online through www.sportssystem.com/clients/seccredentials. Credential requests must come from the sports editors and the sports directors only.

It is not always possible to accommodate all requests. No one under 18 years of age will be issued a credential without prior approval.

Any questions or concerns can be directed to Assistant Media Relations Director Diana Koval at 803-777-7977 or by email at dkoval@mailbox.sc.edu. Requests for season passes should be submitted no later than August 12. Requests for single games should be made as far in advance as possible and no later than seven (7) days prior to game day. Once approved, all credentials must be picked up on game day at Media Will Call, located at Gate 5 on the west side of the stadium by the press elevators. Media Will Call will open three (3) hours prior to kick-off. A photo ID must be presented to receive the press credential. Parking passes will be mailed in advance through arrangements made with Diana Koval.

Note: Credentials will be considered only for those media members on specific assignment for a specific media outlet that meets the criteria below.

PRESS BOX PASSES

DAILY NEWSPAPERS will be issued a maximum of four (4) season approved press box credentials.

WEBSITES with a national affiliation will be issued a maximum of two (2) season approved press credentials.

TELEVISION stations will be issued a maximum of two (2) season approved press box credentials.

RADIO stations will be granted one (1) season approved credential per daily radio show. In addition, one (1) credential will be distributed per station for the sports director.

All other credential requests, including non-daily newspapers, magazines, out-of-market radio stations, etc. will be considered on a game-by-game, case-by-case and space available basis at the discretion of Steve Fink, Assistant AD/Media Relations.

Non-affiliated bloggers will not be credentialed.

FIELD PASSES

DAILY NEWSPAPERS and WEBSITES with national affiliations will be issued a maximum of three (3) season field passes to be used for photography.

TELEVISION stations will receive a maximum of two (2) field passes.

All other credential requests, including non-daily newspapers, magazines, etc., will be considered on a game-by-game, case-by-case and space available basis.

Only working photographers/videographers with professional-grade cameras will be allowed on the field.

Freelance photographers will not be credentialed.

Photographers/Sideline Policy

The University of South Carolina adheres to the NCAA and SEC guidelines regarding media representatives on the sidelines.

1. Photo credentials will be issued only to accredited media outlets prior to the game and photo identification must be provided.

2. Photographers must check in at Media Will Call on the west side of the stadium adjacent to the press elevator. Those photographers who will work on the sidelines will be issued a vest. This vest must be worn at all times to gain access to the sidelines. No other type of photo or media credential will allow an individual access to the sidelines. The vest must be returned to a member of the South Carolina media relations staff following the game.

3. Working photographers/videographers are permitted to shoot in the designated area (between the two marked dotted lines outside the 25-yard lines). All other media representatives on the field (announcers, reporters, etc.) must stand behind the designated area. This will ensure that photographers/videographers have the appropriate space to do their work. No photographer will be allowed to shoot from either end zone.

4. Photographers are encouraged to use the photo work room, located on the ground level of Williams-Brice Stadium. Wireless internet is available. While security in this area is provided, the University of South Carolina is not responsible for the loss of any items.

5. According to NCAA policies, the presence of any type of photographer (television or still) in the bench area for all sports is strictly prohibited. According to the NCAA Football Rules and Interpretations Manual (Rule 1, Section 2, Article 4b): "the team area shall be limited to squad members in uniform and a maximum of 40 other individuals directly involved in the game. The 40 individuals not in uniform shall wear special identification." (Rule 1, Section 2, Article 4e): "No media personnel, including journalists, radio and television personnel, or their equipment, shall be in the team area or coaching box, and no media personnel shall communicate in any way with persons in the team area or coaching box."

The SEC also prohibits photographers (television or still) from stopping and shooting from behind the bench area or into the bench area. The bench area is defined by each institution's facility guidelines.

Internet Credential Policy

The University of South Carolina adheres to the SEC policies regarding representatives of websites. The official website of the home and visiting schools will be credentialed. Also, the official online service of the national over-the-air or cable television network that owns broadcast rights to the game will receive credentials. Other websites will not be credentialed unless they meet the following specifications:

1. Must be a legal corporate entity that has been in business for at least one full calendar year and has provided coverage of South Carolina or the visiting team for at least one year.

2. Must provide daily coverage of all athletic teams of South Carolina or the visiting team with its own staff of full-time reporters, photographers and equipment.

3. Must travel to and cover all football away games and all major post-season events.

4. Must provide coverage of all press conferences of all athletic teams at South Carolina or the visiting team.

No credentials will be issued to any website that is not deemed by University of South Carolina Assistant Athletics Director/Media Relations Steve Fink to have adequate editorial oversight.

SEC Internet Real Time Policy

By acceptance and use of an SEC media credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions for any and all athletic events hosted by the SEC and its member institutions:

1. The SEC and its member institutions grant a media organization a limited license to use certain gathered information on the media organization's own Internet or online site beginning at the start of an athletic event and up to the conclusion of such event, all subject to the following limitations and conditions:

(a) No more than 10 still photographs may be used for news coverage of the game and other editorial purposes. Such still photographs must be used on a time-delayed basis, that is at least five (5) minutes after the happening of the event depicted by the still photograph.

(b) It is agreed that video is NOT to be used on an Internet or online site with the following stipulations:

(i) video may be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly-scheduled news program.

(ii) footage may be broadcast or otherwise distributed on the Internet or via any other online service or computer service, using the following limitations: a maximum of three (3) minutes from Satellite Feed Footage, Practice Footage and Event Footage.

(iii) Footage may not be used, sold, traded, loaned or given away to any other entity for any sports entertainment programs, specials, home videos, commercials and promotional use or in any other manner not specifically set forth in these policies without prior expressed written permission of the Southeastern Conference or the University of South Carolina.

(c) While a game is in progress, the use of textual statistical information is time-delayed and limited in amount so that an organization's Internet or online game coverage does not undercut the authorized and rights-paying fee organization's rights to play-by-play accounts of the game and/or exclusivity as to such rights.

2. Any proposed media use on an Internet or online site of the game information that is more detailed and/or more than described above will require separate written authorization by the SEC and/or its member institutions. However, such written authorization will not permit the use of game information in entertainment contexts and will not authorize game coverage that, due to immediacy of detail, constitutes or approaches a play-by-play account of a game.

3. Should any of these conditions be breached, the SEC and/or its member institutions will issue a written warning for the first violation. A second violation of this policy will result in revocation of credentials to cover future football games hosted by the SEC and/or its member institutions.

Press Box/Services

South Carolina's press box has seats for 144 members of the media, along with television and radio booths, coaches' booths and public address and stadium operations/security booths. Located just above the press level is the photo deck. All members of the media covering the game are invited to a catered meal, which is served beginning two hours prior to kickoff.

Wireless internet is available for use. Wired outlets for photographers and videographers are available in the back of the press box. The photo workroom, located on the ground level of Williams-Brice Stadium, also has wireless internet access.

Any media outlet that wishes to install its own telephone should contact South Carolina Telephone Communications at (803) 777-1800.

The Athletics Media Relations department supplies quarterly play-by-plays and quickie stats, halftime statistics, final team and individual statistics and coaches and players quotes. An inside public address announcer also keeps the media informed of play-by-play, records and game notes.

The Carolina press box is for the working media only. In accordance with the Football Writers Association of America, no cheering will be allowed.

In-Game Statistics

Media should utilize StatMonitr live stats for all the latest statistical information during games. Visit gamecocks.statbroadcast.com for live scoring of all home football games. Upon clicking the link for the game you will be prompted for a password that is available in your media packet.

Postgame Interviews

The press box elevator will be held at press level midway through the fourth quarter for anyone needing postgame interviews. South Carolina's postgame interviews take place in the Media Interview Room, located underneath the stands on the west side of Williams-Brice Stadium. The visitors' locker room and postgame interview room are located under the west stands at the north end. The Gamecock locker room will be closed following the game. Coach Spurrier will be available in the postgame interview room approximately 10 minutes after the game. Selected student-athletes will also be brought to the interview room following the cool-down period. Admittance to postgame interviews is by credential only. The South Carolina press conference will be televised live to the press box.

Satellite Truck Parking

Limited parking is available for TV station live/satellite trucks and those vehicles will need to be approved prior to game day. Please contact Diana Koval at least three days prior to the game to schedule live/satellite truck parking.

Visiting Radio

The visitor's radio network must be designated by the opponent's athletic director. Booth space will be assigned by Steve Fink, Assistant Athletics Director/Media Relations. Any non-designated stations will be admitted on a space-available basis. The Gamecock Sports Network will be handled by IMG College. Stations requesting information regarding the network should contact: Liz McMillan, IMG College, (803) 777-8254.

Television Stations/Broadcast Networks

For information on receiving mid-week press conference videos, post-game press conference videos, and other football related footage, please contact Assistant Media Relations Director Matt Freed at mfreed@mailbox.sc.edu or Multimedia Coordinator Cory Burkarth at burkarth@mailbox.sc.edu. Login information to the department's media FTP site will be provided. Please credit all footage to GamecocksOnline when using footage from the FTP site.

Live Broadcasts

It is not permissible for any non-rightsholder to broadcast over the air, stream over the internet (audio or video), or transmit in any other way, any live event without the consent of the University of South Carolina Athletics Department. Live events include varsity contests, press conferences (including but not limited to weekly scheduled and postgame press conferences) and any other group media availability. Exceptions may be made for any major news-breaking event.

Archiving of Event Audio/Video

It is not permissible for any non-rightsholder to archive audio or video Event content that exceeds five (5) minutes in length. Events are defined as varsity contests, press conferences and any other group media availability. Archiving may not begin until the conclusion of the entire event. WNKT-FM (107.5) is the only radio station that can carry press conferences live and/or archived in their entirety.

Non-Rightsholder Radio Appearances

USC coaches will be limited to one appearance from one member of a sport's coaching staff per seven-day period on any radio station or any radio show that is aired as part of a state-wide, regional or national network in the Columbia market. The length of the interview should be no more than one segment, defined as "commercial-break to commercial-break." The segment shall run no longer than 10 minutes. In addition, the same member of a sport's coaching staff or South Carolina administrator cannot make appearances in consecutive seven-day periods on the same radio station. Media outlets in which the institution or the SEC is contractually affiliated is exempt from this language. Exceptions can be made in the occurrence of a major "breaking news" event. Please work through the team's media relations contact to help coordinate any request.

Game Day Availability

No University of South Carolina Athletics department member may appear live on a non-rightsholder radio show on the same day as any USC contractual programming, including live game action or coaches' call-in shows, without prior consent of the Athletics Media Relations department.

Student-Athlete Radio Appearances

South Carolina student-athletes may not participate in any live radio show other than during a regularly scheduled newscast and for no longer than four minutes, post-game interview times, conference media days and structured media opportunities during NCAA championships, without the consent of the South Carolina Athletics Media Relations department. This policy is in effect year-round and does not apply to institutional networks. It does apply to internet chat rooms that are sponsored by a media outlet for the sole purpose of conducting Q&A sessions with the viewing public concerning the student-athlete's athletic career.

SEC Weekly Teleconference

The Southeastern Conference hosts a weekly press teleconference each Wednesday from Aug. 28 through Nov. 20. The teleconference features the head coach from each team every week. Each coach issues an opening statement followed by questions from the media for seven minutes. To participate, please contact either the SEC Media Relations office at (205) 458-3010 or the school's Media Relations department for the telephone number, which will be assigned at a later date.

South Carolina Student-Athlete Media Interview Policy

All interviews are to be coordinated through the Media Relations Department. This allows the staff to arrange the interview when it best suits the student-athlete's and the reporter's schedules. Please contact the Media Relations Department in advance to make your interview requests. Media are not permitted to contact student-athletes on their own at any time.

All interviews will take place at the practice fields, in the media room underneath the west stands at Williams-Brice Stadium or in the Media Relations Department office. No interviews will take place prior to practice on the practice fields.

Residence hall, apartment or cell phone numbers for student-athletes will not be provided to the media. Should you need to conduct a telephone interview with a student-athlete, a call will be placed to you from the student-athlete at a mutually agreeable time.

The University of South Carolina has one of the largest followings in college athletics. The athletics department provides a wide variety of venues beyond the official website, GamecocksOnline.com, to keep up on the latest information, including Facebook, Twitter, YouTube and Flickr. Gamecock news is also available via a cell phone. The official mobile app is free and includes headlines and news updates, live scoring and stats, schedules, videos, photo galleries and more. GameTracker Mobile is available for live scoring, play-by-play and text alerts with the latest headlines and scores.

SEC MISSION STATEMENT

"The purpose of the Southeastern Conference is to assist its member institutions in the maintenance of programs of intercollegiate athletics which are compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports."

THE SEC

The Southeastern Conference was formed in 1932 and consists of 14 member institutions:

Alabama, Arkansas, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Missouri, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas A&M, and Vanderbilt. The league currently sanctions championship play in nine men's sports and 12 women's sports. Its headquarters has been located in Birmingham, Ala., since 1948.

BCS NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

The SEC has captured the BCS National Championship for seven consecutive seasons. Since the inception of the BCS in 1998, the SEC leads all conferences with nine national champions. Tennessee won the BCS's first national title in 1998, LSU won the crown in 2003, Florida claimed the national championship in 2006 and 2008, LSU took the title in 2007, Alabama was crowned the National Champion in 2009 and again in 2011 and 2012, while Auburn took the top spot in 2010. The Big 12 has two BCS national titles followed by the ACC, Big Ten, Pac-10 and Big East with one each.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS SINCE 1992

Since SEC expansion in 1992, the SEC has the most national championships (AP, USA Today) with 11. During that time, the SEC has had more teams (5) with national titles than any other conference.

SEC: Florida (1996, 2006, 2008), LSU (2003, 2007), Tennessee (1998), Alabama (1992, 2009, 2011, 2012), Auburn (2010)

Big 12: Texas (2005), Oklahoma (2000), Nebraska (1994, 1995, 1997)

Big Ten: Ohio State (2002), Michigan (1997)

Pac-12: Southern California (2003, 2004)

ACC: Florida State (1993, 1999)

Big East: Miami, Fla. (2001)

SEC IN THE NFL

The SEC has had more of its former players on NFL rosters in the last five seasons than any other conference. Since 2006, the SEC has averaged 266.1 players per year on NFL opening weekend rosters. The league had a high of 314 on 2012 rosters and has outpaced all conferences every year.

SEC TOPS IN FAN SUPPORT

The Southeastern Conference has led the nation in total attendance in football every year since 1981 (32 straight years). Since 1988, the SEC has led the nation in average attendance. More than eight million fans witnessed first-hand, the excitement of SEC football in 2012. The average capacity of the 14 SEC stadiums during the last 10 years has been over 97 percent. Every year since 1988, the SEC has had at least four teams ranked in the top 10 in average attendance.
